

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

†Appendix I.

The Rev. Mr. Hayes, from the Standing Committee on Unfinished Business, reported as follows:—

The Committee on Unfinished Business find on the Journal of the Convention of 1876, p. 4, the appointment of three Special Committees to report to this Convention.

1. On the Diocesan Canons.
2. On Sunday Schools.
3. On Examinations of S. Catharine's Hall.

C. S. LEFFINGWELL,
HUDSON SAWYER,
JOHN HAMILTON,
WILLIAM GRAY,
Committee.

The Rev. Mr. Hayes, from the Special Committee on Diocesan Canons, continued last year to report to this Convention, made the following

REPORT:—

The Special Committee on the Diocesan Canons report that the work committed to them, the Revision of the Canons of the Diocese, is still awaiting the action of the Convention on the Revised Constitution approved in 1875, and referred last year to the Standing Committee on Canons. The Committee therefore ask to be continued until they have a basis for preparing a revised code of Canons in the revision of the Constitution, or else that they be discharged and another Committee appointed.

HENRY A. NEELY,
CHARLES W. HAYES,
WILLIAM J. ALGER,
SAMUEL UPJOHN,
GEORGE E. B. JACKSON,
JOSEPH HOWARD,
Committee.

On motion, the above Committee was continued to report to the next Convention a revised code of Canons.

The Registrar read his Annual Report.*

The Rev. Mr. Alger, from the Committee on Sunday Schools, made the following

REPORT:—

The Committee on Sunday Schools beg leave to say, that while they would regard a carefully prepared paper on the Sunday School, to be presented and discussed at the proper time and place, as exceedingly valuable, and while there is abundant and important material for such a paper, they find nothing of moment proper to put into a formal report to the Convention, which has not been already embodied in the reports of the two previous years. They would therefore simply refer to and reiterate these reports, and their accompanying conclusions and suggestions, with the additional recommendation that some person or persons be appointed by the Bishop to prepare a paper or papers on Sunday Schools, to be read next year at the meeting which is held in connection with the Convention, for the discussion of Sunday School questions and work.

For the meeting to be held this evening, they propose the following question for discussion :

“What are the requisite qualifications for a Sunday School Teacher?”

All which is respectfully submitted.

WILLIAM J. ALGER,
FREDERICK S. SILL,
JOHN GREGSON.

The Rev. Mr. Alger offered the following Resolution, which was adopted :—

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to appoint a person or persons to prepare a paper or papers on Sunday School Work, to be read next year at the meeting which is held in connection with the Convention for the discussion of such work.

The Bishop appointed the Rev. Mr. Alger to prepare a paper for next year, under the above Resolution.

The hour for the Annual Meeting of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society having arrived, the Convention took a recess for that purpose.*

The Convention having resumed its session, the Rev. Mr. Hayes, from the Standing Committee on Canons, made the following

REPORT :—

The Standing Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the whole subject of the Revised Constitution approved, with amendments, by the Convention of 1875, and the amendment to Art. II. of the same, offered at the Convention of 1876, report that they have given a careful consideration to the subject, and recommend the following Resolution for adoption by the Convention :

Resolved, That the Constitution as amended and approved by the Convention of 1875, be approved as the Constitution of the Diocese, for final adoption by the Annual Convention of 1878, with the following additional amendments :

First, In Art. II. § 2, after the words “may elect,” read “not more than five Lay Deputies, male persons of full age, and Communicants of the Parish, or where the election of Communicants is impracticable, stated worshippers therein, to represent said Parish in the Convention."

Second, In Art. V. § 1, strike out the last clause, beginning with the word "Provided."

The Committee are unanimously of opinion that the amendment to Art. II. § 2, proposed last year, and referred to them, should not be adopted.

CHARLES W. HAYES,
WILLIAM J. ALGER,
SAMUEL UPJOHN,
GEORGE E. B. JACKSON,
HENRY INGALLS,

Committee.

The Rev. Mr. Dalton moved to amend the Resolution offered by the Committee, by striking out the words "or where the election of Communicants is impracticable, stated worshippers therein."

A vote by Orders being called for, the amendment was lost, as follows :—

CLERGY.

Aye.—The Rev. Messrs. Washburn, Walker, Edwards and Ketchum.—4.

No.—The Bishop, and the Rev. Messrs. Hayes, Upjohn, Marsden, Leffingwell, Sill, Pyne, Sawyer, Gregson, Wyllie, Packard, Nichols, Locke and Small.—14.

PARISHES.

Aye.—Lewiston.—1.

No.—Portland, Cathedral; Brunswick, Saco, Wiscasset, Gardiner, Augusta, Dexter and Eastport.—8.

The Rev. Mr. Gregson moved to take up the proposed Constitution, article by article. The motion was lost.

The Resolution proposed by the Committee was then adopted.*

The Convention then adjourned to Wednesday morning at nine o'clock.

TUESDAY, 7½ P. M.

Evening Prayer was said by the Rev. Messrs. Nichols, Small and Wyllie, and an Address in behalf of the Society for the Increase of the Ministry, made by the Rev. Elisha Whittlesey, of the Diocese of Connecticut. An informal meeting to consider the subject of Sunday School Work was then held.

*See page 18 infra, and the Constitution as approved, Appendix V.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 5, 7 A. M.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Rev. Canon Hayes, assisted by the Rev. Charles J. Ketchum.

WEDNESDAY, 9 A. M.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rev. Messrs. Alger and Edwards, after which the Convention resumed its session, the Bishop presiding.

The Minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The names of members absent yesterday were called, and seven additional Lay Deputies (three from a Parish not represented yesterday) took their seats.*

The Rev. Mr. Packard read the following Report of the Committee on Examinations at S. Catharine's Hall:—

The undersigned, one of the Examiners of S. Catharine's Hall, was in attendance during the Annual Exercises, and would report to the Convention that the School showed the results of sound teaching and discreet government.

There are few college classes that could excel the recitation of the young ladies in mathematics; and the appearance of the scholars in other departments was exceptionally satisfactory. Quietly and unpretentiously, an educational work of great importance is in progress at S. Catharine's.

More specific account of the examination in the different branches has appeared in the NORTH EAST, and the writer will therefore simply reiterate what he has before reported; that the young ladies are being taught to think, and that the recitations are so unconventional as to indicate plainly that the course of instruction does not follow a merely book routine.

The writer would most cordially endorse and repeat the commendations of the school to be found in the Reports made to previous Conventions.

GEORGE T. PACKARD.

* See page 6.

REPORT:—

The Special Committee on S. Catharine's Hall beg leave to report:—

That a consideration of the present condition and needs of the institution has convinced them that the time has fully come for prompt and vigorous action touching the maintenance of the Diocesan School.

The Committee are of opinion that the people of the Diocese recognize and accept these facts:—

That the School was not prematurely established.

That there is abundant material for furnishing the requisite number of pupils, by looking simply to our Church families.

And that the instruction, discipline, and general management of the institution commend it to our unhesitating support.

They would restrict their suggestions, therefore, to the main inquiry,—how shall the children and the money of our people be drawn to S. Catharine's, that it may be a financial success,—its standing in other regards being entirely satisfactory?

The Committee recommend that a descriptive list of those whose age and circumstances would permit them to be scholars of S. Catharine's, but who are being educated under other auspices, be made at once by the several Rectors and Missionaries, and that these names be sent to the Rector of the School as soon as possible, and not later than October 1. The authorities of S. Catharine's will then have the educational statement of each Parish and Mission, in compact form, and means can be taken to urge the claims of the School upon those who have children and resources, but who bestow upon it no practical aid and sympathy.

Furthermore, the Committee would affectionately remind the Clergy that the Rector of the School has been compelled to carry a heavy burden, in addition to large parochial responsibilities; and that it is the duty of his brethren to lighten his cares and anxieties by a more active interest, and by personal appeals in behalf of the School. And they would likewise, and most earnestly suggest to the Laity, that where God has blessed them with an abundance, they ought to contribute a proportionate amount to this Diocesan institution, albeit they may have no children to place in it.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE T. PACKARD,
WILLIAM H. WASHBURN, EDWARD ROWSE,
JOHN HAMILTON,
JOHN H. M'LELLAN.

The Convention proceeded to the election of officers.

Mr. James T. M'Cobb was re-elected as Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Standing Committee of last year was re-elected, with the exception of one clerical member, as follows:—

The Rev. CHARLES W. HAYES,
The Rev. WILLIAM J. ALGER,

Mr. GEO. E. B. JACKSON,
Mr. HENRY INGALLS,
Mr. SOLOMON T. CORSER.

A second and third ballot having been taken without an election of a third clerical member, a fourth ballot was held, resulting in the election of the Rev. Asa Dalton.

The following were elected Deputies to the General Convention :—

The Rev. C. S. LEFINGWELL,
The Rev. SAMUEL UPJOHN,
The Rev. CHARLES W. HAYES,
The Rev. WILLIAM J. ALGER,

Mr. JAMES BRIDGE,
Mr. HENRY INGALLS,
Mr. GEO. E. B. JACKSON,
Mr. ROBERT H. GARDINER.

And the following Supplemental Deputies :—

The Rev. WM. H. WASHBURN,
The Rev. GEORGE T. PACKARD,
The Rev. HENRY R. PYNE,
The Rev. JOHN GREGSON,

Mr. FREDERICK F. FRENCH,
Mr. GEORGE F. SHEPLEY,
Mr. JOSEPH HOWARD,
Mr. JAMES T. PATTEN.

The Rev. Charles W. Hayes, the Rev. Samuel Upjohn, and Mr. James Bridge, were nominated to the General Convention as Trustees of the General Theological Seminary for this Diocese.

Mr. Geo. F. Shepley, on behalf of the Committee on Finance, reported as follows :—

The Committee on Finance, to whom were referred the accounts of the Treasurers of the Diocese, of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, and of the Episcopate Fund, report that these accounts appear to them to be correct and properly vouched.

They desire in this connection to call the attention of the Convention to two facts :

1. That the present income of the Episcopate Fund available for the support of the Bishop, is less than $1,200.
2. That the assessments for the expenses of the Convention of 1876 remain still unpaid in fifteen Parishes and Missions out of thirty-two.

GEORGE F. SHEPLEY,
ROBERT H. GARDINER,
SOLOMON T. CORSER,
J. H. M'LELLAN,
LOUIS V. CAZIARC,

*Committee.

On motion, the names of the Parishes deficient in payment of assessments, with the amounts due, were read by the Secretary.

*See the Reports in Appendix II., D. E. F.

The Secretary announced that nine out of the fifteen unpaid assessments had been now paid by members of the Convention.

Mr. James Bridge, and Mr. George E. B. Jackson, were appointed by the Bishop a Committee to report a table of Assessments for the expenses of the Diocesan and General Convention for this year.

The Committee reported the following

RIGHT REVEREND SIR :

In compliance with the requirements of Section III. of Canon 1 of Title III. of the Digest, I would hereby give you "particular notice" of the following proposed changes in the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, recommended by the General Convention of 1874, and to be finally acted upon by the General Convention of 1877, to wit :

I. It was by concurrent action of the two Houses of the General Convention of 1874,

Resolved, That it be recommended and proposed that the following alteration be made in Article 5 of the Constitution, to wit : Insert at the end of the Article the words :

"The General Convention may, upon the application of the Bishop and Convention of an organized diocese, setting forth that the territory of the Diocese is too large for due episcopal supervision by the Bishop of such Diocese, set off a portion of such Diocesan territory, which shall thereupon be placed within, or constitute, a Missionary Jurisdiction, as the House of Bishops may determine."

II. It was further

Resolved, That the following be proposed and made known to the several Dioceses as an amendment to Article 8 of the Constitution, to be added at the end of the Article as it now stands, to wit, the words :

"Provided, That the General Convention may by Canon arrange and set forth a shortened form of Morning and Evening Prayer, to be compiled wholly from the Book of Common Prayer."

III. It was further

Resolved, That the following be proposed as an amendment, by way of addition, to the 8th Article of the Constitution, to wit :

Resolved, second, That the Secretary of the House of Deputies cause the foregoing proposed amendment of the Constitution to be made known to the several Dioceses, according to the Constitution and Canons of the Church.

APPENDIX I.

A.

The Bishop's Address.

My Dear Brethren:

Since our last Convention I have visited officially, and performed some service in all the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese, with two or three exceptions, and have administered the rite of Confirmation to one hundred and twenty-four Candidates. I have ordained four persons to the Diaconate, and one to the Priesthood; admitted two as Candidates for Holy Orders, and one as Postulant; received two Clergy into the Diocese, and transferred four to other Dioceses; and licensed two Lay Readers. I have also presided at each of the meetings of our Board of Missions held in the course of the year, and at the meeting of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall. I have attended a special meeting of the House of Bishops, in Philadelphia, at which Missionary Bishops were chosen for Shanghai, and Cape Palmas, and preached the annual sermon before the General Board of Missions assembled in Philadelphia. I have preached, also, a special sermon in behalf of the Society for the Increase of the Ministry, in Trinity Church, Newport, Rhode Island, and made various Missionary addresses and appeals in other Churches without the Diocese.

Waiving further details, and without entering upon a chronological narrative, I first present some of the results of my observations in our Diocesan field. It is gratifying to me to be able to report that at this time most of our Parishes and Missions are supplied with Clergy. This has not been the case, however, throughout the whole or even the greater part of the year, and the fact that there have been no Confirmations in several of the Parishes is, probably, attributable chiefly to that circumstance. The aggregate number of those confirmed is nevertheless not so far below the average of former years as I had feared it might be. There have been no remarkable changes in the condition of the older Parishes, with the exception of S. Paul's, Brunswick, which under the zealous and efficient administrations of the present Rector, received into the Diocese since Easter, seems advancing to a higher degree of strength and influence. The Rector of S. Stephen's Parish, Portland, had the satisfaction of presenting an unusually large number of candidates (seventeen) for Confirmation at the annual visitation. S. Mark's, Augusta, has paid off the debt upon its Rectory, amounting, I think, to nearly $4,000 ; and in the Cathedral a praiseworthy and enthusiastic effort has been made to cancel a much larger debt ; an effort the full success of which may, I trust, be soon celebrated by the consecration of the Cathedral.

These may be regarded as encouraging tokens, not only of a present vigorous vitality, but of the near approach of a day when, by the increase of its numbers and material resources, the Church in this Diocese will become at once less dependent upon external aid, and better able to prosecute its aggressive work with a more vigorous hand. May God give us grace to recognize and fulfill the increased responsibility which an increasing ability will impose—the loving heart, the willing hand, the Christ-like spirit, without which neither numbers nor wealth can be of any advantage to the Church.

In some of our missions and missionary parishes less apparent progress has been made than usual, but this has been owing to adverse circumstances temporarily prevailing, and forebodes no permanent depression. In others there has been a marked accession of vigour and interest. I have already alluded to the improved condition of S. Paul's, Brunswick, which is still one of our missionary parishes, and for another example I might cite the case of S. Anne's, Calais, where the fuller congregations, the larger offerings and the growing Sunday School, testify both to the zeal of the Missionary and to the blessing of God upon his labours.

A new mission has been organized during the past year, at Waterville, and placed under the charge of the Rev. Mr. Small, ordained in the Cathedral on Trinity Sunday. Services had been previously maintained here for some time, and very acceptably, by one of our candidates for Orders, Mr. Henry Jones; so that Mr. Small found a considerable number of persons earnestly interested in the permanent establishment of the Church in that important town. Four have been confirmed, and the venture has already been made of purchasing a church lot. Those identified with this undertaking are persons of respectable standing in the community, who, I am confident, will labour energetically for its success, and it would therefore seem that an auspicious beginning has been made here in a work which may soon prove of considerable importance.

Services have also been regularly held during the past year at Ellsworth, under the Rev. Mr. Fitz, who acted as a Lay Reader until his ordination on Trinity Sunday. No organization has as yet been effected here, but at my recent visitation I was very cordially received by several families, who also expressed an earnest desire for the continuance of the ministrations of our Church in that community, and a willingness to contribute according to their ability to that end. I trust it may be found practicable to meet their wishes.

A small church is nearly completed at Van Buren, and I hope that an arrangement may soon be made whereby services shall be regularly maintained at that point.

A very tasteful stone church has been erected during the past season at Bar Harbor, by the contributions of visitors at that favorite summer resort on our coast. It is already enclosed, and will probably be finished before the next summer. It is the desire of those who are doing this good work, that it shall be for the advantage not only of transitory visitors, but of the islanders, and they would therefore, no doubt, contribute liberally to the support of a resident Missionary.

Our work at other points in the Diocese is for the most part in faithful hands, and the few vacancies will, I trust, shortly be filled. The Rev. Mr. Washburn, our pioneer missionary in the north-eastern part of the State, and the value of whose labours there is so widely known, has been transferred to Lewiston, one of our most important centres of population, where he will have ample scope for the energies of his maturer years; and while his many friends in Aroostook County will long regret his departure from them, it is probable that the change will be to the advantage of the general work of the Church in the Diocese. I am the more confident of this because of the excellent qualifications of his successor, in the former field, for building up on the foundations well and wisely laid there by his zealous and prudent endeavours. The Rev. Mr. Pyne, after several years of faithful service at Eastport, has recently accepted a call to Wiscasset, and with the assistance of a candidate for Orders, Mr. A. M. Sherman, has undertaken the further charge of S. John's, Dresden, and of the new, and as yet unorganized Mission at Newcastle. The latter already gives good promise of developing into important proportions, and acquiring a considerable influence in the community. The little hall in which the services are now held and which it was thought would amply suffice for the accomodation of all who would care to attend them, is filled to overflowing on every occasion of public worship, and the question of making some more adequate provision for the congregation has already forced itself upon the consideration of the active supporters of the Mission. At my recent first visitation five persons were confirmed. The Missions at Camden and Rockport, after being long vacant, are now supplied by the Rev. Mr. Locke, ordained during the past year, and a marked revival of churchly interest is already apparent in them.

The condition of our Diocesan School, S. Catharine's Hall, has not been satisfactory during the past year with respect to the number of pupils availing themselves of its advantages, and the amount of income. But the school has been conducted in a manner which has won the hearty approval of its patrons, and which ought to ensure for it a largely increased patronage for the coming year. It is a matter of regret to me that the importance of maintaining such a school, near our own homes, under the auspices of the Church, where the best guarantees are given not only for a superior intellectual training, but for moral and religious culture, should not be more fully appreciated by the Churchmen of the Diocese. Of course if the School does not fulfill its pretensions in these respects, if it is not a thoroughly good school and does not afford those advantages, which a parent should desire for his child, then it has no just claim upon his patronage, however strongly it might appeal for his support. I have no desire nor inclination to maintain an educational institution of any kind merely for the sake of boasting that we have a school of our own, nor would I think it worth while to add another of the same class to those already existing, public or private, within our State. But as one called to do the utmost that he can in the exercise of a high office, for the welfare of this community, I feel the deepest interest in the work of educating, according to the best ideal of education, those who are to be the wives of our young men, and the mothers of the next generation. Our public schools, however excellent many of them may be with reference merely to intellectual discipline, cannot afford that culture which is of even greater value in domestic and social life. Private schools established with primary reference to the emolument of their founders, are too often, with all the display of their advertisements, but superficial in their work, and careless of actual results. Mixed schools where the two sexes are educated together, without either parental or other responsible supervision over their personal habits, and daily life, are much the worst of all. But besides all this, I heartily believe that for the best and fullest development of character, and for ensuring the attainment of those graces which most adorn the Christian household, the work of education should be conducted from first to last on that theory of culture, and of the true end and value of life, which the Church inculcates. This work should be begun by parents at home, and entrusted subsequently, if the child is to be placed at school away from home, only to those who will prosecute it under like safeguards and according to the same method, with that conscientious earnestness, and watchfulness, and fidelity which a Christian love for souls alone can prompt. Such is the training which I would provide for your daughters, my brethren, and for the daughters of as many of our fellow-citizens as shall desire to avail themselves of it, and it is because I have the best of reasons for believing that our S. Catharine's Hall affords the advantage of such a training that I appeal to you to give it your hearty and united support. If I were asked at this moment by any wealthy layman how he could best promote, by pecuniary contribution, the welfare of this community, I would answer, by so endowing S. Catharine's Hall that all who would may avail themselves of its advantages. But the patronage alone of the Churchmen of the Diocese who have daughters to educate, and could afford to educate them at our Diocesan School, would amply suffice for its support on its present basis ; and surely it is not unreasonable to expect thus much at their hands.

I would suggest in this connection the appointment of a Committee to whom shall be referred the report of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall.

Among the most important of the offerings provided for by Canon is that for the education of those preparing for Holy Orders ; and it has been considered advisable in view of the liberal proposition made to us by the Society for the Increase of the Ministry, that our contributions for theological education should be put into the Treasury of that Society. It has been reported to me, however, by the Treasurer of the Society that the Parochial Offerings received by him from Maine for the past year have been but $78.05 and that the balance overpaid by the Society on our account, after crediting us with all our contributions, is $103.36. It appears to me from this statement that in but very few of the parishes can the usual and required collection have been made ; and in view of the fact that we have no less than four beneficiaries on the Society's list, receiving an amount for their support which we could by no means give them directly, we have hardly been considerate or just in allowing the balance to be against us. Certainly if we would continue to receive the assistance of the Society to the extent that we need it, we must henceforth be more careful to fulfill the conditions upon which it is granted. I trust it will be found from the Parochial Reports that our offerings for the General Missionary Work of the Church have been larger than usual. The past year has been a critical and trying period for those entrusted with the supervision of the missionary operations of the Church. But their appeals for support, if not so abundantly successful as they should have been, were by no means in vain ; and it may be that the day of adversity has been profitable for us, that we have attained in it, as a Church, a higher sense of responsibility, and have come more freely to realize that the duty of sustaining and prosecuting the work assigned us by our Divine Master is a duty incumbent on us, not merely when the day is bright, and the path smooth, and the burden light, but that we are to "take up our cross and follow Him," and give up house and lands, if need be, for His sake. This lesson acquired and taken to heart (it is indeed one of the simplest and plainest lessons of the Gospel), would be of more value than the wisest or the most ingenious of "plans," or "schemes" for raising money for Missionary or other Church objects, and only as we have learned it and are governed by it, will the work of the Church be secure from disaster amidst the changes and chances of worldly affairs. Should I not add the declaration of our Lord himself that until we have learned it, we are unworthy of bearing His name and cannot be His disciples.

Within the last Conventional Year has occurred the eleventh anniversary of my consecration to the Episcopate, and I have entered upon a second decade of the years, known only to God, in which I am to labour among and with you. It was a source of deep gratification to me that so many of my brethren of the Laity as well as the Clergy, came up to the Cathedral on S. Paul's Day and took my hand with so hearty a grasp, and uttered such kindly words. Nothing indeed could be more grateful to me than the assurance thus given, that after so many years, I still had a large measure of your confidence and your sympathy, that my failings and errors have not exhausted your forbearance, and that there is no serious dissatisfaction with my official policy and action—nothing, save the assurance of His merciful approval to whom we all must finally answer.

I miss to-day, for the first time in our annual council, one who for ten years had been my steadfast friend and faithful supporter, and to whom both his own particular parish, and the Diocese were largely indebted for long-continued and large-hearted service. We shall all long miss in the prosecution of our work the cheerful spirit, the wise counsels, and the generous benefactions of Daniel Williams. But the years of his peaceful life had exceeded the allotted term, and although he had not found his strength, even at four-score years, to be "but labour and sorrow," and his heart still rejoiced in the goodness which had crowned his days with manifold blessing, he realized that the life beyond is brighter and better, and welcomed the summons to "depart and be with Christ."

I cannot wholly refrain from speaking of the loss of another, mourned especially by the faithful flock at Brunswick, whose modest virtues would have shrunk from any public recognition or reference, but whose devoted, though always unobtrusive, service and consistent character contributed much to the exemplary standing, and recognized value of that parish,—Miss Ellen Ballard. It was my privilege to minister to her, on several occasions, in the later weeks of her sojourn amongst us, and to see that, while she was not spared suffering, she yet found under it that peace which is the present gift of the Redeemer to His faithful ones. As the end drew near she gained a firmer hold upon the promises, and a more assured confidence in the might and love of Christ our Saviour; and when at last she fell asleep it was with, no dread of the darkness that closed upon her mortal vision, nor of the more awful brightness of the "day of His appearing."

May such be our peace amidst the tribulations of this earthly state, and such our confidence when we enter "the valley of the shadow of death."

APPENDIX II.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

[Of some of these documents, abstracts only are printed, the accounts in full having been approved by the Convention and placed on file.]

A. Report of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese respectfully report :

That during the year, they have given their consent to the Consecration of the Rev. Samuel Isaac Joseph Schereschewsky, D. D., as Missionary Bishop at Shanghai, with jurisdiction in China, and of the Rev. C. Clifton Penick, as Missionary Bishop at Cape Palmas, Africa, and parts adjacent ; and have signed testimonials in behalf of the Rev. Harry Peirce Nichols, and the Rev. Rodney Miller Edwards, Deacons, for admission to Priest's Orders ; of Messrs. Arthur Herbert Locke, Edwin Francis Small, Rodney Miller Edwards, and Charles Edwin Fitz, for Deacon's Orders, and of Messrs. Addison Monroe Sherman and George Arthur Holbrook, as Candidates for Holy Orders.

GEORGE E. B. JACKSON, Secretary.

PORTLAND, Sept. 4, 1877,

B. Report of the Registrar.

The Registrar of the Diocese reports that the principal addition made to the Library of the Cathedral during the past year is a remarkably fine and valuable black-letter copy of the famous Commentary of Nicholas DeLyra, on the Holy Scriptures, in six vols. folio, in vellum, published at Basle in 1506, and entitled in the catalogues of the few great Libraries in which it is found, "opus rarissimum ;" unique both for its contents and as a specimen of early typography. The donor was Dr. John M. Mitchell. By exchange of duplicates, ten volumes of the "Historical Magazine" have been obtained from the Editor, Henry B. Dawson, Esq., and from the Bishop twelve folio volumes, bound, of the London Guardian from 1871, a work of great value to the Library. Some further progress has been made in the arrangement and classification of books and pamphlets ; but much remains to be done, and more space will soon be needed for the contents of the Registry.

CHARLES W. HAYES, Registrar.

PORTLAND, Sept. 4, 1877.

C. Report of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall.

The Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall respectfully report :

That the School has been for the past year under the general supervision of the Rev. Samuel Upjohn, as Rector, with Miss Martha E. Davis, Principal of the School, assisted by four other teachers. The Trustees bear testimony to the excellent character of the training, both in promoting instruction and discipline, and earnestly ask for the School the interest and patronage of Churchmen. During the last year there were thirteen boarders and twenty-eight day scholars. The income of the School at the present rate of patronage is insufficient to meet the expenses, and the Trustees do not feel justified in continuing the School unless the resources are sufficient. They therefore request that the Clergy of the Diocese make a special appeal to parents to give their immediate patronage to S. Catharine's where it may be practicable. Should this or another proper means of enlarging the number of pupils be unsuccessful, they will be obliged to close the School at the conclusion of the Christmas term.

Respectfully submitted,

SAMUEL UPJOHN, Secretary.

Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.

PROCEEDINGS

AT THE ANNUAL MEETING, SEPT. 4, 1877.

CATHEDRAL CHURCH, PORTLAND, }
TUESDAY, SEPT. 4, 1877. }

The Annual Meeting of the Society was held at 4 o'clock this day, in accordance with the By-Laws adopted by the Society in 1875.

Present, the Right Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, presiding, and all the Clerical and Lay members of the Society who were in attendance upon the Convention.

The Secretary of the Board of Missions presented his Annual REPORT.

The Board of Missions has held the regular quarterly meetings, this annual meeting making as usual, five sessions during the year.

The Advent meeting was held Dec. 6, 1876, in S. Paul's Church, Brunswick, when twelve clerical and several lay members were in attendance.

The Epiphany meeting was held at the Cathedral Church in Portland, on the Festival of the Conversion of S. Paul, in connection with the services commemorating the tenth anniversary of the consecration of the Bishop of the Diocese, when most of the clergy of the Diocese and representatives from many of the parishes were present.

The Easter meeting was held in Trinity Church, Lewiston, April 18, with ten members of the Board present.

The Trinity meeting was held in S. Mark's Church, Augusta, with the attendance of fourteen members.

The Bishop was present at all the meetings, administering the Holy Communion, and presiding at the business sessions.

At the last annual meeting, the Board apportioned $1,800 as the stipends for the year for missionary service in eight missions. Later appropriations from the Treasury have added several hundred dollars to this amount. To meet this outlay verbal pledges were made by the representatives of the various parishes, which in most cases have been fulfilled. At the January and the April meetings the Treasurer reported a balance on hand.

During the year the Mission at Waterville has been organized, and a Mission at Ellsworth has been established, each under the care of a deacon, with very encouraging prospects. The Rev. Mr. M'Laughlin assumed the duties of the Mission Parish at Calais, Nov. 1, and though he has suffered greatly from severe illness, his labours have been richly blessed in the revival of Church interest and the renewal of parish life.

The Rev. Mr. Nichols began his work at Brunswick, in April; Mr. Pyne has retired from Eastport, Mr. Davies from Winn, and Mr. Washburn from the missions in Aroostook.

Mr. Wyllie was appointed as Missionary at Oldtown and Winn, from May 1. Mr. Locke, at Camden and Rockport from May 1. Mr. Small, at Waterville from June 1. Mr. Edwards and Mr. Jones have charge of the missions in Aroostook; and Mr. Fitz continues the duties at Ellsworth, entered upon before his ordination.

Perhaps no previous year has been so marked by changes in the Missionary ranks, and yet with devout gratitude to Almighty God, we can say that the year closes upon us with real progress made, and decided gains in almost every point, and with brighter prospects opening before us than has usually been our lot at the annual meeting.

C. S. LEFFINGWELL, Secretary.

The Treasurer presented his Annual Report, which was read and referred to the Committee of the Convention on Finance.

On nomination, the Rev. Messrs George T. Packard, E. F. Small, R. M. Edwards, and A. H. Locke, and Messrs. L. B. Casiarc, W. H. Watson, and John B. Arnold were elected members of the Society.

REMARKS.

CATHEDRAL CHURCH, PORTLAND.

The Rev. Charles W. Hayes.

An effort begun by the parishioners last Easter, to extinguish the entire debt of thirty-five thousand dollars, has been seconded by liberal gifts from without, and carried on with such energy that its success is no longer doubtful. Nearly the whole amount has been subscribed, and there is now every reason to hope for the speedy consecration of the Cathedral.

S. PAUL'S CHURCH, BRUNSWICK.

The Rev. Harry P. Nichols.

My own Ministry includes only the last four months. The Report for the rest of the year, embracing the short ministry of the Rev. Dr. Purdy, and services by other clergymen and by lay readers, is based upon such insufficient data as I could find.

TRINITY CHURCH, SACO.

The Rev. William J. Alger.

The Parish celebrated, on the 28th of June last, the Semi-Centennial Anniversary of the laying of the corner-stone of its church; which had been improved and beautified at an expense of about nine hundred dollars. The Commemoration Day was delightful; the services exceedingly interesting, and largely attended by former parishioners and others.

TRINITY CHURCH, LEWISTON.

The Rev. William H. Washburn.

I took charge of this Parish in May last, but the statistics of this Report include also the labours of the late Rector, the Rev. Mr. Wyllie. I have been much encouraged in my work here, by the interest manifested by the people. And as a larger and better church building seems to be a necessity to the growth of the Church in this place, we have decided to commence one; and the foundation will probably be laid this fall.

GRACE CHURCH, BATH.

The Rev. John Gregson.

This Parish has suffered from the loss of some of its oldest and most useful members within the last fifteen months: The Honourable Bernard C. Bailey, who died June 13, 1876, a Warden or Vestryman for many years, Mayor of the City in 1855, and had held other offices of public trust: The Hon. Jacob Smith, who died July 23, 1876, Senior Warden, and one of the earliest friends of the Parish, and many years Judge of the Municipal Court, respected and esteemed by all our citizens: Mrs. Ann Smith, his widow, who died on the 18th of September following, one of the original founders and first communicants of the Parish: and Mr. James S. Gannett, who died Sept. 16, 1876, a Vestryman, and Deputy to the last Diocesan Convention, active in all our parish work.

S. PHILIP'S CHURCH, WISCASSET.

The Rev. Henry R. Pyne.

The present Rector took charge June 1, 1877, and the report of services and contributions is only from that date. At Newcastle, an unorganized mission served from here, there have been several baptized, five confirmed, two services on Sundays and six on weekdays, Holy Communion five times, Offerings for current expenses, $23.81 and for Diocesan Missions, $13.20, all included in the statistics of the Parish. In S. John's Church, Dresden, with the unorganized mission at Pownalboro, eight services have been held since June 1st. In this work the Rector has had the efficient assistance of Mr. Addison M. Sherman, as Lay Reader.

S. MARK'S MISSION, WATERVILLE.The Rev. Edwin F. Small.

This Mission was organized Dec. 22, 1876: the Missionary took charge June 1, 1877. The earnestness and liberality of the few Church people, are well worthy of commendation.

S. PETER'S CHURCH, ROCKLAND.The Rev. William Walker.

The Missionary has made six visits, with five services and five baptisms, at Clark's Island, and seven visits with four services and seven baptisms at Vinalhaven, on Fox Island. One service has been held at Goshen, in the town of Waldoboro.

S. THOMAS' CHURCH, CAMDEN.The Rev. A. H. Locke.

The present Missionary took charge May 19, 1876, before which time the Sunday School alone was in operation, and no record of occasional services is found.

S. JAMES' CHURCH, OLDTOWN.The Rev. Robert Wyllie.

The Parish is indebted, as in past years, to the two gentlemen who have acted as Lay Readers, and the Missionary desires to express his sense of obligation to them for their ready assistance.

S. PETER'S MISSION, MILFORD.The Rev. Robert Wyllie.

The Mission is indebted to Dr. Small of Oldtown, for faithful labours as Superintendent of the Sunday School, and to him and Mr. George T. Sewall for uninterrupted services every Sunday evening.

S. THOMAS' MISSION, WINN.The Rev. Robert Wyllie.

The Report is for four months only; except as regards Baptisms, Marriages, Burials, and Offerings, the latter including the offerings at Sherman and Moluncus previous to April.

EMMANUEL MISSION, ASHLAND.Henry Jones, Lay Reader.

The Mission has been vacant most of the year. The twelve services by the Lay Reader, and those held fortnightly in Masardis and Portage Lake, have been received with encouraging attendance and interest. The whole Mission presents an inviting field of labour for a faithful worker, and with the services of a clergyman would become flourishing in time.

S. PAUL'S MISSION, FORT FAIRFIELD.The Rev. Rodney M. Edwards.

The people here have received me very kindly; the congregation is increasing, and we have some noble workers. The number of families is given as reported by the late Missionary.

ADVENT MISSION, LIMESTONE.The Rev. R. M. Edwards.

What little work has been done here during the last year, except one burial, is wholly that of my predecessor.

S. JOHN'S MISSION, PRESQUE ISLE.The Rev. R. M. Edwards.

I have much to encourage me here, in an increasing attendance and interest in worship, and a prevailing good feeling. I hold services every Sunday evening and visit the people Mondays. We greatly need a bell for the church. The Sunday School, suspended some time ago, has not been re-organized.

SECTION 6. The three persons herein first named as corporators, or any two of them, may call the first meeting of this Corporation by sending a written notice to the members of the Corporation of the time and place, at least three days before the time for holding said meeting.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect when approved.
[Approved January 27, 1869.]

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR
The Organization of Parishes
OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

SECTION 1. Any five or more persons professing attachment to the Protestant Episcopal Church, may execute and acknowledge before any Justice of the Peace, an agreement in writing, whereby they shall agree to organize a Parish to be maintained in accordance with the canons, doctrines, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

SECTION 2. Said agreement shall also contain

1st. The name or title by which the Parish shall be known, which shall be as follows, viz: "The Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of _____ Church in _____;" but no Parish shall be organized in any town or city, bearing the same name with any other Protestant Episcopal Church already organized therein.

2d. The town or city and county in which it is located.

3d. The number of Vestrymen, not exceeding eleven, and the time of the annual meeting, which shall be in Easter Week.

SECTION 3. When such agreement is duly signed and acknowledged, it shall be recorded in the Registry of Deeds of the county in which the Church is located.

SECTION 4. Any two or more persons, who have signed such agreement, may call the first meeting of such Parish at such time and place as they may see fit, by publishing a notice for five days previously to the time fixed for such meeting, in some newspaper published in the town or city in which such Church is located; and if no newspaper is published therein, then such notice may be given by posting the same in two public places in such city or town; and at such meeting the affidavit of such publishing or posting shall be recorded in the minutes. At such meeting, in addition to the signers of such agreement, any male person of full age shall be entitled to vote, who shall sign a declaration in writing, to be kept in the book of minutes, whereby he shall signify his intention of attaching himself to said Church, and accepting the terms of such agreement.

At such meeting, two Wardens, and the required number of Vestrymen may be elected, or at any adjournment thereof.

SECTION 5. At all subsequent meetings, the right of voting shall be confined to the persons who became actually entitled to vote at the first meeting, and to such others, male persons of full age, as have during the previous six months been stated worshippers in said Church and stated contributors to its support, and have signed the written declaration referred to in Section 4.

SECTION 6. The Wardens and Vestrymen so elected (two-thirds of them concurring in the choice) may choose some fit person duly qualified to act as Minister or Rector of said Church, agreeably to the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. Their choice shall be submitted to the Parish for approval, and if approved by a majority of those present at any duly called parish meeting, the person so elected shall be the Rector or Minister of the Parish.

The Minister or Rector so chosen shall preside at all meetings of the Wardens and Vestrymen, and have a casting vote, unless the business or question to be decided has relation to the personal interest of said Minister or Rector; provided that in the absence of such Rector or Minister, one of the Wardens shall preside. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the office of Minister or Rector by death, removal or otherwise, the Wardens and Vestrymen may elect a successor in the mode hereinbefore provided.

SECTION 7. The annual meeting shall take place at such time in Easter Week as may have been agreed upon, and at such annual meeting, an election of the requisite number of Wardens and Vestrymen shall be had, to serve until the next annual meeting, and until their successors shall be chosen.

SECTION 8. The Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen, appointed as aforesaid, shall be a body corporate and politic, with all the rights and liabilities pertaining thereto except as herein provided; provided nevertheless if at any time the Parish be without a Minister or Rector, the same rights and privileges shall be vested in the Wardens and Vestrymen.

SECTION 9. The Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen, or a majority of them, may make rules, by-laws, and ordinances, and do everything needful and requisite for the good government and support of the Parish; provided that said rules, by-laws, and ordinances shall not be repugnant to the Constitution and Laws of this State, or of the United States. All vacancies in such Vestry may be filled by the Vestrymen at any meeting, and the persons elected to fill such vacancies shall hold for the same period as their predecessors would have done.

SECTION 10. All the temporal affairs of such Parishes shall be managed by the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen thereof, and they shall have authority to alter, erect, repair, enlarge, and in case they deem it necessary, take down or remove and rebuild any church or other building belonging to such corporation.

SECTION 11. It shall be lawful for such corporations to hold real estate to such amount as shall be reasonably necessary for a church, and lecture or school rooms, for dwellings for the ministers thereof, for hospitals or charitable purposes, but it shall not be lawful for such corporations to hold or use any real estate for any other purpose.

SECTION 12. Any Parish of the Protestant Episcopal Church, heretofore organized under any other general law, may reorganize so as to become subject to the provisions of this Act, whenever such Parish shall at any duly called parish meeting, authorize the Wardens and Vestrymen to execute and acknowledge an agreement as provided in this Act, which agreement shall, in addition to the requisites mentioned in the first section, set forth that it is executed for the purpose of reorganizing such Parish according to the provisions of this Act. Such agreement shall be deemed sufficient when so executed and acknowledged by a majority of such Wardens and Vestrymen, and recorded in said Registry of Deeds.

SECTION 13. Upon such execution, acknowledgement, and recording of such agreement, such Parish shall, without further action, be deemed to all intents and purposes reorganized, and all rights of property and of contract shall remain unimpaired, and the corporate identity of such Parish shall continue unchanged. The Wardens and Vestrymen in office shall continue therein until the annual election in Easter Week next following such reorganization, and until a new Board shall be chosen, and no other meeting or notice shall be necessary to complete such reorganization, provided, that when a new Board shall be chosen, it shall consist of the number of Vestrymen required by such articles of reorganization.

SECTION 14. All persons, members of such Parish before its reorganization, shall be deemed members of the same after its reorganization, and entitled to vote at the annual and other meetings.

[Approved 1869.]

ADOPTED SEPT. 17, 1868.

The residents of any town, village or neighborhood, who may desire the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church to be established among them, should give notice of their desire to the Bishop of the Diocese, who will thereupon visit them or send a clergyman to do it, or if possible, will appoint a missionary for them.

PRINCIPLES.

1. Missionary Stations are under the control of the Bishop and the Board of Missions of the Diocese.
2. Missionaries are appointed by the Board of Missions, on the nomination of the Bishop; and in the fields assigned them are the agents and representatives of the authorities of the Diocese.
3. The entire salaries of the Missionaries are to be paid by the Board of Missions, but the people to whom they are sent must be stated contributors to the Treasury of the Board, to the amount of a minimum which shall be agreed upon from year to year, between them and the Board.
4. The Weekly Offertory is to be established at the commencement of the Mission; not only as the easiest way of raising money, and of dividing the expenses equitably among the people, but also that the duty and habit of Christian giving shall be practically inculcated.
5. The title of real estate given to or purchased by the Mission for Church purposes, shall be vested in the Trustees of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, to be held by them until such time as the Mission shall become a duly organized Parish, or longer if the parishioners shall so elect.
6. The change from the "Mission" to the "Parish" may be made when, first, there shall be a sufficient number of male persons of good standing to act as Wardens and Vestrymen; and when, secondly, the station is provided with a church, and is able to support a Rector without Missionary aid.
7. Missions duly organized shall report to the Annual Convention through their Missionaries, or if there be none in charge, through their Clerk, or if there be no Clerk, through the Treasurer. And in these reports, in their own records, in all Diocesan statistics and accounts, in their names, in their obedience to the Canons of the Church, and the action of the Diocesan Convention, they shall be held and treated as Parishes, with the obvious exceptions resulting from their having no corporate character.
8. The failure of the people of the Mission to fulfil their stipulation, may warrant the Bishop in withdrawing his Missionary and dissolving the organization.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

I. APPLICATION TO THE BISHOP.

Persons desirous of the services of the Church in their town, village, or neighborhood, may make application to the Bishop in the following form :

To the Right Rev. HENRY A. NEELY, D. D., Bishop of Maine.

We the undersigned residents of the town of ———, county of ———, Diocese of Maine, being desirous of obtaining the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, do hereby request you to provide them for us as you think fit. For which benefits we do hereby agree to put ourselves under your charge, promising conformity to the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of said Church, to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Maine, and to the rules regulating Missionary Stations in this Diocese. And in accordance with those rules, we are now desirous to be organized as a Mission, under the name of ——— Mission, ———. Furthermore, we hereby agree to pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions of the Diocese, in four equal quarterly instalments, the sum of ——— at least, for the first year.

Respectfully,

Your obedient Servants.

This Application should be signed by all the adults who propose to be members of the Mission.

II. OFFICERS OF THE MISSION.

1. If the Bishop consent to the organization of a Mission, he shall appoint on consultation with the Missionary, the following officers to serve for the first year, after which they shall be elected annually, in Easter Week, by the people ; — a Warden, a Treasurer, and a Clerk ; — or if it be deemed expedient by the Bishop, a Warden and Treasurer only shall be appointed.

2. It shall be the duty of the Warden to procure a room or house, to be used as a place of public worship ; to see that the same be kept clean and in good repair, and that it be provided with all things necessary for conducting the services of the Church decently and in order. He shall also provide the Bread and Wine for the Holy Communion ; take charge of the Communion, Service, the Linen, Books, &c., belonging to the Mission ; and shall endeavour, in the absence of the Missionary at any time, to keep up the regularity of the services.

3. The Warden shall be constituted Deputy ex-officio to the Convention, where he shall have a seat and voice, but shall not be allowed to vote. He shall also be entitled to a seat and vote in the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to collect or receive all moneys contributed by the Mission, and to remit or disburse them in accordance with the rules of the Board of Missions.

5. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, or, if no clerk be appointed or elected, of the Treasurer, to keep a record of events of importance to the Mission, and a list of its families and members, and in case the Missionary be non-resident, to have the custody of the Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, &c. ; but not to make entries therein, except by the Missionary's request, or in his absence ; and to attend to any correspondence required by or for the Mission.

6. The Missionary, in consultation with the officers, shall appoint the Sexton, Organist, Choir-leader, Sunday School Superintendent, and any other helper he may find necessary, but in his absence, the right of such appointment shall rest with the Officers previously named.

III. THE SUPPORT OF THE MISSION BY CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE BOARD.

1. Every person becoming a member of the Mission, and willing to aid in its support, is expected to name a certain sum per week, which he will pay to the Board of Missions, whether it be large or small; "according as God hath blessed him."

2. At every service, or at least once when there are two on the same day, there shall be an Offertory; and then the contributors shall place the amount due from them, in the Alms-basin, in envelopes marked with their names or numbers. The Treasurer receiving and opening these envelopes, shall credit the givers with the amounts enclosed, and at the end of each quarter, shall collect whatever arrearages may be unpaid.

4. Money contributed outside of the envelopes, shall be separately recorded and reported to the Board of Missions, and excepting such amounts as have been collected as Communion Alms, or for Canonical objects, they shall be appropriated: 1. To the contingent expenses of the Mission. 2. To such other objects as the Missionary may deem expedient.

F.

CANONS IN FORCE, 1877.

[See Journal of 1875, pp. 11, 19.]

CANON I.—The Missionary operations of the Church in this Diocese shall be conducted agreeably to the Constitution of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.

The Board of Missions shall report annually their proceedings, together with an account of their receipts and expenditures, and a general statement of the condition and prospects of their Missionary Stations. The Bishop shall be (ex-officio) President of the Board. The nomination of Missionaries may be made by the Bishop, or the Board of Missions; but no appointment shall be made without the concurrence of both.

The Board of Missions shall also be a Committee of the Convention, to receive and disburse such funds as may be entrusted to them, designed to assist young men in their preparation for the Ministry, according to such rules as they may adopt.

CANON IV.—Section 1. When any Minister of this Church is tried for any of the offences named in the Canons of the General Convention, for which a Minister may be tried and punished, it shall be on presentment made to the Bishop by three Presbyters of this Church, or by the Vestry of the Parish to which the Minister belongs, and approved by at least one Presbyter. In every presentment the charges shall be distinctly specified.

Section 2. When any Clergyman has been charged according to this Canon with any offence, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to furnish the accused with a copy of the charges and specifications alleged against him, and require him to make answer thereto before him and his Council, whom he shall convene to hear and judge of such charge or charges; and it shall be his duty to notify the accused person of the time and place of meeting, one month at least previous to the meeting. The aforesaid Council shall consist of at least four Presbyters of the Diocese. If the Bishop and his Council, or a major part of them, after hearing the evidence, shall judge the accused person guilty of either or all of the charges laid against him, the Bishop shall reprove, suspend, or degrade the person so convicted, as he and a major part of his said Council shall think the offence may deserve.

Section 3. If the accused shall neglect or refuse to appear, when summoned according to this Canon, and no defence be made by his authority, they shall declare him to be 'in contumacy;' and sentence of suspension from the ministry, until he shall appear or render satisfactory answer, shall pass against him for contumacy; and if, after six calendar months from the date of such sentence, he shall not have appeared, nor have rendered such answer, the Bishop may, with the advice and consent of the Clerical members of the Standing Committee, pronounce against him the sentence of degradation from the ministry; or else the sentence of suspension shall still remain in force till he shall appear or render satisfactory answer.

CANON V.—There shall be in every Parish Monthly Offerings for Diocesan Objects. It shall be the duty of the Rector or Minister of each Parish to give notice of these collections, and regularly to remit the amounts contributed for Diocesan Missions to the Treasurer of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, and the other collections to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Diocesan objects are, Diocesan Missions; the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate; Christian Education; and Bible and Prayer Book Distribution.

CANON VII.—It shall be the duty of all Ministers of this Diocese to report to the Bishop the names of such persons as may come to their knowledge, who are attached to our Communion, and who are inhabitants of towns where there is no Episcopal congregation; and it shall be the duty of the several Rectors in this Diocese to give the Bishop early notice of the removal of any of their parishioners to such towns.

APPENDIX I.

A.

The Bishop's Address.

My Dear Brethren :

I proceed to report my official acts for the last Diocesan year.

On Monday, Sept. 3, 1877, I presided at the annual meeting of the Board of Missions in the Cathedral; and on the 4th, at the opening of the Diocesan Convention, I ordained the Rev. Rodney Miller Edwards, Deacon, to the Priesthood.

During the greater part of the month of October, I was in my place as a member of the House of Bishops at the Triennial session of the General Convention in Boston. The topics discussed in that Convention, and the work performed by it, are already so well and generally known, that I need not here recall or describe them, nor do I feel constrained to make them matter for special comment. The discussions, while earnest, were characterized to an eminent degree by a tolerant and loving spirit, and the action taken was less in the way of legislation, than with a view to promoting greater activity in all good works. From one measure adopted by the Convention, a great practical benefit was expected, which I still trust may be fully realized, although its results for the first year may not have fulfilled the anticipations of its more sanguine promoters. I refer to the re-organization of the General Missionary Society, whereby the General Convention itself became the Board of Missions, holding its sessions only once in three years, and the prosecution of the Missionary operations of the Church was assigned to a Board of Managers composed of thirty clerical and lay members, all the Bishops being ex-officio members of the same. This latter Board has held bi-monthly meetings, which have been quite fully attended, and it has been diligent in its efforts to put the Missionary work of the Church on a more satisfactory and efficient basis. The chief results thus far attained have been to greatly lessen the central or office expenses, to consolidate the various departments of Home and Foreign work, and to set forth a scheme for increasing the contributions to the missionary cause. Being myself the Chairman of the Committee which proposed that scheme, and having given much thought and labour to its preparation, I have been the more desirous to see it fairly tested, and to that end I have entreated the clergy of my own jurisdiction (the inaugurators of it being dependent upon the personal interest and effort of the clergy), to try it in their respective parishes. How many of them may have done so, I am not informed, but the results of such efforts as are known to me have been very satisfactory; and will, I trust, stimulate to like vigorous action, others, both in this and other Dioceses. I particularly urge that those of the clergy who are receiving stipends from the General Missionary Board, should exhibit a consciousness of their responsibility in this matter, which has not been fulfilled until the plan has been, at least, faithfully presented to the individual members of their flock, with an earnest request for their co-operation.

The effort made during the spring and summer of 1877 to liquidate the large and burdensome debt upon the Cathedral having been, by God's blessing, successful, I appointed the Feast of S. Luke, Oct. 18th, occurring during the session of the General Convention, as a fitting time for the consecration of the Church. I need not now refer more particularly to the circumstances of an event so recent and so fresh in the minds of most of you, especially since the history of the movement which led to it, and of the proceedings attending it, has been already published. But I cannot and ought not to refrain from expressing here my recognition of the special interposition of God in the counsels and labours which that event finally crowned. A few months later the accomplishment of such an undertaking would have been apparently quite beyond our reach so great and grievous were the losses which had then befallen us. I praise God therefore that He withheld, for a time, the storm of calamity. But when I remember how largely I have depended in past years for counsel, for encouragement, for material aid upon those dear brethren who have recently been taken from my side, Judge Howard, Judge Shepley, and another, not personally known to you, but among the dearest to me, and to whom every department of our work has been greatly indebted in every year of my Episcopate, Mrs. Mary H. Caswell of New York, I can hardly restrain the cry, "Lord, by whom henceforth, wilt Thou uphold these weak hands of mine?" Yet not in faithlessness, or in fear, would I utter such a cry. It may be that my own work is nearly done, or it may be that the Spirit of God is even now moving the hearts of those who shall hereafter become, by His grace, even stronger helpers and wiser counsellors. This we know, that God's will shall be accomplished; let us be careful only to perform our own part faithfully, that we may share in the reward of those who have already finished their labours, and entered into their rest.

On the 19th of October, I confirmed two persons in New Gloucester.

On Monday, the 20th of November, at Evening Prayer in S. Paul's Church, Brunswick, I preached, and confirmed six candidates, presented by the Rector, the Rev. Harry P. Nichols.

On Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 4th and 5th, I presided at a meeting of our Board of Missions, in Gardiner, celebrated the Holy Communion, and made a missionary address. On Friday evening, Dec. 7th, I preached in S. Matthew's Church, Hallowell, and confirmed three persons, presented by the Rev. Hudson Sawyer, Rector. Dec. 10th and 11th I spent at Sherbrooke, in the Diocese of Quebec, in fulfillment of an engagement to preach the anniversary sermon before the Missionary Convocation of that Diocese. From this visit I was suddenly recalled home by the announcement of the death of the Hon. Joseph Howard, at whose funeral I officiated on Thursday, the 13th, in the Cathedral.

S. Thomas' Day, Dec. 21st, at Evening Prayer in Trinity Church, Lewiston, I preached, and confirmed nineteen persons, presented by the Rector, the Rev. William H. Washburn.

On S. John's Day, Dec. 27th, at Evening Prayer, I preached in Holy Trinity Church, Exeter, and confirmed nine persons, presented by the Rev. Thomas Marsden, Missionary in charge.

I was obliged to devote several weeks of the month of January to a work at all times irksome, and in these times especially trying and difficult, viz: that of soliciting pecuniary aid for our Diocesan institutions; in this case chiefly for the sustentation of S. Catharine's Hall. In the course of this journey I preached once in New York, and three times in Philadelphia.

A few weeks later I again visited New York to attend a stated meeting of the Board of Managers of the General Missionary Society; and while there, on Sunday evening, Feb. 17th, I preached the anniversary sermon in behalf of the Home for Old Men and Aged Couples. On Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 27th and 28th, I presided at the second meeting of our own Board of Missions, in Grace Church, Bath. During the greater part of Lent, as throughout the year when not on duty elsewhere, as herein noted, I was actively engaged in preaching and pastoral work at the Cathedral. I attended, however, two meetings of the Board of Managers of the Missionary Society in New York in April and May. And on Friday in Ember Week, March 15th, I ordained Edwin F. Small, Deacon, to the Priesthood, in S. Mark's Church, Augusta.

On Tuesday in Holy Week, April 16, I ordained Medville McLaughlin, Deacon, to the Priesthood, in the Cathedral, Portland.

Easter Day, April 21st, I confirmed thirteen in the Cathedral. S. Mark's Day, April 25th, in S. Mark's Church, Augusta, I preached, and confirmed nine persons.

On the first Sunday after Easter, April 28th, in the morning, I preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed three persons in Christ Church, Gardiner; and in the evening preached, and confirmed nine in S. Matthew's Church, Hallowell.

On Monday evening, April 29th, in S. Mark's Mission, Waterville, I preached, and confirmed five candidates, presented by the Missionary in charge, the Rev. Edwin F. Small.

On Monday, April 30th, at Evening Prayer, in the Church of the Messiah, Dexter, I preached, and confirmed two persons. This was also the opening service of the third meeting of our Board of Missions.

On Wednesday, May 1st, the Festival of S. Philip and S. James, I celebrated the Holy Communion in the same Church, and presided at the other public services and business sessions of the Board of Missions. Thursday evening, May 2d, I preached by special request in Holy Trinity Church, Exeter, and on Friday evening, in compliance with a like request, made a missionary address in S. Paul's, Brunswick.

On the second Sunday after Easter, May 5, I preached, and confirmed five candidates in S. Paul's Church, Portland!

On the following Sunday, May 12, I preached, and confirmed eleven persons in S. Stephen's Church, Portland.

On the 4th Sunday after Easter, May 19, I preached twice in Grace Church, Bath, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed two persons; and in the evening preached and confirmed six in S. Paul's Church, Brunswick, making twelve confirmed in this parish during the past year. While rejoicing in these and other accessions, S. Paul's Church has again been called to mourn the loss of one of its most loyal and efficient members, Mrs. A. J. Stone. Patient, and even cheerful under prolonged suffering, and maintaining to the last her keen interest in all which concerned the welfare of the Church, steadfast in faith, and joyful through hope, she entered into rest after a life of many vicissitudes and much earnest and profitable labour. She will be long and sadly missed, not only by loving relatives, and not only by the parish of which she was a so exemplary and active a member, but by the whole Diocese, which has been largely indebted to her zeal and devotion.

May 6th, I baptized and confirmed a sick person in New Gloucester.

On Sunday the 26th, I preached and celebrated the Holy Communion in the Church of S. John Baptist, Thomaston, in the morning ; preached and confirmed two persons in S. Peter's, Rockland, in the afternoon, and preached in S. Thomas' Church, Camden, in the evening. On Saturday evening, June 1st, I preached in Newcastle, and on the following morning, the Sunday after Ascension, celebrated the Holy Communion at an early hour in the same place. On the same day I preached and celebrated the Holy Communion in S. Philip's, Wiscasset, and preached in S. John's, Dresden, being assisted in all these services by the Priest in charge, the Rev. Henry R. Pyne.

On S. Barnabas' Day, June 11, in Trinity Church, New York, I assisted at the Consecration of the Rev. George F. Seymour, D.D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Springfield.

On Wednesday, June 19, I presided at a meeting of the Board of Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall, Augusta, and at the Anniversary exercises of the school.

On Sunday, July 11, in S. John's Church, Bangor, I preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed five persons, presented by the Rector, the Rev. George T. Packard ; in the afternoon preached, and baptized two adults in S. James', Oldtown, and preached in S. Peter's, Milford, in the evening.

On Tuesday, July 9, in S. Anne's Church, Calais, at Evening Prayer, I preached, and confirmed seven persons, presented by the Rev. Medville M'Laughlin, Rector. The annual meeting of the Board of Missions having been appointed for this time and place, a considerable number of our clergy were present, and two or three from the Diocese of Fredericton, who participated in the services of this and the following day. On Wednesday, July 10, I celebrated the Holy Communion, and presided at the business sessions of the Board, and the public Missionary meeting in the evening.

On Thursday evening, July 11, in Christ Church, Eastport, I preached, and confirmed six candidates, presented by the Rector, the Rev. Merritt H. Wellman.

On Monday, July 15th, I left home for my annual visitation of the Missions in Aroostook County. A detailed account of this visitation, which occupied me for nearly four weeks, having been recently given in the NORTH EAST, I will only say here that I visited all the organized and unorganized Missions ; on the 18th baptized one infant and one adult in S. James' Mission, Sherman ; on the 26th confirmed one person in Emmanuel Church, Ashland ; on Sunday, the 28th, three in S. John's Church, Presque Isle ; July 30, consecrated the new Church in Van Buren, under the name of S. James' Church, and confirmed two persons ; Aug. 5, baptized an infant in Houlton ; celebrated the Holy Communion three times, preached fourteen times, and confirmed five candidates in the Diocese of Fredericton.

It was in the course of this visitation, and at the remotest point of my journey, that the message tardily reached me, announcing the sudden death of my dear friend and brother, the Hon. George F. Shepley. When I left home he was apparently in vigorous health, having been much refreshed by a recent excursion into the northern woods, and no foreboding entered my mind that I should see his face no more. On the contrary, into all my plans and schemes for the future, so far as I dared to anticipate a future of active labour for myself, he had entered as a conspicuous figure, guiding my judgment, encouraging my efforts, and sharing my burdens. His warm, generous nature, and the consciousness of his personal regard for myself had attached me very closely to him as a friend, and his growing interest in all that concerned the welfare of the Church, and the spiritual benefit of his fellow men, gave promise of his continually increasing helpfulness as a member of the Diocese. What he was to his own family circle I may not venture to describe; what he was as a jurist, or a citizen, others can better tell; but he was such to me and to the work which God has assigned me, that the loss of him seems well-nigh irreparable.

Since my return from the North I have confirmed one person in the Cathedral, Aug. 12, and have visited, on the 21st, Trinity Parish, Saco, and Christ Church, Biddeford, confirming in the former parish four candidates, and in the latter, three.

With respect to the general condition of the Diocese, I would that I could see more signal tokens of spiritual life and energy than I have observed in many of our parishes and missions. Such a condition of temporal affairs as exists at present brings character and motives to a stricter test than that to which they are ordinarily subjected; proves us, whether we are in truth servants of God, or servants of mammon; whether we are seeking first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, or the transient and perishable things of this earthly state. It will always be found under such a test that many, who under other circumstances have professed and exhibited a certain degree of interest in religion and the Church, will disappear altogether from among their supporters, and many others will grow listless in their efforts, and grudging in their offerings, shrinking from the very suggestion of sacrifice for the name and cause of Christ. According to the number of these in any parish, and the degree in which the maintenance and work of the parish are dependent upon them, will be the condition of that parish in times of worldly adversity—its condition, not merely with regard to the support of the ministrations of the Church, but as a moral and spiritual force in the community. For only those who, when the question is between “seeking their own” and “seeking the things which are Jesus Christ’s,” unhesitatingly determine for the latter, are of any value to the cause of Christianity. If our Christian integrity abides only in the absence of special temptations, if our offerings are made only when they cost no self-denial, no sacrifice of any worldly comfort or even luxury—if our labours cease or become less vigorous or abundant, when obstacles appear, or difficulties arise, or results are fewer, then we are neither good soldiers nor faithful servants; our Master has no satisfaction in us, nor the Church any advantage from us. But on the other hand the dark

PORTLAND, Sept. 3, 1878.

B. Report of the Registrar.

The Registrar of the Diocese reports that no material additions have been made to the Cathedral Library during the past year. The usual number of Diocesan Journals and other pamphlets have been received, and the whole of the large collection of pamphlets has been thoroughly classified and permanently arranged in cases, at a cost for the year of $17.50. The work of preparing an accurate catalogue of the entire contents of the Registry yet remains to be done.

CHARLES W. HAYES, Registrar.

PORTLAND, Sept. 3, 1878.

C. Report of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall.

The Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall respectfully report that the School for the past year has been under the same general charge as before of Rector and Principal, assisted by a competent corps of teachers. The patronage of the School is not as large as might be wished or expected, and the Trustees again urgently commend the school to the confidence and support of the people of the Diocese.

The school was opened on the 13th of September.

PORTLAND, Sept. 4, 1878.

A.

Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.

PROCEEDINGS

AT THE ANNUAL MEETING, SEPT. 3, 1878.

CATHEDRAL CHURCH, PORTLAND, }
TUESDAY, SEPT. 3, 1878. }

The Annual Meeting of the Society was held at 4 o'clock this day, in accordance with the By-Laws adopted by the Society in 1875.

Present, the Right Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese, presiding, and all the Clerical and Lay members of the Society who were in attendance upon the Convention.

The Secretary of the Board of Missions presented his Annual REPORT.

The Board of Missions has held the regular quarterly meetings, this annual meeting making as usual five sessions during the year.

The Advent meeting was held in Christ Church, Gardiner, Dec. 5, 1877, with the attendance of thirteen clerical and five lay delegates. Three public services were held, and at the business meetings the accounts given of spiritual earnestness and real advancement in spite of temporal depression gratified all present. Evidence was furnished of marked gain at Brunswick, Hallowell, Waterville, and other points. Among the discussions the subject of hearty responses by the congregation was brought forward, the speakers regarding it as indicative of a congregation honouring God when recognizing the fact that public worship is not the private act of individuals. The Rev. M. H. Wellman was appointed Missionary of the Board at Eastport, from Dec. 1.

The Epiphany meeting was held at Grace Church, Bath, Feb. 27, 1878. Present, thirteen clerical and three lay delegates. Letters from distant missionaries were read in addition to numerous verbal reports, statistics as to church attendance were furnished, and plans discussed for the improvement of our finances. Three public services were held, and the usual missionary addresses given.

The Easter meeting was held in Dexter, April 30, with the attendance of eight clerical and three lay delegates. The reports of attendance at worship during Lent were good from every quarter. The Rev. Mr. Nichols was appointed financial agent of the Board for the North East. The usual services were held, closing with a missionary meeting at Dexter, and a service at Exeter the 2d of May.

The Trinity meeting of the Board was held at S. Anne's, Calais, July 9th, with the attendance of seven clerical delegates. Mr. Small was able to report the completion of the new church at Waterville, which was opened for service July 5. The Bishop had just visited several of the vacant missions, and spoke of the excellent work done by lay service. At Calais and at Eastport, which place the Board visited the following day, abundant proof was manifest of the zeal and self-denying efforts on the part of both clergy and people. Crowded congregations, earnest responses, and hearty singing, with a large confirmation class at each place, all told of much Christian work done for the love of God and the good of souls.

These meetings of the Board are attended with no little sacrifice of time and money on the part of members, but we can point to no meeting of the Board, either recently or in past years, where we have not felt that it was good to be there, always carrying home new life, fresh courage, and additional gratitude to God for the evidence that is never wanting that He does work with us and by us, in striving to advance His cause in our midst.

REMARKS.

CATHEDRAL CHURCH, PORTLAND.The Rev. Charles W. Hayes.

The Rev. Frederick Pember, of the Diocese of Oxford, Eng., has officiated during the last year, under the Bishop's license, as Missionary at Deering, Saccarappa, Stroudwater, and other places in the immediate vicinity of Portland. He reports 96 Sunday services in these places, and a weekly lecture for five months at the State Reform School, none of which are included in the above report of Cathedral Services; and 22 Baptisms (2 adults and 20 infants), 1 Marriage and 3 Burials, which are recorded at the Cathedral and included in its Report.

The Consecration of the Cathedral took place on S. Luke's Day, Oct. 18, 1877.

S. PAUL'S CHURCH, PORTLAND.The Rev. Frederick S. Sill.

I resigned the charge of this Parish June 1, 1878, since which time I have been in charge of S. Paul's Church, Portland, S. John, N. B., during the absence of the Rector, the Rev. Canon De Veber. Of the $1275 reported for "Church Property," $1111 was paid by one lady on notes given by individuals on behalf of the parish, and not included in its present debt of $6400. The remaining $164 was for interest on this debt, and $646 was contributed for the same purpose, by friends outside the Parish, through the Bishop.

TRINITY CHURCH, SACO, and CHRIST CHURCH, BIDDEFORD. }The Rev. Wm. J. Alger.*

I was absent from my parishes during eight months of the Diocesan year. They were, however, efficiently supplied by the Rev. Mr. M'Laughlin and other clergymen of the Diocese. My absence accounts in part for the deficiencies in the offerings, but they are the result also, in part, of the "hardness of the times," especially felt in Biddeford, where it is more than the Parish can do to provide for its own.

TRINITY CHURCH, LEWISTON.The Rev. Wm. H. Washburn.

The state of the Parish is as prosperous as can reasonably be expected. Harmony and good-will prevail, and all seem encouraged to believe that the Church here is growing, not only in numbers, but "in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

The fact that the parishioners, most of them working people, have given so liberally towards the payment for the work already done on the new church, shows that they are deeply interested in this enterprise. We all look forward with pleasant anticipation to its successful completion.

S. MARK'S MISSION, WATERVILLE.The Rev. Edwin F. Small.

The tokens of progress in this Mission will be found in the building of a plain, but appropriate chapel; in the increase of the congregation; in an efficient and well-organized society of Churchwomen called the "Church Workers;" and in the additional interest shown by the people of the town in the services of the Church.

S. JAMES' CHURCH, OLDTOWN.George T. Sewall, Warden.

The Rev. Robert Wyllie had charge of the Parish until the last Sunday in February; during the last six months the services have been by lay-reading, except one by the Bishop, July 7, and one by the Rev. Hudson Sawyer, August 4.

We have lost two or three families by removal from town, but our prospects seem encouraging for gradual increase, if not very rapid.

CHRIST CHURCH, EASTPORT.The Rev. Merritt H. Wellman.

I took charge of this Parish on the second Sunday in Advent, Dec. 2, 1877. The Report, except in financial items, goes back only to that date. One side of the church is now being renewed at a cost of about $80, the money for which is in the treasury.

EMMANUEL MISSION, ASHLAND.Henry Jones, Lay Reader.

Services have been held in this Mission for twelve consecutive Sundays since the last report. The interest in the Church continues, and we believe increases. The people desire regular services, and would support them according to their ability, but cannot give much, for many are poor, none rich. Services held fortnightly at Masardis and Portage Lake have been well attended, and much interest has been shown in them. No services are held here but those of the Church.

S. JOHN'S MISSION, PRESQUE ISLE.The Rev. R. M. Edwards.

We have had steadily increasing congregations here, and the town people have taken such interest in the services as to induce their friends to attend from the surrounding country.

INSTRUMENT OF DONATION,

READ AT THE CONSECRATION OF S. LUKE'S CATHEDRAL, PORTLAND,
OCTOBER 18, 1877.

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

WHEREAS the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Maine in Convention assembled, on the thirteenth day of October, A.D. 1866, elected the Reverend Henry Adams Neely, D.D., Bishop of said Diocese, to which office he was duly consecrated on the Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul, A.D. 1867 :

And whereas the said election and consecration were with the understanding that the Bishop should become the Rector of Saint Luke's Church, Portland, to which office the Warden, Vestrymen, and Parishioners of said Church did accordingly elect said Bishop-elect on the twenty-second day of January, A.D. 1867 :

And whereas, during the year of our Lord 1867, the former edifice known as Saint Luke's Church was sold by said Parish, to the Parish of Saint Stephen's Church, Portland, and immediately thereupon the Parish of Saint Luke's Church undertook the erection of a new church, with the intention and understanding that such church should be not only a Parish Church for the congregation of Saint Luke's Parish ordinarily worshipping therein, but also a church in which shall be the seat of the Bishop of the Diocese, in regard to which he shall have forever all the usual rights and privileges appertaining to the Rector of a Parish, and which shall be thereafter named and constituted the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Maine, and in which moreover, all the sittings shall be forever free, and no pews shall be erected, leased or sold :

And whereas the Bishop of the Diocese has consented to accept the charge and occupation of said Church, as his Cathedral Church, and to fix his personal and official residence permanently within the Parish of Saint Luke's Church, Portland :

And whereas by the offerings of the congregation worshipping therein, and by means of munificent donations from Churchmen resident in other Dioceses, the church edifice belonging to the Parish, and now known as Saint Luke's Cathedral Church, Portland, has been erected, and all debts and liabilities thereon fully paid :

And whereas it is proper that the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Saint Luke's Church, Portland, in whom the legal title to said church edifice and the property thereof is now vested, should make such provision as will secure a proper legal conveyance of said property, so soon as a charter can be obtained therefor, to the end that such object and intent may be fully carried out and forever secured :

Now, therefore, we, the undersigned, the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Saint Luke's Church, Portland, do hereby declare that the edifice on State Street in the City of Portland and State of Maine, known as Saint Luke's Cathedral, Portland, has been erected as and for a Cathedral Church for the use of the present Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Maine, and his successors in said office duly and canonically elected and consecrated as Bishops as aforesaid, in accordance with the doctrine, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, and the Constitutions and Canons of said Diocese of Maine, to be forever kept and maintained as a free Church, in which there shall be no private ownership or proprietorship, and where all persons shall forever have the right to worship in accordance with the doctrines, discipline and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. And to that end we hereby declare that whenever and as soon as the Legislature of the State of Maine shall have passed a law establishing a Corporation to hold said property for Cathedral uses in accordance with plans therefor, hereafter to be agreed upon and adopted by said Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen, we, the undersigned, the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Saint Luke's Church, Portland, Maine, and our successors in said offices will, the Parish thereto consenting, make such conveyance as shall in the opinion of counsel learned in the law, be needful and requisite to convey said church edifice and the land on which the same stands and appurtenant thereto, and all the property now vested in us as aforesaid, to such corporation so established, upon such trusts and conditions as will forever secure the same as the Cathedral Church of the present Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Maine, and his successors in said office duly elected and consecrated as aforesaid, upon such conditions, restrictions and limitations as will secure to the congregation ordinarily worshipping therein, the right of so worshipping, and of always being represented in such corporation so established, by one-half of the members thereof exclusive of the Bishop, and of participating in the election and appointment of such Canons or other Clergy as may be nominated by the Bishop for the charge and care of the congregation so worshipping, by reserving the right of confirming or rejecting any such appointment or nomination, to the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Saint Luke's Church, Portland, and the electors of said Parish, as is provided by chapter 180 of the Laws of Maine, A. D. 1869.

And we hereby expressly renounce all claim of using or holding said building, or any part thereof, or allowing any part of it to be used or held for any purpose whatever, inconsistent with the terms and intent of this instrument, or with the Constitution, Canons, Laws, Doctrines, Rites and Usages of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

And we hereby pray the Bishop of the Diocese of Maine to take said Church under his control and jurisdiction, for the purposes and under the conditions aforesaid, and to consecrate the same as the Cathedral Church of the Diocese of Maine, under the name of the Cathedral Church of Saint Luke in the City of Portland, Maine ; separating it thereby from all unhallowed, worldly and common uses, and devoting it forever to the honour and service of Almighty God, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, in the worship and Faith of the Holy Catholic Church, and according to the Laws and Liturgy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and seals, this eighteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-Seven.

§ 2. The election of a Bishop shall be by concurrence of both Orders, voting separately by ballot, each Parish represented having one vote. A majority of each Order shall be necessary to a choice.

§ 3. The Clergy shall vote first, and their choice shall be communicated to the Laity. The Laity shall then vote, and their choice shall be communicated to the Clergy. If both Orders have chosen the same person, he shall be declared elected; but if they have chosen different persons, they shall vote again in the order and manner before prescribed.

The application of a Parish for admission into union with this Diocese shall be accompanied with (1) evidence of the complete organization of the Parish under the Laws of the State of Maine for the Incorporation of Parishes of the Protestant Episcopal Church; (2) a vote of the Parish requesting such admission; and (3) a promise of obedience to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.

§ 2. Such union may be declared forfeited at any Annual Convention, on proof of refusal or neglect, for two successive years, to comply with the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese, or with the Acts and Resolves of the Convention in conformity thereto.

ARTICLE VII.

CANON I.

Of Missionary Organization.

§ 1. The Missionary operations of the Church in this Diocese shall be conducted in accordance with the Act of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.

§ 11. 1. Missionary Stations are under the control of the Bishop and the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

2. Missionaries are appointed by the Board of Missions, on the nomination of the Bishop; and in the fields assigned them are the agents and representatives of the authorities of the Diocese.

3. The entire salaries of the Missionaries are to be paid by the Board of Missions, but the people to whom they are sent must be stated contributors to the Treasury of the Board, to the amount of a minimum which shall be agreed upon from year to year, between them and the Board.

4. The Weekly Offertory is to be established at the commencement of the Mission; not only as the easiest way of raising money, and of dividing the expenses equitably among the people, but also that the duty and habit of Christian giving shall be practically inculcated.

5. The title of real estate given to or purchased by the Mission for Church purposes, shall be vested in the Trustees of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, to be held by them until such time as the Mission shall become a duly organized Parish, or longer if the parishioners shall so elect.

6. The change from the "Mission" to the "Parish" may be made when, first, there shall be a sufficient number of male persons of good standing to act as Wardens and Vestrymen; and when, secondly, the station is provided with a church, and is able to support a Rector without Missionary aid.

7. Missions duly organized shall report to the Annual Convention through their Missionaries, or if there be none in charge, through their Clerk, or if there be no clerk, through the Treasurer. And in these reports, in their own records, in all Diocesan statistics and accounts, in their names, in their obedience to the Canons of the Church, and the action of the Diocesan Convention, they shall be held and treated as Parishes, with the obvious exceptions resulting from their having no corporate character.

8. The failure of the people of the Mission to fulfill their stipulation, may warrant the Bishop in withdrawing his Missionary, and with the consent of the Convention, dissolving the organization.

§ 111. 1. Persons desirous of the services of the Church in their town, village, or neighbourhood, shall make application to the Bishop in the following form:

To the Right Rev. the Bishop of Maine.

We the undersigned, residents of the town of ———, county of ———, Diocese of Maine, being desirous of obtaining the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, do hereby request you to provide them for us as you think fit. For which benefits we do hereby agree to put ourselves under your charge; promising conformity to the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of said Church, to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Maine, and to the rules regulating Missionary Stations in this Diocese. And in accordance with those rules, we are now desirous to be organized as a Mission, under the name of ——— Mission, ———. Furthermore, we hereby agree to pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions of the Diocese, in four equal quarterly instalments, the sum of ——— at least, for the first year.

Respectfully,

Your obedient Servants.

This application shall be signed by the adults, not less than six in number, who propose to be members of the Mission.

2. If the Bishop consent to the organization of a Mission, he shall appoint, on consultation with the Missionary, the following officers to serve for the first year, after which they shall be elected annually, in Easter Week, by the people; —a Warden, a Treasurer, and a Clerk; or if it be deemed expedient by the Bishop, a Warden and Treasurer only shall be appointed.

3. It shall be the duty of the Warden to procure a room or house, to be used as a place of public worship; to see that the same be kept clean and in good repair, and that it be provided with all things necessary for conducting the services of the Church decently and in order. He shall also provide the Bread and Wine for the Holy Communion; take charge of the Communion Service, the Linen, Books, &c., belonging to the Mission; and shall endeavour, in the absence of the Missionary at any time, to keep up the regularity of the services.

4. The Warden shall be Deputy ex-officio to the Convention, and shall also be entitled to a seat and vote in the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to collect or receive all moneys contributed by the Mission, and to remit or disburse them in accordance with the rules of the Board of Missions.

6. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, or, if no Clerk be appointed or elected, of the Treasurer, to keep a record of events of importance to the Mission, and a list of its families and members; and in case the Missionary be non-resident, to have the custody of the Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, etc., but not to make entries therein, except by the Missionary's request, or in his absence; and to attend to any correspondence required by or for the Mission.

7. The Missionary, in consultation with the officers, shall appoint the Sexton, Organist, Choir-leader, Sunday School Superintendent, and any other helper he may find necessary; but in his absence, the right of such appointment shall rest with the Officers previously named.

§ IV. 1. Every person becoming a member of the Mission, and willing to aid in its support, is expected to name a certain sum per week, which he will pay to the Board of Missions, whether it be large or small, "according as God hath blessed him."

2. At every Sunday service, or at least once when there are two on the same day, there shall be an offertory; and then the contributors shall place the amount due from them in the Alms-basin, in envelopes marked with their names or numbers. The Treasurer receiving and opening these envelopes, shall credit the givers with the amounts enclosed, and at the end of each quarter shall collect whatever arrearages may be unpaid.

4. Money contributed outside of the envelopes shall be separately recorded and reported to the Board of Missions, and excepting such amounts as have been collected as Communion Alms, or for Canonical objects, they shall be appropriated: 1. To the contingent expenses of the Mission. 2. To such other objects as the Missionary may deem expedient.

§ V. 1. Every organization of a Mission in accordance with § III., shall be reported by the Bishop to the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

2. The Convention, on receiving such report, shall declare by vote its approval of the organization; and such approval shall entitle the Mission to representation by its Warden, as provided in § III. 4.

CANON IV.

§ I. When any Minister of this Church is tried for any of the offences named in the Canons of the General Convention, for which a Minister may be tried and punished, it shall be on presentment made to the Bishop by three Presbyters of this Church, or by the Vestry of the Parish to which the Minister belongs, and approved by at least one Presbyter. In every presentment the charges shall be distinctly specified.

§ II. When any Clergyman has been charged according to this Canon with any offence, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to furnish the accused with a copy of the charges and specifications alleged against him, and require him to make answer thereto before him and his Council, whom he shall convene to hear and judge of such charge or charges; and it shall be his duty to notify the accused person of the time and place of meeting, one month at least previous to the meeting. The aforesaid Council shall consist of at least four Presbyters of the Diocese. If the Bishop and his Council, or a major part of them, after hearing the evidence, shall judge the accused person guilty of either or all of the charges laid against him, the Bishop shall reprove, suspend, or degrade the person so convicted, as he and a major part of his said Council shall think the offence may deserve.

§ III. If the accused shall neglect or refuse to appear, when summoned according to this Canon, and no defence be made by his authority, they shall declare him to be 'in contumacy;' and sentence of suspension from the ministry, until he shall appear or render satisfactory answer, shall pass against him for contumacy; and if, after six calendar months from the date of such sentence, he shall not have appeared, nor have rendered such answer, the Bishop may, with the advice and consent of the Clerical members of the Standing Committee, pronounce against him the sentence of degradation from the ministry; or else the sentence of suspension shall still remain in force till he shall appear or render satisfactory answer.

CANON V.

There shall be in every Parish Monthly Offerings for Diocesan Objects. It shall be the duty of the Rector or Minister of each Parish to give notice of these collections, and regularly to remit the amounts contributed for Diocesan Missions to the Treasurer of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, and the other collections to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Diocesan objects are, Diocesan Missions; the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate; Christian Education; and Bible and Prayer Book Distribution.

CANON VII.

It shall be the duty of all Ministers of this Diocese to report to the Bishop the names of such persons as may come to their knowledge, who are attached to our Communion, and who are inhabitants of towns where there is no Episcopal congregation; and it shall be the duty of the several Rectors in this Diocese to give the Bishop early notice of the removal of any of their parishioners to such towns.

"Resolved, That a Committee be appointed, equitably to revise the assessments upon the parishes toward the Bishop's salary, having due regard to contributions heretofore made by different parishes for the increase of the Episcopate Fund.

"Resolved, That the assessment for the present year be fixed at sixteen hundred dollars."

3. Convention of 1871 (Journal, p. 13.)

"Resolved, That the Finance Committee be instructed to apportion among the parishes, a sum equal to the assessment of last year, for the Bishop's salary, and such amount as may be found necessary for contingent expenses; and to hear the representatives of the parishes as to the proportion of assessments."

4. Convention of 1872 (Journal, p. 14.)

1. "Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese has a right to determine the amount of the Bishop's salary, and the amount necessary for contingent expenses.

2. "Resolved, That by the very nature of their union with the Convention, the parishes incur an obligation to pay the amount so determined.

3. Resolved, That it is a right of the parishes that the apportionment of this amount should be equitable, and that each parish should be allowed to appeal to the Convention, in the event of a supposed grievance.

4. Resolved, That it is the duty of the Convention to make the apportionment upon some basis, generally and easily ascertainable, which shall be, as far as possible, the measure of the pecuniary ability of each parish.

5. Resolved, That the assessment for the Bishop's salary and contingent expenses for the ensuing year, be made by a Committee of one Deputy from each parish now represented, to be appointed by the Convention.

6. Resolved, That the Committee on Apportionments be now discharged."

The Assessment for the Bishop's salary for this year, 1872-3, was fixed at $1560; the sum of $1000 having been given by a member of Christ Church, Biddeford, to the capital of the Episcopate Fund, and applied to reduce a mortgage of $5000 on the Bishop's House, the interest of which he was paying by an understanding with the Trustees. (Journal of 1872, pp. 15, 40; and of 1873, p. 50.)

5. Convention of 1873 (Journal, p. 17.)

The following was adopted as

CANON X.

§I. "At the Annual Convention of the Diocese, a Board of three Assessors shall be appointed, whose duty shall be to assess upon the several Parishes and Missions in the Diocese, the amount of the Bishop's salary as determined by the Convention.

§II. "The basis for such assessment shall be the amount which each Parish or Mission shall have contributed during the previous year for its own current expenses.

§III. "Such amounts having been ascertained, the rate of assessment shall be such a percentage of the aggregate as will equal the amount of salary determined. But any Parish or Mission may appear by deputy before the Board of Assessors, who may modify their assessment to meet any obvious inequality.

§IV. "When any Parish or Mission shall have contributed to the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, it shall be credited on its assessment with an amount equal to six per cent of such contributions."

The Convention also adopted the following Resolution (Journal, p. 18):

Resolved, That a Committee of three laymen be appointed by the Chair, to raise the sum of ten thousand dollars towards the Episcopate Fund, on condition that the sum raised shall be doubled from sources outside of the Diocese."

The Assessment for the Bishop's salary for the year 1873-4 was $1547.

6. Convention of 1874 (Journal, p. 13.)

The Special Committee on the Increase of the Episcopate Fund, report that the Standing Committee of the Diocese "had taken charge of the matter, by the appointment of an Agent to carry into effect the Resolution of the Convention of 1873."

The Standing Committee report (p. 42) that they have "appointed the Rev. J. H. Ward to act in their behalf in soliciting funds for this purpose. The Rev. Mr. Ward has laboured efficiently and successfully in this work, and has secured such pledges as justify us in expressing the opinion that within the next three months a sufficient amount will be secured for a further endowment of the Episcopate, and thus relieve the parishes from assessments for the support of the Bishop."

The following Resolutions were reported by the Board of Assessors, and adopted (p. 16) :

"Resolved, That Canon X. be, and hereby is, repealed.

"Resolved, That the whole subject of assessments for the Bishop's salary and contingent expenses, be referred to a Committee of three laymen, to be appointed by this Convention, with power to assess upon the several Parishes and Missions such sums as may be found necessary to provide for the contingent expenses of the Diocese, and also, if necessary, for the salary of the Bishop ; such assessment to be made on the basis of the late Canon X.

"Resolved, That when an assessment shall have been made under the foregoing Resolution, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Diocese to notify the several Parishes and Missions of their proportion, and to collect the same."

7. Convention of 1875 (Journal, p. 21.)

"Resolved, That it is hereby recommended to the several Parishes and Missions of the Diocese, to make a collection for the Increase of the Episcopate Fund, on Trinity Sunday in each year.

8. Convention of 1877 (Journal, p. 16.)

The Committee on Finance report "that the present income of the Episcopate Fund available for the support of the Bishop, is less than $1,200."

"A Committee was appointed to consider the condition of the Episcopate Fund, and report to the next Convention." (p. 17.)

II. WHAT THE DIOCESE HAS DONE IN FULFILMENT OF ITS OBLIGATIONS.

Years, ending Sept. 1.	Due the Bishop.	Paid him.	Arrears due.	Arrears paid.
1868	$1000.00	$1000.00
1869	1000.00	1000.00
1870	1000.00	1000.00
1871	1600.00	1543.33	$56.67
1872	1600.00	1547.00	53.00
1873	1540.00	1446.75	93.25
1874	1540.00	1540.00	1.43	$ 1.43
1875	1540.00	1540.00	30.50	30.50
1876	1300.00	815.12	484.88	240.00
1877	1300.00	1060.00	240.00
1878	1300.00	962.67	337.33
Total	$14,720.00	$13,454.87	$1265.13	$271.93
Add arrears paid and due		271.93	271.93
Nett total paid and due		$13,726.80	$993.20

The statement of the amount due the Bishop ($1300) for the year 1876, 1877 and 1878 respectively, is based upon the fact that in 1875 the sum of $4000 was appropriated from the whole amount raised in the previous year for the increase of the Episcopate Fund, to pay the remainder of the mortgage on the Bishop's House, and thereby relieve him from the annual interest of the same, in the same manner as the $1000 given by Christ Church, Biddeford, in 1872, had been appropriated. The whole sum of $5000 paid to take up this mortgage was considered as equivalent to a payment of $300 a year on the Bishop's salary (he having paid the interest on this mortgage since 1869), thereby reducing the $1600 fixed as his salary in 1870, to $1300.

The Diocese has received for the Bishop's salary from 1868 to 1878 :

From assessments,	$9,007.68
From interest of the Fund,	3,821.28
From two verbal pledges on income,	422.19
From loans in 1875,	644.00
	 	$13,895.15
And has paid to the Bishop, as above,	$13,726.80
For insurance and postage in 1876,	66.59
	 	13,793.39
Balance of income, Sept., 1878,		$101.76

III. PRESENT CONDITION AND INCOME OF THE FUND.

A summary statement of the amount and investments of the Fund on the 4th of September, 1878, will be found in the Report of the Trustees, on page 34 of the Journal of that year. Without repeating this in full, it may be briefly said that the Fund is practically divided into two parts, one of which is the Cost of the Bishop's House and lot, $17,633.46, from which no income is derived. The remainder, or income-bearing Fund, consisted at that date, of

Notes of Parishes,	$7,715.00
Notes of Individuals,	910.00
Note of S. Catharine's Hall,	2,400.00
Note of the Treasurer of the Diocese,	375.00
Maine Central R. R. Bond,	80.00
Cash in Portland Savings' Bank,	1,000.00
Cash in hands of Treasurer,	2,729.51
	$15,929.51

Of the portion of the above invested Sept. 4, 1878, namely, $13,200, there was stated to be at 8 per cent interest, $2,540; at 7 per cent, $5,150; rate not stated, $5,510.

The entire income from the invested Fund for the year ending Sept. 1, 1878, was

To this was added interest on a verbal pledge by Mr. John J. Cisco,	$1,052.77

Making an actual income of	$1,122.77
Of which there was paid :

To the Bishop,	962.67
To Mr. James Bridge, in payment of loan of 1875 and interest,	79.26
To the Treasurer, in correction of an error in his account of 1876,	75.00

	$1,116.93

It will be seen that the entire income of the amount above stated as the interest-bearing Fund, if it could be made to average 7 per cent year by year, would not exceed

And that the average income of the same for the four years ending Sept., 1878, was only

$955.32

There was added, however, for those years, contributions on a verbal pledge by the Hon. John J. Cisco of New York, and by S. Stephen's Church, Portland, increasing the actual average income of the Fund to $1060.87

Of which there was available for the Bishop's salary, and paid him, average for those four years $997.19

The utmost income which can be had from all these sources at present is $1225

And the actual available income for the Bishop from all sources, up to one year ago, was a little less than $1000

If, then, we estimate the probable available income for the immediate future as halfway between these two, or about $1112, we shall, perhaps, not be far out of the way.

In accepting the above statement from the Sub-Committee to whom the matter had been referred, the Standing Committee instructed the President to communicate it to the Bishop, and to ascertain from him what disposition of the claims held by him against the Diocese for arrears of salary, would be acceptable to him. The Bishop's reply to this communication is as follows:

"PORTLAND, Sept. 13, 1879.

"Rev. and Dear Sir :

"In reply to the communication of yesterday's date received from you as Chairman of a Sub-Committee of the Standing Committee, with respect to arrearages due me on account of salary, I would say that I will very cheerfully waive any claim which I may have for such arrearages, with the view and for the purpose of assisting the Diocese to make satisfactory provision for the future, in accordance with the plan and recommendations of the Standing Committee.

"HENRY A. NEELY."

"The Rev. CHARLES W. HAYES."

The Standing Committee have only to add further, that after a very careful and thorough investigation of the facts given in their statement above, they are unanimously and decidedly of opinion, first, that the Diocese is under obligation to provide for the Bishop's salary to the present time, on the basis of the action of the Convention of 1870; that is, at the rate of sixteen hundred dollars a year, less the sum of $300 interest on the amount invested since 1872 from the Fund, in the Bishop's House.

Secondly, that if the Convention shall see fit to accept the Bishop's proposal to release the Diocese from all claims for his salary for the past (amounting now to about $1000 besides what may have accrued during the past year), such arrangements should be made for the future as will insure the payment to him of at least $1300 per annum as above.

Thirdly, that any deficiency in the income of the Episcopate Fund to make up such $1300 each year, should be a charge on the Contingent Fund of the Diocese, and unless otherwise provided for, be included in the annual assessment for the expenses of the Convention.

They recommend to this end, the adoption of the following Resolutions :

1. Resolved, That the Convention accepts, with thanks, the proposal of the Bishop to release the Diocese from all claim for arrears of salary due him to the present time, under the action of the Annual Conventions of 1870 and subsequent years.

2. Resolved, That the salary of the Bishop shall be thirteen hundred dollars a year, exclusive of his house, until the Episcopate Fund shall have been so increased as to make the income from its investments, aside from the house, more than equal to that amount.

3. Resolved, That to secure the full payment of the Bishop's salary, as determined by the preceding Resolution, there be added to the annual assessment for the expenses of the Convention, a sum at least equal to the difference between the above salary, and amount reported as actually paid to the Bishop during the previous year, from the whole income of the Fund from investments, pledges and contributions.

4. Resolved, That such addition to the assessment for Contingent Expenses be made with due regard to the sums contributed by the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese, respectively, to the capital of the Episcopate Fund.

In behalf of the Standing Committee,

CHARLES W. HAYES, President,
WILLIAM J. ALGER,
WILLIAM H. WASHBURN,
GEORGE E. B. JACKSON,

SOLOMON T. CORSER.

PORTLAND, Sept. 16, 1879.

The first Resolution reported as above by the Standing Committee, was on motion adopted.

The second Resolution being under consideration, the whole Report was on motion referred to a Special Committee of five laymen.

The Convention, on the request of the Chair, appointed as such Committee, Messrs. James Bridge, Alonzo Davenport, Robert H. Gardiner, Charles Sager, and James T. M'Cobb.

On motion, the Report of the above Committee was made the special order for Wednesday morning, immediately after the calling of the Roll.

Canon Hayes, on behalf of the Special Committee of the last Convention to act with a Committee of the Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Luke's Church, Portland, to obtain an Act of Incorporation for the Cathedral, presented the following

The Special Committee appointed by the Annual Convention of 1878, to act with a Committee of the Wardens and Vestrymen of S. Luke's Church, Portland, to procure a Charter for a Cathedral Corporation, respectfully report:—

That at a joint meeting of the two Committees at Hallowell, Feb. 3, 1879, at which a majority of each Committee was present, a form of Charter for such Corporation was presented and approved, and that such Act of Incorporation, on the application of a member of the joint Committee, was passed by the Legislature of the State, and is herewith submitted. The organization of the Cathedral Chapter thus incorporated will be reported to the Convention by the Clerk of the same.

The Committee further report that they have not deemed it advisable, at present, to apply to the Legislature for special powers, or a special Corporation, to hold the title to all churches in the Diocese, for the reason that it appears at least doubtful whether the four Diocesan Corporations now existing do not afford sufficient facilities for this purpose; which question they respectfully refer to the Convention.

JAMES BRIDGE,
HENRY INGALLS,
ROBERT H. GARDINER.

SEPT. 16, 1879.

The Act of Incorporation and Constitution of the Cathedral Chapter were then read by the Clerk of the Chapter, Canon Hayes.*

The Convention then, on motion, took a recess for the Annual Meeting of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.†

The Society having adjourned, the Convention resumed its session.

The Registrar presented his Annual Report.‡

On motion, the following Resolution accompanying the Registrar's Report, was adopted:

Resolved, That the Registrar be hereby authorized to procure, by purchase or otherwise, three copies of the Journal, and one copy of the Debates, of the General Convention of 1877, for the Diocesan Collection in the Cathedral Library.

On motion, the Convention adjourned to Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 17, 9 A.M.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rev. Mr. Gregson, and the Litany by the Rev. Mr. Walker, after which the Bishop took the Chair.

‡Appendix II. B.

The Minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The Roll of absent members was called, and two additional Lay Deputies, from one Parish and one Mission, took their seats.*

The special order of the day, being the Report of the Committee to whom was referred the Report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese on the Episcopate Fund, being called for, Mr. James Bridge, on behalf of that Committee, presented the following

REPORT :—

The Special Committee appointed to consider the Report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese in reference to the Episcopate Fund, respectfully report, that in the scant time awarded to them, they have been unable to examine as carefully as they would have preferred, the statement and conclusions submitted to them.

While, however, they see no reason to doubt the accuracy of that statement, and while they fully appreciate the importance of a final settlement of the question at issue, they are not prepared to sanction the plan of the Standing Committee, as proposed in the third Resolution appended to their Report.

Their chief objection is the pledge, either express or implied, given to the contributing parishes, and on which their subscriptions were founded.

This pledge was a guarantee that no assessment should ever hereafter be made by the Convention for the benefit of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate.

While it may be urged that no assessment in direct terms is now proposed in the third Resolution, your Committee is constrained to express the opinion that the proposition to "add to the annual assessment for the expenses of the Convention," a sum sufficient to make up any deficiency in the salary of the Bishop, is in violation of the agreement with the parishes at the time of their respective subscriptions.

They therefore recommend that the following Resolutions be substituted for the third and fourth Resolutions proposed by the Standing Committee.

3. Resolved, That to secure the payment of the Bishop's salary as determined by the preceding Resolution, the parishes now contributing to the Episcopate Fund be requested to contribute such further sums as may be equitably apportioned to them respectively by the Standing Committee of the Diocese, for the purpose of supplying any deficiency which may occur from year to year in the amount due for the Bishop's salary.

4. Resolved, That such apportionment be made with due regard to the sums contributed by the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese, respectively, to the capital of the Episcopate Fund.

SEPT. 17, 1879.

The question being taken on the second Resolution, as reported yesterday by the Standing Committee, it was adopted.

The third and fourth Resolutions as reported by the Special Committee, were then adopted.

So that the Resolutions as adopted by the Convention, are as follows :—

1. Resolved, That the Convention accepts, with thanks, the proposal of the Bishop, to release the Diocese from all claim for arrears of salary due him to the present time, under the action of the Annual Conventions of 1870 and subsequent years.

2. Resolved, That the salary of the Bishop shall be thirteen hundred dollars a year, exclusive of his house, until the Episcopate Fund shall have been so increased as to make the income from its investments, aside from the house, more than equal to that amount.

3. Resolved, That to secure the payment of the Bishop's salary as determined by the preceding Resolution, the parishes now contributing to the Episcopate Fund be requested to contribute such further sums as may be equitably apportioned to them respectively, by the Standing Committee of the Diocese, for the purpose of supplying any deficiency which may occur from year to year in the amount due for the Bishop's salary.

4. Resolved, That such apportionment be made with due regard to the sums contributed by the Parishes and Missions of the Diocese, respectively, to the capital of the Episcopate Fund.

The following Resolution was presented and adopted :—

Resolved, That an assessment for the expenses of the Diocesan and General Conventions shall be made at each Annual Convention by the Standing Committee of the Diocese. The Fund so provided shall be called the Diocesan Fund, and all assessments for the same shall be due to the Treasurer of the Diocese on the first day of October in each year. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to notify the Wardens of each Parish or Mission, through the Minister of the same or otherwise, of the amount so due, as soon as possible after the Annual Convention.

Reports from the Standing Committees of the Convention being called for, the Standing Committee on New Parishes reported that no application had been referred to them.

The Standing Committee on Canons reported that no matters requiring action had been submitted to them.

Mr. R. H. Gardiner, from the Standing Committee on Finance, reported that the accounts of the several Treasurers had been examined and found correct, and that the Securities of the Episcopate Fund had likewise been examined, by request of the Trustees, and under appointment of the Bishop, by a member of the Committee, and found to be satisfactory.

The Rev. Mr. Nichols, from the Standing Committee on Unfinished Business, presented the following

REPORT :—

The Standing Committee on Unfinished Business, beg leave to report that there remained on the Journal of the last Convention, the following Unfinished Business :—

1. The Committee on Cathedral Incorporation, which has already reported.

The Bishop's Address.

My Dear Brethren:

A review of my own official acts for the past year, and a survey of the present condition of the Diocese, exhibit, as do all our works, and all the circumstances of our earthly state, reasons both for thankfulness and for regret. It will be with the Church as with ourselves individually,—the administration of the kingdom of God on earth, and the promotion of its interests being entrusted to frail human hands, and fallible human judgments, its most precious treasures being committed, in the wisdom of God, to ‘earthen vessels,’ it must needs be that even where zeal and love abound, much imperfection will appear in the results; much will have been left undone which might have been done, and much that has been done will not have been done wisely. But we are usually quite as defective in zeal and faith, in diligence and the ardour of love, as we are in wisdom; and this defect more seriously impairs the influence, and obstructs the progress of the Church than the other.

Again, at particular times, or in particular communities, there will be agencies at work, or a sentiment prevailing, or various circumstances existing, peculiarly adverse to the success of our efforts as ministers and members of the Church of Christ.

Such considerations must always occasion regret in the heart of every faithful servant of Christ, and will lead him to deep self-searching, to repentance, whereinsoever he finds his own luke warmness or slothfulness exhibited in them, and to earnest prayer for the enlightening and quickening gift of the Holy Spirit, that henceforth he may serve his Divine Master more worthily and more efficiently.

On the other hand, there will always be cause for devout thankfulness to God in whatever satisfactory results issue from our labours, as workmen for Christ, since the sphere of our labours is "in the unruly wills and affections of sinful men" which He alone can "order," and the object of them the begetting of faith, and the transformation of character, which is wholly beyond the reach of our natural ability. And, if we knew more of the real purposes of God, and could see more clearly and fully how He is accomplishing them through our labours, we should doubtless find many more reasons for gratitude. Because particular results, striven and prayed for by us, have not been attained, it by no means follows that our efforts have been in vain. Moreover, if when discouraged or depressed by local difficulties, and the apparently small advance made in our particular portion of the field, we would look abroad and see what conquests are making elsewhere, we would have our faith quickened anew, and find still abundant cause for rejoicing and thankfulness. It is with the Church militant as with other armies,—victories here, temporary reverses there; important posts sometimes gained, sometimes lost; particular corps or battalions now in the heat of the conflict, now quietly but watchfully awaiting the word of command, and seldom a triumphant march or striking achievement at the same time, by all the divisions. But who that is interested enough to consider the question, can fail to see tokens of the progress of the Redeemer's kingdom upon earth? or who of us for a moment doubts, that however long may be the conflict, or however dubious, at times, to our eyes, the banner under which we are enlisted shall finally prevail; and that no faithful soldier under that banner, however insignificant may have been the place or part assigned him in the contest, shall fail to attain a glorious reward.

I proceed to the detail of my Episcopal work for the year.

Immediately after the adjournment of our last Convention, I visited Bar Harbor, Mt. Desert Island, and officiated in the recently completed church, Sunday, Sept. 8th, 1878.

On the 10th of October, I made the opening address at a general Missionary Meeting, under the auspices of the Board of Managers of our Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society in Calvary Church, New York, and subsequently participated in the business proceedings of the Board.

On the 13th I made an appeal for our own Missionary work in Christ Church, Hartford, and received the contributions of the congregation, which were devoted to the assistance of the Mission in Waterville, and also preached in Trinity Church, Hartford, on the same day.

On Friday the 25th, in Trinity Church, Lewiston, I preached, and confirmed thirty candidates, presented by the Rev. W. H. Washburn, including one confirmed in private.

On the 29th, in S. James' Church, Oldtown, I baptized one person and confirmed four, being assisted in the service by the Rev. J. F. Cornell, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who also preached.

Nov. 1, All Saints Day, I ordained the Rev Arthur Herbert Locke, Deacon, to the Priesthood, in Trinity Church, Camden, the candidate being presented by the Rev. Samuel Upjohn, and the sermon preached by the Rev. William Walker.

On the 5th I preached at the opening of a session of our Diocesan Board of Missions, in S. Mark's Church, Waterville, and on the following day presided at the services and business meetings of the same.

Feb. 3d and 4th, 1879, I was in attendance at a Meeting of our Board of Missions in Hallowell, and at the same time and place I met with the Committee on the Incorporation of the Cathedral.

On the 5th Sunday in Lent, March 30, I ordained the Rev. Charles John Ketchum, Deacon, to the Priesthood, in the Cathedral, Portland. The Candidate was presented by the Rev. Samuel Upjohn, who also preached the Sermon.

On Wednesday in Holy Week, April 9, I visited Christ Church, Gardiner, and confirmed seven candidates, (including two confirmed in private,) preached twice and celebrated the Holy Communion.

On Easter Day, April 13, in the Cathedral, Portland, I confirmed twenty-six candidates, presented by the Rev. Canon Hayes.

On the following Sunday, April 20, I preached, and confirmed twenty-two candidates in S. Paul's, Portland, presented by the Rector, the Rev. Chas. J. Ketchum.

On Wednesday, April 22, in S. Paul's, Brunswick, I confirmed eight candidates, presented by the Rector, the Rev.

H. P. Nichols. A meeting of our Board of Missions having been appointed for the same time in the parish, I presided at its services and sessions throughout Wednesday.

On Thursday evening, April 24, I preached, and confirmed two candidates in S. Matthew's Church, Hallowell.

In S. Mark's Mission, Waterville, on S. Mark's Day, April 25, at Evening Prayer, I preached, and confirmed fifteen, presented by the Missionary in charge, the Rev. Edwin F. Small.

On the second Sunday after Easter, April 27, in S. Stephen's Church, Portland, I preached, and confirmed ten candidates, presented by the Rector, the Rev. Asa Dalton.

While absent from the Diocese during a portion of the month of May, and acting on the request of the Bishop of New York, I confirmed one hundred and thirty in that Diocese.

On Ascension Day, May 22, in S. Mark's Church, Augusta, at Morning Prayer, I ordained Mr. Henry Jones to the Diaconate. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Henry R. Pyne, and the candidate presented by the Rev. Samuel Upjohn. In the evening, in the same church, I confirmed twelve candidates, presented by the Rector, the Rev. Samuel Upjohn.

On the 29th of May, I visited S. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., by request of the Rector, and addressed the students.

On Friday in Whitsun Week, June 6th, I visited the Soldier's Home at Togus, preached, and confirmed two candidates, presented by the Rev. Mr. Upjohn, who has maintained religious services regularly at this Institution during the year.

On Trinity Sunday, June 8, in Trinity Church, Lewiston,

I preached, confirmed eleven, and celebrated the Holy Communion in the morning, catechized the Sunday School in the afternoon, and preached in the evening.

On the 11th, S. Barnabas' Day, I visited S. Mark's, Rockport, and S. Thomas', Camden, preached in both churches, and confirmed in the former two and in the latter four candidates, presented by the Missionary in charge, the Rev. A. H. Locke.

On the 17th I presided at the Annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall at Augusta, and on the following day presided at the Anniversary exercises of the school.

On the 19th I confirmed in private a sick person, in the parish of Christ Church. Gardiner, and baptized a child.

On the 20th I confirmed a sick person in private, in S. Luke's, Parish, Portland.

On the 21st, in the presence of a large congregation, and assisted by several of the clergy, I laid the corner-stone of the new Trinity Church, Lewiston. So full an account has already been given in the North East of this very interesting service and its accompaniments, that I make only this brief reference to it.

On S. John Baptist's Day, June 24th, at Evening Prayer, in Trinity Church, Saco, I confirmed eight candidates from that parish and Christ Church, Biddeford, presented by the Rev. William J. Alger, Rector.

This being also the opening service of the fourth session of our Board of Missions, a paper prepared for that occasion was read by the Rev. William Walker. On the following day I celebrated the Holy Communion, and presided at the business consultations of the Board, at the conclusion of which a very agreeable refecton was served at Old Orchard Beach by the ladies of the parish.

On the 26th I preached, and confirmed three candidates in the Church of the Messiah, Dexter, and on the 27th preached, and confirmed the same number, three, in Holy Trinity Church, Exeter, the candidates being presented in each case by the Missionary in charge, the Rev. Thomas Marsden.

On S. Peter's Day, June 29, in S. James' Church, Oldtown, I preached, baptized and confirmed one person, and celebrated the Holy Communion in the morning, and preached and baptized an infant in the afternoon. On the same day, in the evening, I officiated in S. John's, Bangor, preached, and baptized three adults. Both of these parishes have been without a Rector during the whole of the past Diocesan year.

On Monday, June 30th, I preached in S. Peter's, Rockland, and S. John Baptist's Church, Thomaston, and confirmed two candidates in each church, four in all; the service being said, and the candidates presented by the Missionary in charge, the Rev. William Walker.

At Newcastle, July 1, I preached, and confirmed three candidates, presented by the Rev. Henry R. Pyne, and on the following morning celebrated the Holy Communion, eighteen communicants being present and participating.

On Thursday, July 3d, at Evening Prayer, I preached and confirmed two candidates in S. Philip's Church, Wiscasset, presented by the Rector, the Rev. Henry R. Pyne.

On Monday, the 7th, at evening service, in Grace Church, Bath, I preached, and confirmed two candidates, presented by the Rector, the Rev. John Gregson.

On Friday, the 11th, in S. Anne's Church, Calais, I preached, and confirmed six candidates, presented by the Rev. Medville M'Laughlin, Rector.

In Christ Church, Eastport, on Sunday, the 13th, I preached twice, celebrated the Holy Communion, catechized the Sunday-school, and confirmed seven candidates (two of them in private), presented by the Rev. M. H. Wellman.

On the 21st of August, I consecrated to the honour and worship of Almighty God, under the name of S. Saviour's Church, the newly-built stone church at Bar Harbor, Mt. Desert Island, the debt remaining upon it last year having been entirely cancelled by the contributions of the present summer. This pretty and substantial church has been erected by the efforts and offerings of summer visitors to our coast, and by them given to the Diocese for the sacred purpose to which it is now set apart. Their desire and hope is that it may serve not only for the convenience and benefit of temporary sojourners upon the Island, but for the spiritual advantage of the permanent residents, the number of whom has of late considerably increased; and to that end they have undertaken the support of a clergyman for the entire year. I feel that we are greatly indebted to these brethren, for this new missionary agency thus put into our hands and without cost to ourselves. I was assisted in the consecration service by the Right Reverend the Bishop of Long Island, who did me the favour to preach the sermon, and by several clerical brethren from other Dioceses, besides the Rev. Mr. Leffingwell, who, I am glad to say, has consented to devote himself to this new work.

On Sunday, Aug. 31st, I visited a second time S. Thomas', Camden, where I preached and celebrated the Holy Communion, and S. Mark's, Rockport, where I also preached, the service in both churches being said by the Rev. Mr. Locke.

I have not visited the Missions in Aroostook County, owing to the fact that until recently most of them have been vacant. I am to proceed to a visitation of them immediately after the close of the present convention.

Such is, in brief, the record of my Episcopal acts for the year. It by no means presents, as you are well aware, an account of my various labours, which have often been most arduous where none are noted, but it will sufficiently meet the requirements of the present occasion. It will have been observed that the number of candidates presented for confirmation in some parishes, especially in Trinity, Lewiston, and S. Paul's, Portland, was unusually large ; and owing to this circumstance, the aggregate for the year, notwithstanding the clerical vacancies in several parishes and missions, has been larger than for some previous years.

The changes among the clergy represent less of actual loss to us than might be inferred. The Rev. Mr. Sill, transferred to the Diocese of Fredericton, had already been labouring there for more than a year. The Rev. Mr. Moran, bringing me letters dimissory from the Diocese of Rhode Island, remained but a few weeks, and had formed no parochial ties here, when he was transferred to New York. The Rev. Mr. Leffingwell, who, having resigned his charge at Gardiner at the expiration of ten years of faithful work, I feared might remove from the Diocese, still remains, and is actively engaged among us. The Rev. Mr. Ketchum, formerly Deacon at the Cathedral, is now the efficient Rector of S. Paul's, Portland. The Rev. Mr. Sawyer has resigned his parish at Hallowell, but only with the view of undertaking a more arduous work in the mission field of Aroostook County.

Only one of the clergy actually labouring in this jurisdiction at the time of the last Convention, or entering it since that time, has left us, while on the other hand we have gained three, viz., the Rev. Charles E. Fitz, returning to us from Rhode Island, the Rev. Leverett Bradley, jr., recently come to us from Massachusetts, and the Rev. Henry Jones, ordained Deacon, and now doing excellent service in Aroostook. And if some of our parishes and missions have been for a long time and are still without pastoral oversight, it is, I cannot but feel, rather by reason of a feeble sense of responsibility and an imperfect appreciation of the value of the benefits ministered by the ambassadors of Christ on the part of the officers and the communicants of the Church in those parishes or missions, than from any insuperable difficulty in obtaining the services of a competent Pastor.

It gives me much pleasure to announce that through the gifts of a few individuals in the Diocese, and the kind assistance of brethren abroad, a considerable portion of the debt upon our Diocesan school has recently been extinguished, and such arrangements made that the remaining portion will be less burdensome than before. The struggle to maintain the school in its full efficiency, and at the same time avert a sacrifice of its heavily encumbered property, during the depression of the last few years, has been a hard one, and I am thankful for the partial relief now attained. With the return of prosperity to our people, institutions of this class can be, and no doubt will be, more generally patronized, and the excellence of our school will surely commend it to such popular patronage. Meanwhile the Churchmen of this Diocese owe to S. Catharine's such practical recognition and support as has not been rendered, of late, in proportion either to the merits of the school, or to their responsibility for the maintenance in this community of so important an agency for the promotion of a truly Christian culture. But when thus speaking, I would fail in my own duty, did I not make grateful acknowledgement of the hearty and steady co-operation which some of my brethren have given me in this and in other Diocesan undertakings. Nor will I refrain from giving expression to my sense of special indebtedness to the patient, intelligent, and self-denying devotion to the interests of the school exhibited by its present Principal, a devotion which I trust will soon be abundantly rewarded by the prosperity of the institution. The new school year has just now opened with a somewhat increased number of pupils, and the prospect of a further increase during the present year is favourable.

I have been much gratified by the interest manifested by the ladies of several of our parishes and missions in the establishment of a Diocesan branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the General Board of Missions. It may be that the material aid which we can thus give to the general missionary work of the Church will be comparatively small. But the virtue of all such undertakings lies in the recognition of responsibility, the exhibition of sympathy, and the act of hearty co-operation, rather than in the material results. And the number of beneficiaries is not to be measured by the number of missionaries or families of missionaries thus provided for. For they who give are more blessed than they who receive, and shall be rewarded an hundred fold by that approving word which they shall hear, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye did it unto me."

So far are efforts or contributions of this or any other kind in behalf of the general work of the Church from impairing the interest, or diminishing the activity, or lessening the ability of any parish in the support of its local operations, that such a manifestation of an unselfish and Christ-like spirit, such out-reaching charity, such heartiness of desire for the present welfare and final salvation of all men, being the very secret of the Church's distinctive power in the world, is that which must finally determine the moral influence, and growth, and strength of any particular parish.

Any parish which, under whatever plea, isolates itself from the organizations of which it is a member, and exhibits no practical sympathy with movements or efforts beyond its own narrow limits, is in the last stage of spiritual decline, though it may still exhibit many outward tokens of prosperity; it will surely dwindle and decay, and be rejected at last as a mere "cumberer of the ground," unless the principle of a new and nobler vitality shall be infused into it by the Spirit of God.

On the other hand, every token of a consciousness that the work which the Lord has assigned to His Church is our work, that we are in some measure and degree responsible for its performance everywhere, that the circumstances of proximity or remoteness determine only the sphere of our personal labours, and that where we cannot go personally our hearts still go, and our prayers, and our offerings according to our ability,—every such token is a token of spiritual vitality and vigour, and a parish whose members exhibit these will go on from strength to strength, however wanting it may be in mere worldly resources.

I rejoice therefore that in so many of our parishes and missions of this Diocese the daughters of the Church have already gladly responded to the call, and become active auxiliaries in the great missionary cause; and I doubt not that the report soon to be made of what has already been accomplished through their efforts will both encourage them and stimulate many others to unite with them.

At our last Convention, a committee was appointed to co-operate with a committee to be appointed by the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of S. Luke's Church, Portland, "to procure from the Legislature of Maine such a charter as is contemplated in the Instrument of Donation presented at the consecration of the Cathedral on the 18th day of October, 1877." It is understood that the committee have performed the duty assigned them, and will so report at this convention. The constitution, agreed upon by the incorporators, seeks but little more than to meet the requirements of the charter and of the Instrument of Donation. It is not proposed to assign to the new corporation any peculiar functions, or to confer upon it any special privileges.

But it was very desirable that this valuable property, representing as it does very largely offerings made from within and without the Diocese specially for a permanent Cathedral church, and now solemnly consecrated as such, should be secured against the vicissitudes of an ordinary parochial organization; and, moreover, that the privileges of the Bishop with respect to it should have a sufficient and perpetual guarantee. At the same time, S. Luke's Parish, when consenting to these conditions, and making the transfer of the property to the new corporation, might very justly require, in view of the large part which it had in the erection of the church, that its own reserved privileges shall be maintained and its own needs provided for. The constitution seeks first of all to secure these objects. In the further provision that the Standing Committee and three of the clergy of the Diocese shall be members of the corporation, it is intended to give the Diocese such representation, and such a degree of influence and control in the management of the affairs of the Cathedral, as may at any time be necessary for the conservation or better promotion of Diocesan interests.

I will add no more than the expression of the hope that our Cathedral may now become an object of greater interest to the whole Diocese; that, as being our central and representative church, we may all desire to enhance its dignity and its beauty; and, chiefly, that its means of usefulness in the promotion of our common work may be enlarged. Of what value your Bishop can be to you when not engaged in his general visitorial work, depends upon the means and instruments put into his hands. Not that he is likely to lack occupation under existing circumstances and conditions. His personal ministrations in the Cathedral and to the congregation ordinarily worshipping therein for the past ten years have been both engrossing and agreeable to himself, and I trust not without profit to others. But if, for example, our Episcopate were fully endowed, the Bishop might, without disadvantage to any interests, assign his duties as Rector more largely to others, or even divest himself of them altogether, and thus be free to devote himself more exclusively to Diocesan work. And if then there should be clustered around the Cathedral, Diocesan educational or charitable institutions, they would have the benefit of the personal supervision and direction of the head of the Diocese. These institutions in turn, giving employment during the week, and at least a partial support, to other clergy, those clergy could supply the services of the Church at points where we are now unable to afford them, or to established parishes or missions at any time vacant.

I trust, my brethren of the laity, that suggestions of this kind may have from you that consideration of which I am sure they are worthy. There have been given, during the past year, in other Dioceses, some noble examples of beneficence in founding, or placing on a broader and securer foundation, various institutions and agencies of the Church ; and such works are the fairest and worthiest monuments which any man can rear to his own memory, as being the best which he can do in fulfillment of his stewardship to God, and for the benefit of succeeding generations. There are but few among us here to whom God has entrusted large possessions, but there ought to be as willing hearts and generous hands here as elsewhere ; and therefore, though it may require a longer time, the Church in Maine ought ultimately to find herself supplied with every necessary or desirable instrument for the prosecution of her work. Endowments, whether Diocesan or parochial, missionary or educational, are the more needful and the more valuable in such a Diocese as this, where the population is not increasing, and where the general wealth of the people increases but very slowly, if at all, than they would be in many other localities. Your late wise and beloved Bishop appreciated this fact, and by his personal munificence not only conferred upon the Diocese an enduring benefit, but gave an example no less worthy of imitation than were his daily walk and conversation among you.

The Society adjourned till Wednesday the 17th inst., at 4 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 17th.

The Society met pursuant to adjournment, the Bishop in the Chair.

The Secretary of the Board of Missions presented his

ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Missions has held its usual quarterly meetings,—this annual meeting making five sessions for the year.

The Advent meeting was held in Waterville, with an attendance of nine Clerical and three Lay delegates.

The Epiphany meeting was held in Hallowell, with the attendance of twelve Clerical and eight Lay members.

The Easter meeting was held at Brunswick, with thirteen Clerical and eight Lay members present.

The Trinity meeting was held in Saco, with ten Clerical and three Lay members present.

At each of these meetings the usual public services were held, and the regular business meetings of the Society—both public and private sessions however being made additionally interesting by the introduction of discussions, exegetical and parochial, and the delivery at each quarterly meeting of an address upon some specified theme.

The work for the year has been perhaps in some respects discouraging—as in all past years—but upon a careful review of the twelve months, we feel that much could be found to cheer and encourage the parishes in giving freely to the Treasury of the Board, and the missionaries in being instant in season and out of season in their work for the kingdom of Christ.

C. S. LEFFINGWELL, Secretary of Board of Missions.

The Treasurer presented his Annual Report, which was read and referred to the Committee of the Convention on Finance.

The Committee to which was referred the eighth section of the By-Laws for revision, reported through Mr. Henry Ingalls the following, which was adopted, and section eighth as heretofore appearing, was repealed.

SECTION 8. No money applicable to the general work of Missions shall be paid out except upon the requisition of the Board of Missions.

The business of the Society being ended, the Society adjourned.

C. S. LEFFINGWELL,
Secretary of M. E. M. S.

REMARKS.

TRINITY CHURCH, LEWISTON.

The Rev. William H. Washburn.

During the past year, the Parish has been actively at work raising funds for the new church. The walls of the building are now nearly up and ready for the roof, which we purpose to put on this fall. This enterprise was commenced two years ago, without one cent of funds in the treasury of the building committee; but every bill has been promptly paid, and up to this time there has been expended about $5000. I have been obliged to give much of the time that I would gladly have devoted to parochial work, to the disagreeable but necessary business of collecting money for business purposes. But I am glad to say that notwithstanding my enforced remissness in many respects, the parish is in good condition. The services are well attended, and very general interest is manifested in Church work.

S. MARK'S CHURCH, AUGUSTA.

The Rev. Samuel Upjohn.

At the National Soldiers' Home, Togus, four miles from Augusta, I have held regular services once every Sunday, and from October to May, every Friday evening, and have baptized one adult and eleven children. The Bishop has held a visitation, and confirmed two persons. I have solemnized one marriage and twelve funerals, and celebrated the Holy Communion six times.

S. MARK'S MISSION, WATERVILLE.

The Rev. Edwin F. Small.

The new chapel erected last year was paid for on the first of January, 1879, leaving an indebtedness on the Mission of $400 on account of the lot. A steady and increased attendance on Sundays, a large number confirmed and added to the Communion, and a larger Sunday School, are the marks of progress in this Mission.

S. PETER'S CHURCH, ROCKLAND.

The Rev. William Walker.

Three visits have been made by the Missionary to Clark's Island, and three to Goshen, in the town of Waldoboro, with services at both places. At Clark's Island, seven children have been baptized, included in this report. Repairs on the church in Rockland are in progress, for which purpose the sum of $214 has been kindly contributed by friends outside the parish.

S. JAMES' CHURCH, OLDTOWN.

Benj. F. Small, Warden.

The services have been kept up by lay-reading during the year, with the exception of three Sunday and four week-day services. Two Sunday and one week-day service were by the Bishop, one Sunday and two week-day services by the Rev. H. Sawyer, and one (week-day) by the Rev. W. B. Tyng Smith, of the Diocese of New Hampshire. The average congregation on Sundays has been about 40, on week-days 18. A branch of the Woman's Auxiliary has been organized. The Sunday-school is not large, but the members of it are punctual and regular in attendance. In general, while the parish gives cause for no immediate expectation of any marked increase of strength, its condition is one of present stability, with good promise of future growth.

CHRIST CHURCH, EASTPORT.

The Rev. Merritt H. Wellman.

The working of the Parish seems hopeful at the present time. The ladies, with the assistance of friends in New York and Boston, have distributed among the poor of the Sunday-school and parish, more than eighty good and comfortable garments, four pairs of shoes, and thirty-eight yards of cotton and flannel cloth. A sewing school for the Sunday-school children in the winter and spring, was sufficiently successful to encourage its re-opening in a few weeks. It is hoped it will now take the form of an auxiliary to the "Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions," recently organized in the parish, and numbering sixty members.

EMMANUEL MISSION, ASHLAND.

The Rev. Henry Jones.

This Mission was vacant most of the past year. Next year's report, it is hoped, will show some progress. There are now some indications of growth. The services are well attended, and in many other ways the Missionary receives great encouragement. Services are held fortnightly at Masardis and Portage Lake, and are attended by larger numbers than in any preceding summer during my labours here. There are no Confirmations reported, the Bishop's visit not having been made at this date.

And it is further provided that said Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen, the Parish consenting thereto, may make said donation as contemplated by said Instrument of Donation and the plans to be agreed upon as there set out.

§ 1. The Chapter constituted and appointed as above provided, shall hold the property of the Cathedral under its Charter, in trust, First, for the use and benefit of the congregation ordinarily worshipping therein, and under the terms of the Instrument of Donation of the same; and Secondly, for all Episcopal and Synodical functions appertaining to the Bishop and Diocese of Maine, and appropriate to a Cathedral Church.

§ 2. For all such purposes, and all other purposes consistent with the Instrument of Donation and Act of Incorporation of the Cathedral, and the laws and usages of the Church, the parishioners of S. Luke's Church, Portland, as represented by the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of the same, shall be the ordinary Custodians of the Cathedral, receiving all revenues not specially appropriated by the donors thereof, and providing for all expenses connected with the support of its clergy and other officers, the due maintenance of public worship, and the care of the buildings and grounds, and all other property thereto belonging.

§ 3. The Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen aforesaid shall annually, on the first day of September, report to the Chapter, in detail, the condition of the Cathedral and its property, and all receipts and expenditures connected with the same; and such report shall be laid by the Chapter before the next Annual Convention of the Diocese.

ARTICLE IV.

§ 1. The Bishop, Resident Canons, and Wardens, shall constitute the Lesser Chapter of the Cathedral.

§ 2. The Lesser Chapter shall meet from time to time on the appointment of the Bishop, or at the call of any two members, and shall be the Bishop's Council of Advice in regard to the ordinary duties and services of the Cathedral, but shall have no corporate character.

§ 3. The Bishop, or in his absence the Senior Canon present, shall preside at all meetings of the Lesser Chapter; but in all other respects the Chapter may determine its own rules of proceeding and By-Laws, subject in all cases to the Bishop's approval.

ARTICLE V.

§ 1. This Constitution may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Chapter, by vote of a majority of all the members of the same, with the approval of the Bishop; provided, that a written proposition for such alteration or amendment shall have been approved by vote of a majority of those present at a meeting held not less than one month previous to such final action.

THE above Constitution was duly adopted at a meeting of the Trustees named in the Act of Incorporation of the Cathedral, held at Portland, in pursuance of notice duly given, September 12, and by adjournment, Sept. 16, 1879; at which meeting a majority of the said Trustees were present.

Attest,

CHARLES W. HAYES.

CANONS IN FORCE, 1879.

[See Journals of 1875, pp. 11, 19, and 1877, p. 13.]

CANON I.

Of Missionary Organization.

§ 1. The Missionary operations of the Church in this Diocese shall be conducted in accordance with the Act of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.

§ 11. 1. Missionary Stations are under the control of the Bishop and the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

2. Missionaries are appointed by the Board of Missions, on the nomination of the Bishop; and in the fields assigned them are the agents and representatives of the authorities of the Diocese.

3. The entire salaries of the Missionaries are to be paid by the Board of Missions, but the people to whom they are sent must be stated contributors to the Treasury of the Board, to the amount of a minimum which shall be agreed upon from year to year, between them and the Board.

4. The Weekly Offertory is to be established at the commencement of the Mission; not only as the easiest way of raising money, and of dividing the expenses equitably among the people, but also that the duty and habit of Christian giving shall be practically inculcated.

5. The title of real estate given to or purchased by the Mission for Church purposes, shall be vested in the Trustees of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, to be held by them until such time as the Mission shall become a duly organized Parish, or longer if the parishioners shall so elect.

6. The change from the "Mission" to the "Parish" may be made when, first, there shall be a sufficient number of male persons of good standing to act as Wardens and Vestrymen; and when, secondly, the station is provided with a church, and is able to support a Rector without Missionary aid.

7. Missions duly organized shall report to the Annual Convention through their Missionaries, or if there be none in charge, through their Clerk, or if there be no clerk, through the Treasurer. And in these reports, in their own records, in all Diocesan statistics and accounts, in their names, in their obedience to the Canons of the Church, and the action of the Diocesan Convention, they shall be held and treated as Parishes, with the obvious exceptions resulting from their having no corporate character.

8. The failure of the people of the Mission to fulfill their stipulation, may warrant the Bishop in withdrawing his Missionary, and with the consent of the Convention, dissolving the organization.

§ 111. 1. Persons desirous of the services of the Church in their town, village, or neighbourhood, shall make application to the Bishop in the following form:

To the Right Rev. the Bishop of Maine.

We, the undersigned, residents of the town of ———, county of ———, Diocese of Maine, being desirous of obtaining the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, do hereby request you to provide them for us as you think fit. For which benefits we do hereby agree to put ourselves under your charge; promising conformity to the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of said Church, to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Maine, and to the rules regulating Missionary Stations in this Diocese. And in accordance with those rules, we are now desirous to be organized as a Mission, under the name of ——— Mission, ———. Furthermore, we hereby agree to pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions of the Diocese, in four equal quarterly instalments, the sum of ——— at least, for the first year.

Respectfully,

Your obedient Servants.

This application shall be signed by the adults, not less than six in number, who propose to be members of the Mission.

2. If the Bishop consent to the organization of a Mission, he shall appoint, on consultation with the Missionary, the following officers to serve for the first year, after which they shall be elected annually, in Easter Week, by the people ;—a Warden, a Treasurer, and a Clerk ; or if it be deemed expedient by the Bishop, a Warden and Treasurer only shall be appointed.

3. It shall be the duty of the Warden to procure a room or house, to be used as a place of public worship ; to see that the same be kept clean and in good repair, and that it be provided with all things necessary for conducting the services of the Church decently and in order. He shall also provide the Bread and Wine for the Holy Communion ; take charge of the Communion Service, the Linen, Books, etc., belonging to the Mission ; and shall endeavour, in the absence of the Missionary at any time, to keep up the regularity of the services.

4. The Warden shall be Deputy ex-officio to the Convention, and shall also be entitled to a seat and vote in the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to collect or receive all moneys contributed by the Mission, and to remit or disburse them in accordance with the rules of the Board of Missions.

6. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, or if no Clerk be appointed or elected, of the Treasurer, to keep a record of events of importance to the Mission, and a list of its families and members ; and in case the Missionary be non-resident, to have the custody of the Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, etc., but not to make entries therein, except by the Missionary's request, or in his absence ; and to attend to any correspondence required by or for the Mission.

7. The Missionary, in consultation with the officers, shall appoint the Sexton, Organist, Choir-leader, Sunday School Superintendent, and any other helper he may find necessary ; but in his absence, the right of such appointment shall rest with the Officers previously named.

§ IV. 1. Every person becoming a member of the Mission, and willing to aid in its support, is expected to name a certain sum per week, which he will pay to the Board of Missions, whether it be large or small, "according as God hath blessed him."

2. At every Sunday service, or at least once when there are two on the same day, there shall be an offertory ; and then the contributors shall place the amount due from them in the Alms-basin, in envelopes marked with their names or numbers. The Treasurer receiving and opening these envelopes, shall credit the givers with the amounts enclosed, and at the end of each quarter shall collect whatever arrearages may be unpaid.

4. Money contributed outside of the envelopes shall be separately recorded and reported to the Board of Missions, and excepting such amounts as have been collected as Communion Alms, or for Canonical objects, they shall be appropriated : 1. To the contingent expenses of the Mission. 2. To such other objects as the Missionary may deem expedient.

§ V. 1. Every organization of a Mission in accordance with § III., shall be reported by the Bishop to the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

2. The Convention, on receiving such report, shall declare by vote its approval of the organization ; and such approval shall entitle the Mission to representation by its Warden, as provided in § III. 4.

CANON II.

Of Lay Deputies.

§ I. A form of Certificate for Lay Deputies, in conformity with Art II., § 2, of the Constitution, shall be sent to all the parishes by the Secretary of the Diocese, one month at least before the meeting of the Annual Convention.

§ II. The Certificates of the election of Lay Deputies shall be sent to the Secretary before the first day of the Annual Convention ; and the Secretary shall make a roll of the names of the Lay Deputies whose Certificates are in regular form.

CANON IV.

§ I. When any Minister of this Church is tried for any of the offences named in the Canons of the General Convention, for which a Minister may be tried and punished, it shall be on presentment made to the Bishop by three Presbyters of this Church, or by the Vestry of the Parish to which the Minister belongs, and approved by at least one Presbyter. In every presentment the charges shall be distinctly specified.

§ II. When any Clergyman has been charged according to this Canon with any offence, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to furnish the accused with a copy of the charges and specifications alleged against him, and require him to make answer thereto before him and his Council, whom he shall convene to hear and judge of such charge or charges ; and it shall be his duty to notify the accused person of the time and place of meeting, one month at least previous to the meeting. The aforesaid Council shall consist of at least four Presbyters of the Diocese. If the Bishop and his Council, or a major part of them, after hearing the evidence, shall judge the accused person guilty of either or all of the charges laid against him, the Bishop shall reprove, suspend, or degrade the person so convicted, as he and a major part of his said Council shall think the offence may deserve.

§ III. If the accused shall neglect or refuse to appear, when summoned according to this Canon, and no defence be made by his authority, they shall declare him to be "in contumacy ;" and sentence of suspension from the ministry, until he shall appear or render satisfactory answer, shall pass against him for contumacy ; and if, after six calendar months from the date of such sentence, he shall not have appeared, nor have rendered such answer, the Bishop may, with the advice and consent of the Clerical members of the Standing Committee, pronounce against him the sentence of degradation from the ministry ; or else the sentence of suspension shall still remain in force till he shall appear or render satisfactory answer.

CANON V.

There shall be in every Parish Monthly Offerings for Diocesan Objects. It shall be the duty of the Rector or Minister of each Parish to give notice of these collections, and regularly to remit the amounts contributed for Diocesan Missions to the Treasurer of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, and the other collections to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Diocesan objects are, Diocesan Missions ; the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate ; Christian Education ; and Bible and Prayer Book Distribution.

CANON VII.

It shall be the duty of all Ministers of this Diocese to report to the Bishop the names of such persons as may come to their knowledge, who are attached to our Communion, and who are inhabitants of towns where there is no Episcopal congregation; and it shall be the duty of the several Rectors in this Diocese to give the Bishop early notice of the removal of any of their parishioners to such towns.

REPORT:—

The Committee appointed to consider the matter of education in this Diocese desire to present a few practical suggestions on that subject.

First, it is important that our people maintain an active interest in the common schools. It is the undeniable fact that these schools are the only ones on which most of the members of the Church must be dependent for the education of their children ; and even if we could provide purely Church or parish schools for such children, it is an important question whether it would be desirable to do so. For all the children of the state are growing up to be fellow-citizens, and as such should be capable of mutual confidence and mutual understanding. That separation between class and class, which causes the persons of one class to grow up without real power to sympathize with those outside their class, not knowing what they think, or how they feel, would be fatal in a popular government like ours. If we cannot all think and feel in the same way, we must be able to know something of the way in which our fellow-citizens do think and feel, and make proper allowance for it ; and comprehend their sentiments as to their rights and wrongs, or there soon will be an end to equal rights for all. Now where can anything be found to promote fellow-feeling and mutual respect and mutual understanding like the system under which the children of each generation study together, play together, speak their minds out to each other, get a personal acquaintance with those of other habits and different social station, on the equality of the common school and play-ground ? If the many conflicting religious denominations in this country are to exist together, under equal laws maintained by the votes of their members, it will never do to let the children grow up separately, in separate denominational schools. It is therefore our duty, as citizens, to see that the common-school system is maintained, and that the mass of children is brought together under that. Few of our own children will fail to be benefited by a certain period of attendance at them, if only to teach them what people are really like outside their own small circle. Individual children may be exposed to evil influences, and may require to be specially guarded and corrected; but while we see that, and must be watchful against the evil, there is a good done which we cannot always measure, but which may be of great value for the future life of the child. We realize the influence of our system of common worship in maintaining the substantial unity in doctrine and sympathy of the members of the Church. We must look to the influence of the common school to maintain the unity of the state and nation by forming a common character of mind.

We are bound, then, to see that the common schools are made as good as possible, that the character they form may be good. Every parish minister, and every lay man and lay woman of any influence in the community, should feel called on to take an interest in this matter; and they will find that the teachers and school authorities are generally glad to see this interest, and ready to welcome any practical suggestions that are offered. Let this Church then stand forward in promoting education in this most practical way, not for any advantage directly to itself, but a part of its office in teaching its members to do their duty as citizens, as well as in other departments of that state of life to which it has pleased God to call them.

Another suggestion is that all children, except in cases of delicate physical or mental or moral health, should be sent to school, and not be trained entirely at home. They are to live in the world, and the sooner they begin to understand that the world contains other people besides themselves, entitled to quite as much consideration as themselves, the better for their future usefulness and happiness. Now they never can learn this in the home, where they must be peculiarly important. They cannot fail to acquire it in a school, where the principle of equal laws and rights for all is fairly carried out. In addition to this is to be considered the greater interest of studies pursued in company, and the stimulus of mutual emulation.

There comes up, then, the further question as to special schools for the education that cannot be obtained in the common schools, which must be conspicuously absent from the common schools from the very cause which makes them profitable in another way. We wish our sons and daughters to grow up refined Christian men and women, with that form of refinement and Christianity which the Church alone is qualified to impart. For I suppose every one of us is conscious that our choice of language, our tone of feeling, our decorum and good taste in manner and expression, as well as the way we think and feel upon the most serious and momentous matters that can occupy and enlarge and elevate the heart and soul, owe a great deal of their refinement and soundness to the wonderful chastity, dignity, force, and beauty of our system of worship and form of doctrine. A Church school, then, where these things are given their proper place and influence in the system of education, is most desirable, if not absolutely essential, to make our children what they ought to be. For the girls of this Diocese we have such a school in S. Catharine's Hall. The members of this Committee can confidently recommend it both for the secular education which it furnishes, and for the far more important education which it provides in those elements which are furnished to the whole character by the Church. If the Church people of the Diocese do not take advantage of the privilege which it places at their very door, they are wanting in their duty to the children that God has given them.

Mr. Henry Ingalls, in behalf of the Standing Committee on Finance, presented the following

REPORT:—

The Standing Committee on Finance have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Episcopate and other Funds, of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and of the Treasurer of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, and find the same correct.

By a Standing Resolution of the Convention of 1879 (page 25), the Diocesan year was to commence and end Sept. 1st. Your Committee perceive that the several Treasurers have not in all cases observed this Resolution.

Your Committee beg leave to add that the Treasurer of the Episcopate and other Funds and the Treasurer of the Diocese have paid during the past year $1,431.25 for the Bishop's salary, or $131.25 in excess of his salary as established by the Convention of 1879. Your Committee further find that at that Convention, when the Bishop generously released the Diocese from his just claim against it of nearly $1,000, there was in the hands of the Treasurer of the Episcopate and other Funds the sum of $94.46. Your Committee are of the opinion that this sum should have been paid to the Bishop, thereby reducing the amount remitted by him, and recommend that the sum of $94.46 be deducted from the over payment, so that the amount to be allowed on the Bishop's salary for the ensuing year shall be only the sum of $36.79, instead of $131.25.

With warm appreciation of his many traits as a Christian gentleman and faithful servant of our Divine Master, and regretting his removal from the Diocese, we extend to him our hearty good wishes for his welfare and happiness in his future home.

Resolved, That this minute be recorded on the Convention Journal and a copy of the same be sent for publication to the Churchman and the NORTH EAST.

APPENDIX I.

A.

The Bishop's Address.

My dear Brethren :

I heartily welcome you, assembling to-day in the sixty-first Annual Convention of the Diocese, to your Cathedral church. This church has been from the time of its erection so far a Cathedral church, that in it the Bishop has had exclusive control of the services. It has been from the outset the Bishop's church, and a free church, and hence it has all along been designated and known as the Cathedral. But up to this year the legal title to the property has been vested in the corporation of S. Luke's parish. The parish would long ago have divested itself of this title in favour of a special Diocesan corporation; but, first, there was a heavy debt upon the property which the Diocese could not well assume; and then, when by the blessing of God upon our own efforts and the generous aid of brethren in other Dioceses the debt had been lifted, it was necessary to obtain an enabling act, with a charter for the new corporation, from the legislature; and, finally, further action was requisite on the part both of the Convention and the parish to complete the transfer; so that it is only within the past year that the purpose steadfastly maintained through these thirteen years could be fully realized. To-day I have the satisfaction, as the chief officer of the Cathedral corporation, of laying before you the duly executed legal conveyance of this church, with its appurtenances, to that corporation, and of congratulating you upon the valuable acquisition. The immediate advantages obtained herein are, first, the securing of the property, in which are represented large offerings for the benefit of the Diocese, against the possibly unfortunate results of fluctuations and mutations, even though there should be no distractions or mismanagement in the parish; and, secondly, the securing to the Bishop of the Diocese through all succeeding generations an official seat, a spiritual home, and the blessed privilege of exercising freely, at all times, and under the most favourable conditions, his functions as Preacher and Priest. In now having these latter advantages to offer, the Diocese, whenever it may again be called to choose a Bishop, will, I believe, find itself in a much more favourable position to command the services of any man worthy of becoming its pastoral head.

What other and larger purpose the Cathedral shall subserve in the future must be determined chiefly by the regard in which it is held by yourselves. I would fain believe that, being now your own, and the most conspicuously representative church of the Diocese, you will delight to enhance both its beauty and utility for the honour of Almighty God and the benefit of your fellowmen. Much still remains to be done in order to its completeness merely as a church, and much more if it is to fairly represent what ought to be undertaken by us for Him and His cause who loved us and gave Himself for us. Our parishes are still but few, and the great number of them feeble, and there are not many men of wealth among us. Therefore various excellent works which might be successfully initiated and prosecuted by single parishes, or even individuals, in some Dioceses, cannot be so entered upon and maintained here. But what cannot be accomplished by one may be accomplished by the united efforts of all, and what cannot be done in one year may be done in the course of several years. These considerations suggest duties and responsibilities not hitherto sufficiently recognized by all of us. They have indeed led us, in time past, to the organization of a Diocesan Missionary Society, and the founding of a single Diocesan school; but can it be said that even these important agencies have been sustained according to the measure of our ability, and made as useful as we might have made them by general and hearty coöperation? And is it not fairly within our power to at least lay the foundation of other institutions, educational or eleemosynary, which shall worthily testify to our zeal in all good works, and that we represent as truly in spirit as in organization the Church of which our Lord Jesus Christ is the chief corner-stone?

It seems to me, my brethren, that if we could but free ourselves more completely from the notions and influences of a prevalent congregationalism, and could realize more fully that we as a Diocese are a single organism, having one Episcopal head, professing one faith, subject to one discipline, and not a mere aggregation of independent Churches, each framing its own creed, making its own laws, and judging its own members, we would then recognize more clearly the fact that the final purpose of this organism is the accomplishment of a work which might otherwise be impracticable, and that our very membership in it involves duties and responsibilities beyond those originating in our mere parochial relations, or in the pledges given by the members of a voluntary association. What that branch of the Catholic Church to which we belong can do, in Maine, for the glory of God and the benefit of men, through its distinctive organization and methods, every member of that organization fulfilling to the uttermost his proper functions, and not merely what we can do as isolated individuals, or separate parishes, is the measure of our responsibility. Can we fairly claim to have fulfilled our responsibility according to this ideal of its extent? Or have we, at the best, done more than lay some good foundations?

I have presented these suggestions in connection with remarks respecting the Cathedral because, other things being equal, it would be thought desirable, I suppose, that such institutions as I have referred to should be located where they could have the immediate supervision of the Bishop, and be most conveniently served. The Diocese has now a center, and its Bishop a permanent seat. Here, therefore, the Church should be found in the fulness of her beneficent activity, and here such activity can be maintained with the best economy of force and the greatest fruitfulness of results. I proceed to the narration of my official acts during the past year.

Immediately after our last Convention I made a hasty visitation to some of our missions which had not been visited during the summer. On the 19th of September I officiated in S. Thomas Church, Winn, which was still without the services of a missionary; said Evening Prayer and preached. On Sunday morning, Sept. 21st, I confirmed three candidates, preached, and celebrated Holy Communion at Richmond, New Brunswick, and in the evening preached to a large congregation in Houlton, after Evening Prayer said by Rev. H. H. Neales, of Richmond. On Tuesday evening, Sept. 23d, I preached, and baptized and confirmed one person in Emmanuel Church, Ashland, Evening Prayer being said by the missionary, Rev. Henry Jones. On the following day, in the same place, I confirmed a sick person at her own residence.

Passing through Caribou on the 25th, I made several calls there on persons interested in the Church, and proceeded to Van Buren with the expectation of holding a service in the evening ; but the people who had assembled at an earlier hour, under a misapprehension as to the appointment, were dispersed and could not again be brought together. At Fort Fairfield, on Sunday, the 28th, I preached, baptized a child, and celebrated the Holy Communion. On the same day I preached in Caribou and Presque Isle, being assisted in the services by Rev. Messrs. Sawyer and Jones. Mr. Sawyer had at this time but just arrived to take charge of these missions, and consequently could present no candidates for confirmation. On my home journey I preached, Sept. 30th, in the Parish Church at Woodstock, N. B., at the request of the rector, and subsequently passed a few hours at S. Catharine's Hall, Augusta.

On the evening of the 9th of October I had the pleasure of attending the annual meeting of the Guild of S. Paul's Church, Brunswick, and was much gratified by the deep interest manifested by its members in the work of the parish. On the following evening, at Newcastle, I said Evening Prayer, preached, and confirmed four persons. The candidates had been duly prepared by the Rev. Mr. Pyne, but, being temporarily disabled, he could not come from Wiscasset to present them. On the morning of the next day

I celebrated the Holy Communion in the same place and admitted thereto those previously confirmed. On the 13th I licensed a lay reader in this Diocese for the Conventional year, Mr. William R. Hatch, a candidate for Holy Orders in the Diocese of Missouri, temporarily residing at West Waterville.

During the remainder of this month I was absent from the Diocese, but engaged in furthering its interests. On Sunday, the 26th, I preached in Trinity Chapel, New York, and at the Woman's Hospital. On the 30th I preached at the consecration of S. Chrysostom's Chapel, New York, and on Sunday, Nov. 2d, in Christ Church, Riverdale.

The later autumn and the winter months were devoted chiefly, as usual, to my duties in the Cathedral, several hours of each day, however, being given to correspondence respecting Diocesan affairs. My Episcopal acts during this period were as follows :

Nov. 15th. Accepted the letters dimissory of the Rev. Daniel Flack, appointed missionary at Hallowell, from the Diocese of New Jersey.

Dec. 3d. Accepted letters dimissory of the Rev. Charles James Palmer from the Diocese of New York, he having been called to the temporary charge of S. John's, Bangor.

Dec. 9th and 10th. Presided at a meeting of our Diocesan Board of Missions.

Dec. 18th. Gave my consent to the consecration of the Rev. Thomas Alfred Starkey, D.D., as Bishop of Northern New Jersey.

Dec. 22d. Gave my consent to the consecration of the Rev. John N. Galleher, D.D., as Bishop of Louisiana.

Dec. 30th. Admitted Henry Babb Carleton as a candidate for Priest's Orders.

Feb. 13, 1880. Transferred the Rev. Arthur Herbert Locke, Priest, to the Diocese of Albany.

Feb. 24th. At a special service at Mer Point, in the parish of S. Paul's, Brunswick, I preached to a large congregation and confirmed an invalid presented by Rev. Mr. Nichols.

On the 29th of this month, the third Sunday in Lent, I visited S. Saviour's Church, Bar Harbour, preached twice, confirmed eleven candidates, celebrated the Holy Communion, and catechised the children of the Sunday-school. The work in this new mission, under the charge of the Rev. Mr. Leffingwell, has thus far been very much blessed, and its results, considering the conditions, much beyond what could have reasonably been expected.

On the fifth Sunday in Lent, March 14th, I preached twice, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed six candidates in S. John's Church, Bangor, the candidates being presented by the Rev. C. J. Palmer, minister in charge. The rectorship of this important parish is still vacant, but, I trust, will now soon be filled, and I cannot but believe that the parish will then speedily recover from its great depression.

On the 19th of March I pronounced sentence of deposition from the Holy Ministry upon Charles Edwin Fitz, Deacon, he having declared his renunciation of the same and his intention not to serve henceforth in any of the offices thereof.

On Easter Day, March 28th, I confirmed sixteen candidates in the Cathedral, preaching, also, twice, and celebrating the Holy Communion.

On the first Sunday after Easter, April 4th, I preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed six candidates in S. Mark's, Augusta, preached in S. Matthew's, Hallowell, in the afternoon, and in Christ Church, Gardiner, in the evening, where I also confirmed four candidates. I was much gratified by the increased heartiness of the worship in Christ Church, especially in the musical portions of the service, and by various tokens of a renewed parochial activity.

In Grace Church, Bath, on the second Sunday after Easter, I preached twice and celebrated the Holy Communion. The Rev. Mr. Gregson, having been called to another field of labour, is about to retire from the rectorship of this parish, after six years of faithful service in it. His many friends in the parish and Diocese will regret his departure, and will heartily wish him prosperity and happiness in his future work.

On the 15th of this month, April, I accepted the letters dimissory of the Rev. Andrew Merkel, Priest, from the Diocese of Nova Scotia. On the 28th, at Evening Prayer in S. Mark's, Waterville, I preached and confirmed four candidates.

On Ascension Day, May 6th, in the Cathedral, I ordained to the Priesthood Rev. Henry Jones, Deacon. The sermon on this occasion was preached by the Rev. Edwin F. Small, and the candidate presented by the Rev. Charles J. Ketchum, and the same Priests united in the imposition of hands.

On the 10th of May I accepted the resignation of the Rev. Charles Wells Hayes as my Chaplain and Canon of the Cathedral, and a few days later gave him letters of transfer to the Diocese of Western New York. It would hardly become me to express in this place my sense of personal loss in the departure of Mr. Hayes from my side, but I shall but give voice to the feeling of all the members of this Convention when I say that the Diocese could hardly have experienced a greater loss than that involved in being deprived of his various, able, and long-continued services.

On Wednesday evening, May 12th, I preached and confirmed one candidate in S. Paul's, Brunswick.

On Whitsunday, May 16th, I confirmed a class of sixteen candidates in S. Paul's Church, Portland.

On Tuesday in Whitsun week, at Evening Prayer in Trinity Church, Lewiston, I preached and confirmed twelve candidates.

On Wednesday, May 19th, I received the Rev. Charles Morton Sills from the Diocese of Nova Scotia, and appointed him resident Canon of the Cathedral.

On Trinity Sunday I preached twice and celebrated the Holy Communion in the Church of the Messiah, Boston.

On the 10th of June I confirmed an invalid at her own residence in S. Paul's parish, Portland.

On Sunday, June 20th, I visited Trinity Church, Saco, and Christ Church, Biddeford. In the former preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed ten candidates, and in the latter preached and confirmed seven, the candidates in both places being presented by the rector, the Rev. Canon Alger.

The announcement, soon after this visitation, of the resignation by Mr. Alger of his pastoral charge, and proposed removal from the Diocese, occasioned me much sorrow. It was with great reluctance that the people, whom he has served so long and faithfully, consented to accept his resignation, even while they could not but admit the force of the reasons which had finally constrained him to proffer it; and my own reluctance to part from him was no less great. Not only has Canon Alger been one of the most faithful and efficient of pastors, but in his Diocesan relations his services have been equally valuable. Our loss will therefore be great in his removal from the Diocese, but believing that he will make the change only to fulfill paramount obligations, we cannot refuse to him in his departure the benediction of peace.

On Wednesday, June 23d, I presided at the anniversary exercises of S. Catharine's Hall, and at the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees of the same, in Augusta.

On the 26th of June I admitted Mr. Lionel Watson, of Dexter, as a candidate for Deacon's Orders.

On the fifth Sunday after Trinity, June 27th, in the Cathedral, I ordained to the Diaconate Addison Monroe Sherman, George Franklin Pratt, George Arthur Holbrook, candidates for Holy Orders during the past three years in the Diocese. The sermon on this occasion was preached, and the candidates presented, by the Rev. H. P. Nichols, Rector of S. Paul's, Brunswick. Mr. Sherman was subsequently transferred to the Diocese of New York, and Mr. Holbrook to the Diocese of Pittsburgh.

On S. Peter's Day, June 29th, I preached, baptized three children, and confirmed one person in S. James Church, Oldtown, and celebrated Evening Prayer, with sermon, in S. Peter's, Milford.

On the next day, at Evening Prayer, in S. Thomas' Church, Winn, I preached, and confirmed two candidates presented by the minister in temporary charge, Rev. F. Pember.

At Exeter, July 1st, I confirmed an invalid at her own residence and admitted her to the Holy Communion, and preached in the church, at Evening Prayer, the services being said by the missionary, Rev. Mr. Marsden. On the evening of July 2d I preached in the Church of the Messiah, Dexter, Rev. Mr. Marsden assisting in the service.

On the sixth Sunday after Trinity, July 4th, I visited S. Stephen's Church, Portland, preached, and confirmed four candidates presented by the Rector, Rev. A. Dalton.

On the 7th and 8th of July I presided at sessions of our Board of Missions in S. Saviour's Church, Bar Harbour. The clergy and delegates present at this meeting were very hospitably received and entertained, and a substantial offering was made at the services for our missionary work.

At Rockport, July 9th, I preached in the evening, Evening Prayer being said by Rev. Mr. Merkel.

On Sunday, July 11th, I preached and celebrated the Holy Communion in S. Thomas' Church, Camden, preached in S. Peter's, Rockland, and preached and confirmed one candidate in S. John Baptist Church, Thomaston.

On the 13th I visited Christ Church, Eastport, preached at Evening Service, and confirmed five candidates presented by the Rector, Rev. M. H. Wellman.

On the 14th I fulfilled my appointment for S. Ann's, Calais, preached, and confirmed a class of twelve candidates. Evening Prayer was said by the Rev. Mr. Wellman and the Rev. Mr. Groton of the Diocese of Fredericton, and the candidates were presented by the missionary in charge, Rev. Mr. McLaughlin.

From this point I proceeded to a second visitation of the missions in Aroostook County, the former one having been made when several of those missions had been for some time without pastoral oversight. In Houlton, where our footing is still only nominal, there being no church building and no regular services, I preached on the 15th and received an offering for Diocesan objects. The Rev. Mr. Neales, of Richmond, N. B., had very kindly made arrangements for the service and assisted me therein.

On Sunday, the 18th, in S. Paul's, Fort Fairfield, three candidates for confirmation were presented by the missionary, Rev. Mr. Sawyer, and five at S. John's, Presque Isle, in the evening. I also visited and preached at Caribou on the same day.

On Monday I visited the Mission of the Advent in Limestone, preached to a large congregation in the school-house, and confirmed two candidates presented by Mr. Sawyer. Efforts are now making to build a simple church in this place, where there is no house of worship, and to provide for regular Sunday services.

On the following day I confirmed, in the morning, a sick person in Limestone, and, proceeding to Van Buren, held an evening service there in the pretty little church. Rev. Mr. Sawyer and Rev. Mr. McLaughlin accompanied me and assisted in the service, the one in the chancel and the other at the organ. I trust that arrangements may soon be made to place the mission here with that at Limestone under the charge of an additional missionary, so that both may be regularly and efficiently served.

I officiated at Ashland and Masardis on Sunday, the 25th, and again, after a detour in the woods, at the former place on Sunday, Aug. 1st. On both occasions I preached and celebrated the Holy Communion, and on the latter confirmed one candidate, making three in this mission for the year. It gave both myself and the people much pleasure to see once more the face and hear the voice of the Rev.

Canon Washburn, the first missionary in Aroostook, in this, the first church built by his indefatigable efforts.

Returning to Ashland now, we would find the new parsonage (for which the materials were already on the ground, shaped and fashioned, at the time of our visit) enclosed, and, as I trust, nearly ready for occupancy. Mr. Jones and his wife are to be heartily congratulated on this substantial accession to their comfort, and many thanks are due to the kind friends who have contributed to procure it for them.

Returning from Aroostook, I visited Wiscasset and Newcastle on Sunday, Aug. 8th. In the former place preached and catechised the children of the Sunday-school, and in the latter preached to a large and deeply interested congregation. No candidates for confirmation were presented at that time, but a number now await the visitation to be made within a few days.

On Monday evening, Aug. 9th, at a special service in S. John Baptist Church, Thomaston, I preached and confirmed one candidate. And here I had the advantage of a lesson upon the construction of an organ, illustrated by the neat and substantial handiwork of the missionary and an intelligent co-labourer, who had actually made good progress upon a new pipe organ for the church. They can and will make, they say, "a first-rate organ, all but the pipes; the only serious question is, who will furnish the pipes?" I commend it, my brethren, to your benevolent consideration.

The statistical record of my official acts for the year is now, I believe, complete. It might have been made more interesting, no doubt, by a more detailed description of services performed, but such a description has been already given in many cases in the columns of the NORTH EAST, and therefore seems less necessary here. Some words ought to be spoken, however, with regard to the general condition of our work. Its aspect is not materially changed from that of former years. Changes are, of course, constantly occurring in the elements and circumstances of particular parishes whereby they are strengthened or weakened; but such changes have not been more marked, except in two or three instances, in the last year than in former years. S. John's, Bangor, has suffered notably from the long vacancy in the rectorship, supervening upon the financial reverses of the community; but I hope that it is now about to enter upon brighter days. The town of Wiscasset has been and still is in a sad condition, financially; both the numbers and the pecuniary ability of the parish are materially lessened; but the rector and the few people left to him have brave hearts, and by the liberal aid given by friends specially interested in the mission at Newcastle, which is under the same pastoral charge, they will, I trust, be helped through the present crisis.

In Dexter, where the material condition of the community and especially of our own parish is chiefly dependent upon the activity and prosperity of the mills, very little work has been done in the mills for the past two years, and the parish has been much depressed; but the mills having now been transferred to the hands of a strong corporation, it is expected that they will again afford employment to a large number of operatives, in which case the Church congregation and the ability of the parish will increase.

In general the people of the state are now in better circumstances than they have been for several previous years, and in this prosperity we share. If, therefore, we are duly thankful for the blessing of God upon the labours of our hands, and if we recognize our responsibility to Him, our offerings for religious objects will be proportionally enlarged. It is especially incumbent upon the several Missions of the Diocese that they should strenuously endeavor to become less dependent upon external aid, making their own offerings as nearly as possible equivalent to the sum required for the support of their own Minister. Every Mission should yearly make some advance in this direction, unless under peculiarly adverse circumstances. The stipends received from the Missionary Boards, whether General or Diocesan, must not be regarded as permanent endowments, for such they are not. They are not the proceeds of invested funds, but represent simply the aid given year by year by loving brethren to those supposed to need such aid, and it is a shame to seek it, or even to accept it, to any extent beyond what is absolutely requisite.

Earnest efforts should now be made by the several parishes to free themselves from any existing indebtedness, or, if not in debt, to provide themselves with whatever may be needful for the more efficient prosecution of local work. I hope to see the handsome church at Lewiston, as well as that at Biddeford, completed and ready for consecration within the coming year.

The number of confirmations during the past year has been comparatively small (140). In some of the missions no candidates have been presented, and in some of the oldest and most important parishes but few. No hasty conclusions should be drawn from such a fact, considering to how many different causes it might be attributable at different times, and that when we come to this item of our statistics, we have entered a sphere where the operation of the Holy Spirit should be specially recognized and acknowledged. But let us be careful, my brethren, not to ascribe to any special Providential causes what may be but the sad results of our own unfaithfulness or slothfulness. And in this matter of the preparation and presentation of candidates for Confirmation the laity, in their capacity as parents, sponsors, and teachers, share largely in the responsibility of the clergy. The natural relation of parents to their children, and the relation assumed by sponsors at the font, involves them in this responsibility, and upon them it is expressly re-imposed by the Church. To them the admonition is given, "Ye are to take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him." And without their faithful and prayerful coöperation the efforts of the pastor, who has fewer and less advantageous opportunities, must be comparatively unavailing. On the other hand if, to the diligent compliance with the instructions of the Baptismal Office, parents and sponsors add the force of a consistent Christian example, as the Church assumes they will do, it will be but rarely that the baptized child, having learned what his god-fathers and god-mothers promised for him in baptism, and "being now come of age to take that vow upon himself," will not be found ready, by the blessing of God attending such diligent endeavours, and the constraining influence of such an example, to ratify and confirm, in his own name, the obligations assumed for him in the Christian covenant. Is it not but too true, in many cases, that the children of the Church are not "called upon to hear sermons," and are not instructed in the principles of Christian doctrine and duty by those upon whom that duty has been specifically imposed, and from whose lips such teaching would be most effective, but are merely "sent to the Sunday-school?" Is it not too often the case that the effect upon the lambs of the flock of the most assiduous pastoral instruction and care has been already nullified, at the time when they should have been ready for Confirmation, by observed indifference or negligence with respect to the plainest Christian duties in those who are nearest and dearest to them?

And, finally, is not the influence of a theory of the rise and progress of the Christian life derived from other sources still so potent and prevailing upon the minds of many of us, that we refuse to be guided by the judgment and utterances of the Church on the question of the requisite spiritual qualifications for the due and profitable reception of Confirmation, and do not shrink from overruling her authoritative and encouraging counsels to our children? Here, then, are causes more seriously injurious, as I believe, to the internal growth and vigour of the Church, and to the most precious interests of our children, than is any unfaithfulness or neglect which may be fairly imputed to the clergy. Increase in grace and holiness is doubtless far more desirable than a mere increase of numbers; but I am not urging any measures for the mere increase of numbers. I would but point out certain unnecessary and unworthy hindrances to a proper growth, and insist on a due and full use of those means of grace and helps to holiness which God has provided in His Church. And I am persuaded that until we more clearly recognize these and govern ourselves accordingly, our hope of a more steady and creditable progress, whether in numbers or spiritual development, will be disappointed.

It is gratifying to be able to report that the condition and prospects of our Diocesan school, S. Catharine's Hall, are much improved. Its income for the past year was sufficient to cover not only the current expenses, but the interest on the debt, and there is promise of a still larger number of pupils for the year just now entered upon. The principal of the debt has also been somewhat further reduced, and additions made to the furniture of the house. The excellence of the instruction and management of the school is beginning to be more widely recognized, and with such recognition and the return of more prosperous times its patronage will surely increase. An effort is now making, under the auspices of the "Maine Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary," to endow at least one scholarship in S. Catharine's, as an aid both to our missionary and educational work. I most heartily commend this effort to your sympathy and generous assistance.

The work accomplished by this Auxiliary Association during the past year has been considerable and valuable, and interest in its future operations must have been much stimulated, I think, at the Annual Meeting lately held in Gardiner. I would suggest that the secretary's report might very properly be printed in the Journal of the Convention, in connection with the report of the secretary of our Missionary Society.

As the time approaches for the reassembling of the General Convention, we cannot but more fully realize how great a loss the Church has suffered since the last Convention in the death of three of its most eminent Bishops, Wilmer of Louisiana, Odenheimer, and Whittingham. If the cause in which we are engaged were solely dependent for its sustentation and progress upon the talents, the learning, and the prudence of the men devoted to its promotion, we might well feel that such a loss can scarcely be endured. But the cause is one to which Almighty aid is pledged, and the Church is no mere human organization. While, therefore, we cannot forbear to mourn the removal of those who seem to be pillars, it would ill become us to forebode the fall of the structure, or even to conceive of it as temporarily weakened by such an occurrence. Let us thank God for the good which, by His blessing, such men have wrought in their day and generation, and let us emulate their worthy deeds and seek to follow their good examples; but let us not for a moment imagine that He who has rewarded their faithful labours by receiving them into that "rest which remaineth for the people of God," cannot and will not provide all needful agencies for the guidance and support of the still militant Church. The House of Bishops does not even permit the announcement, at its sessions, of the death of any of its members, nor make any record thereof.

Important questions will be discussed at the approaching Convention and important measures proposed. But I will not more explicitly refer to them now, for the reason that I am not prepared to declare any judgment upon them, nor would I ask you to do so in advance of the deliberations of that assembly.

May the blessing of God be upon us all as we now proceed to the work lying immediately before us.

APPENDIX II.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

A. Report of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee respectfully report that they have given their consent to the consecration of the Rev. Thomas A. Starkey, D.D., as Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey, and the Rev. J. N. Galleher, D.D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Louisiana.

They have also signed the testimonials required by canon in behalf of the Rev. Henry Jones, Deacon, for admission to Priest's Orders, and of Messrs. George Arthur Holbrook, Addison Monroe Sherman, and George Franklin Pratt, for admission to Deacon's Orders, and also of Messrs. Henry Babb Carleton, Lionel Watson, and John Howard Veazey, for admission as candidates for Holy Orders.

They also report that, in accordance with the instructions of the last Diocesan Convention, they have made an apportionment to secure the payment of the Bishop's salary, as directed by the Resolutions to be found on page 19 of the Journal of 1879.

All which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. E. B. JACKSON, Secretary.

PORTLAND, Sept. 21, 1880.

B. Report of the Registrar.

The Registrar respectfully reports that since his appointment to the office, besides twenty-five Diocesan Journals, and several other pamphlets of secular and religious interest, there have been added to the Cathedral Library, by gift from Mrs. Joseph Burland, thirteen bound volumes of the Spirit of Missions and eight volumes of the Christian Witness and Advocate.

C. MORTON SILLS, Registrar.

C. Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall.

The Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall respectfully report that they have held one meeting since the last Convention. The improved financial condition of the school, as well as the substantial increase of patronage, happily relieves the Trustees from any present anxiety and gives token of gratifying success in store for the institution. In addition to the reduction of $4,500 on the mortgage held by the Augusta Savings Bank, made last year, and the refunding of the remaining $5,000 at a lower rate of interest, they also report the canceling of another debt of $1,300, and one of $300 on the loan from the Episcopate Fund.

The present indebtedness of S. Catharine's Hall now amounts in all to the sum of $8,400, $6,300 of which is at 6 per cent and the remainder at 7 per cent. It is the purpose of the Trustees to reduce this amount as rapidly as practicable. The number of pupils for the coming year is twenty-one boarders and fifteen day pupils. The Trustees ask that the excellent advantages now offered by the school, under its present efficient principal and competent corps of assistant teachers, may find a ready appreciation from the Church people of Maine, both in direct patronage and in the way of earnest co-operation and sympathy.

PORTLAND, Sept. 1, 1880.

H. Contributions to Deficiency in Bishop's Salary.

At a meeting of the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Maine, holden Dec. 29, 1879, the following action was had upon matters referred to them by the Annual Diocesan Convention of 1879 :

The Committee then considered the matter of apportionment of a portion of the salary of the Bishop upon the parishes of the Diocese, as committed to them by vote of the last Diocesan Convention.

Voted, That in the opinion of the Standing Committee, the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars will be the deficiency for the current Diocesan year, in the income of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, to make up the salary of the Bishop to the sum of thirteen hundred dollars a year, exclusive of his house.

Voted, That in accordance with the vote of the Diocesan Convention (Journal, page 19), the several parishes and missions be notified of this action of the Standing Committee, and requested to contribute the equitable sum thus apportioned to each to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.

AT ITS ANNUAL MEETING, SEPT. 21, 1880.

CATHEDRAL CHURCH, PORTLAND, }
Tuesday, Sept. 21, 1880. }

The Annual Meeting of the Society was held at 4 o'clock this day, in accordance with the By-Laws adopted by the Society in 1875.

Present, the Right Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese in the Chair, and all the Clerical and Lay members of the Society who were in attendance upon the Convention.

The Secretary presented his

ANNUAL REPORT.

In accordance with the resolution adopted by the Board of Missions at the last Annual Meeting, there have been the past year but three meetings of the Board, this Annual Meeting making the four sessions decided upon.

The Advent Meeting was held at Bangor, attended by eight Clerical and three Lay delegates.

The Easter Meeting was held at Augusta, attended by ten Clerical and five Lay delegates.

The Trinity Meeting was held at Bar Harbor, with an attendance of seven Clerical and four Lay delegates.

At each of these meetings, beside the regular business sessions, there were held public services, at which sermons were delivered, essays read, and addresses by the Bishop and the Clergy.

The work of the Society for the year has been faithfully conducted by the labourers in the field, most ably sustained, in some instances, by earnest lay help and woman's kindly sympathy.

There have been discouragements by removals, and losses by death and by business depressions, but upon a careful review of the twelve months, we feel that much can be found to cheer and encourage the parishes in freely giving to the treasury of the Board, and that not one of the missionaries has a less hopeful trust in the good results of faithful toil in the service of the Master.

C. S. LEFFINGWELL, Secretary.

The Treasurer presented his Annual Report, which was read and referred to the Committee of the Convention on Finance.

On nomination the Rev. Messrs. Charles Morton Sills, Andrew Merkel, Daniel Flack, and George F. Pratt were elected members of the Society.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 22d.

The Society re-assembled at 11 o'clock, the Bishop in the Chair.

The following resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted :

REMARKS.

TRINITY CHURCH, LEWISTON.

The Rev. William Washburn.

Work on the new church has been slowly progressing during the year until June, when we were obliged to stop for want of funds. The exterior of the building is completed and makes a fine appearance. We shall make earnest efforts this fall and winter to raise funds, so that we can finish and occupy it next summer.

S. MARK'S CHURCH, AUGUSTA.

The Rev. Samuel Upjohn.

During the past year a bequest of $3,000, made to S. Mark's Home by the late Mrs. James W. Bradbury, has been enlarged to the amount of $7,000 through the liberal contributions of a number of friends, and is now held in trust by the city of Augusta for the benefit of the Home. At the National Soldiers' Home, Togus, five miles from Augusta, I have, as heretofore, held regular services once every Sunday, and from October to May every Friday evening. I have baptized at the Home one child, officiated at twenty-two funerals, celebrated the Holy Communion four times in public and three times in private. A Sunday-school of twenty-five pupils has been organized and conducted for the past year. Grateful mention is made here of untiring service rendered by Mrs. General Tilton and others in the Sunday-school. Not included in the financial statement, $7.50 has been donated to S. Catharine's Hall from members of the parish.

S. PETER'S CHURCH, ROCKLAND.

The Rev. William Walker.

Visits have been made by the Missionary to Vinalhaven, Clark's Island, Goshen, and Union. Services have been held at Clark's Island and at Goshen, at the former place one and at the latter three. One baptism at Vinalhaven and two at Clark's Island, which are reported within.

S. JOHN BAPTIST CHURCH, THOMASTON.

The Rev. William Walker.

This church has been painted this spring two coats, which is paid for; the organ is in process of erection.

BRUNSWICK, Sept. 21, 1880.

George T. Packard, Priest.

I would respectfully report that my continued ill health has deprived me of the privilege of any regular service as a clergyman during the Convention year. I have said Morning and Evening Prayer and preached three times, and have celebrated the Holy Communion twice; I have also solemnized three marriages.

CAMBRIDGEPORT, Sept. 1, 1880.

C. J. Palmer.

I beg leave to report that since leaving Bangor last April I have been occupied in this vicinity in assisting other clergymen, and occasionally in supplying vacant parishes.

APPENDIX V.

A.

CONSTITUTION OF THE DIOCESE OF MAINE, AS ADOPTED AT THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF 1878.

ARTICLE I.

§ 1. The Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Maine, shall be held on the first Tuesday in September, at the Cathedral Church, Portland, unless some other time or place be appointed by the previous Convention, or by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

§ 2. A Special Convention may be called by the Ecclesiastical Authority at any time, and shall be called when requested by the Standing Committee.

§ 3. Fourteen days' notice of every Special Convention, and of every alteration of the time and place of the Annual Convention, must be given to all the Clergy, Parishes, and Missions of the Diocese.

ARTICLE II.

§ 1. All Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, canonically and actually resident in this Diocese for one month next preceding any Annual or Special Convention, shall be entitled to seats in the same.

§ 2. The Parishioners at their Annual Meeting, or the Vestry of each Parish, at any meeting duly convened, may elect not more than five Lay Deputies, male persons of full age, and Communicants in the Parish, or where the election of Communicants is impracticable, stated worshippers therein, to represent said Parish in the Convention.

§ 3. The evidence of the election of a Lay Deputy shall be a Certificate signed by the Rector, Warden, or Clerk of the Vestry.

§ 4. The Wardens of all Organized Missions in the Diocese, and the Treasurers of the Diocese, of the Episcopate Fund, and of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, shall be entitled ex-officio to seats in the Convention.

§ 5. No Lay Deputy shall be entitled to a seat in any Convention other than that for which he was elected.

ARTICLE III.

§ 1. The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex-officio President of the Convention. In his absence, the Assistant Bishop, or if there be none, or he be absent, a Priest chosen by the Convention shall preside. The Presiding Officer shall have the right of speaking and voting on all questions.

§ 2. A Quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of one-fourth of the Clergy entitled to seats, and Lay Deputies from one-fourth of the Parishes; Provided, that a smaller number shall have power to adjourn from time to time; and that in the election of a Bishop, a majority of the Clergy entitled to vote in said election, and Lay Deputies from a majority of the Parishes, shall be present.

§ 3. The Clergy and Lay Deputies shall deliberate and vote in one body; Provided, that on the demand of any two members, they shall vote in two distinct Orders; and when so voting, each Parish or Mission represented in the Convention shall have one vote only, and the concurrence of the two Orders shall be necessary to enact any measure.

ARTICLE IV.

§ 1. There shall be elected at each Annual Convention,

(1) A Secretary of the Diocese :

(2) A Treasurer of the Diocese :

(3) A Standing Committee, consisting of three Priests and three Lay Communicants of the Diocese :

All of whom shall continue in office until the next Convention, and until their successors are chosen. Vacancies in the offices of Secretary and Treasurer shall be filled by appointment of the Ecclesiastical Authority, and in the Standing Committee, by themselves.

§ 2. A Registrar of the Diocese shall be appointed by the Bishop. His duty shall be to collect and preserve the Records and Journals of the Convention, and other documents pertaining to the history of the Church, and to report the condition of the same to each Annual Convention.

§ 3. Deputies to the General Convention shall be elected once in three years, at the Annual Convention of the Diocese next preceding each Triennial General Convention ; and at the same time an equal number of Supplemental Deputies shall be elected, from which vacancies in the office of Deputy shall be filled by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

§ 4. All elections shall be by ballot, unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent.

ARTICLE V.

§ 1. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate of this Diocese, the Standing Committee shall call a Special Convention for the election of a Bishop, to be held within not less than one nor more than three months after the occurrence of said vacancy.

§ 2. The election of a Bishop shall be by concurrence of both Orders, voting separately by ballot, each Parish represented having one vote. A majority of each Order shall be necessary to a choice.

§ 3. The Clergy shall vote first, and their choice shall be communicated to the Laity. The Laity shall then vote, and their choice shall be communicated to the Clergy. If both Orders have chosen the same person, he shall be declared elected ; but if they have chosen different persons, they shall vote again in the order and manner before prescribed.

ARTICLE VI.

§ 1. The application of a Parish for admission into union with this Diocese shall be accompanied with (1) evidence of the complete organization of the Parish under the Laws of the State of Maine for the Incorporation of Parishes of the Protestant Episcopal Church ; (2) a vote of the Parish requesting such admission ; and (3) a promise of obedience to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.

§ 2. Such union may be declared forfeited at any Annual Convention, on proof of refusal or neglect, for two successive years, to comply with the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese, or with the Acts and Resolves of the Convention in conformity thereto.

ARTICLE VII.

This Constitution may be altered or amended at any Annual Convention, if the proposition for such alteration or amendment, which must be in writing, shall have been approved by a vote of the Annual Convention next preceding.

CANONS IN FORCE, 1880.

[See Journals of 1875, pp. 11, 19, and 1877, p. 13.]

CANON I.

Of Missionary Organization.

§ I. The Missionary operations of the Church in this Diocese shall be conducted in accordance with the Act of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.

§ II. 1. Missionary Stations are under the control of the Bishop and the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

2. Missionaries are appointed by the Board of Missions, on the nomination of the Bishop; and in the fields assigned them are the agents and representatives of the authorities of the Diocese.

3. The entire salaries of the Missionaries are to be paid by the Board of Missions, but the people to whom they are sent must be stated contributors to the Treasury of the Board, to the amount of a minimum which shall be agreed upon, from year to year, between them and the Board.

4. The Weekly Offertory is to be established at the commencement of the Mission; not only as the easiest way of raising money, and of dividing the expenses equitably among the people, but also that the duty and habit of Christian giving shall be practically inculcated.

5. The title of real estate given to or purchased by the Mission for Church purposes, shall be vested in the Trustees of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, to be held by them until such time as the Mission shall become a duly organized Parish, or longer if the parishioners shall so elect.

6. The change from the "Mission" to the "Parish" may be made when, first, there shall be a sufficient number of male persons of good standing to act as Wardens and Vestrymen; and when, secondly, the station is provided with a church, and is able to support a Rector without Missionary aid.

7. Missions duly organized shall report to the Annual Convention through their Missionaries, or if there be none in charge, through their Clerk, or if there be no Clerk, through the Treasurer. And in these reports, in their own records, in all Diocesan statistics and accounts, in their names, in their obedience to the Canons of the Church, and the action of the Diocesan Convention, they shall be held and treated as Parishes, with the obvious exceptions resulting from their having no corporate character.

8. The failure of the people of the Mission to fulfill their stipulation, may warrant the Bishop in withdrawing his Missionary, and with the consent of the Convention, dissolving the organization.

§ III. 1. Persons desirous of the services of the Church in their town, village, or neighbourhood, shall make application to the Bishop in the following form:

To the Right Rev. the Bishop of Maine.

We, the undersigned, residents of the town of ———, county of ———, Diocese of Maine, being desirous of obtaining the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, do hereby request you to provide them for us as you think fit. For which benefits we do hereby agree to put ourselves under your charge; promising conformity to the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of said Church, to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Maine, and to the rules regulating Missionary Stations in this Diocese. And in accordance with those rules, we are now desirous to be organized as a Mission, under the name of ——— Mission, ———. Furthermore, we hereby agree to pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions of the Diocese, in four equal quarterly instalments, the sum of ———, at least, for the first year.

Respectfully,

Your obedient Servants.

This application shall be signed by the adults, not less than six in number, who propose to be members of the Mission.

2. If the Bishop consent to the organization of a Mission, he shall appoint, on consultation with the Missionary, the following officers to serve for the first year, after which they shall be elected annually, in Easter Week, by the people:—a Warden, a Treasurer, and a Clerk; or if it be deemed expedient by the Bishop, a Warden and Treasurer only shall be appointed.

3. It shall be the duty of the Warden to procure a room or house, to be used as a place of public worship; to see that the same be kept clean and in good repair, and that it be provided with all things necessary for conducting the services of the Church decently and in order. He shall also provide the Bread and Wine for the Holy Communion; take charge of the Communion Service, the Linen, Books, etc., belonging to the Mission; and shall endeavour, in the absence of the Missionary at any time, to keep up the regularity of the services.

4. The Warden shall be Deputy ex-officio to the Convention, and shall also be entitled to a seat and vote in the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to collect or receive all moneys contributed by the Mission, and to remit or disburse them in accordance with the rules of the Board of Missions.

6. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, or if no Clerk be appointed or elected, of the Treasurer, to keep a record of events of importance to the Mission, and a list of its families and members; and in case the Missionary be non-resident, to have the custody of the Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, etc., but not to make entries therein, except by the Missionary's request, or in his absence; and to attend to any correspondence required by or for the Mission.

7. The Missionary, in consultation with the officers, shall appoint the Sexton, Organist, Choir-leader, Sunday-school Superintendent, and any other helper he may find necessary; but in his absence, the right of such appointment shall rest with the officers previously named.

§ IV. 1. Every person becoming a member of the Mission, and willing to aid in its support, is expected to name a certain sum per week, which he will pay to the Board of Missions, whether it be large or small, "according as God hath blessed him."

2. At every Sunday service, or at least once when there are two on the same day, there shall be an offertory; and then the contributors shall place the amount due from them in the Alms-basin, in envelopes marked with their names or numbers. The Treasurer receiving and opening these envelopes shall credit the givers with the amounts enclosed, and at the end of each quarter shall collect whatever arrearages may be unpaid.

3. Money contributed outside of the envelopes shall be separately recorded and reported to the Board of Missions, and excepting such amounts as have been collected as Communion Alms, or for Canonical objects, they shall be appropriated: 1. To the contingent expenses of the Mission. 2. To such other objects as the Missionary may deem expedient.

§ V. 1. Every organization of a Mission in accordance with § III., shall be reported by the Bishop to the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

2. The Convention, on receiving such report, shall declare by vote its approval of the organization; and such approval shall entitle the Mission to representation by its Warden, as provided in § III. 4.

CANON II.

Of Lay Deputies.

§ 1. A form of Certificate for Lay Deputies, in conformity with Art. II., § 2, of the Constitution, shall be sent to all the Parishes by the Secretary of the Diocese, one month at least before the meeting of the Annual Convention.

§ II. The Certificates of the election of Lay Deputies shall be sent to the Secretary before the first day of the Annual Convention; and the Secretary shall make a roll of the names of the Lay Deputies whose Certificates are in regular form.

CANON IV.

§ 1. When any Minister of this Church is tried for any of the offences named in the Canons of the General Convention, for which a Minister may be tried and punished, it shall be on presentment made to the Bishop by three Presbyters of this Church, or by the Vestry of the Parish to which the Minister belongs, and approved by at least one Presbyter. In every presentment the charges shall be distinctly specified.

§ II. When any Clergyman has been charged according to this Canon with any offence, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to furnish the accused with a copy of the charges and specifications alleged against him, and require him to make answer thereto before him and his Council, whom he shall convene to hear and judge of such charge or charges; and it shall be his duty to notify the accused person of the time and place of meeting, one month at least previous to the meeting. The aforesaid Council shall consist of at least four Presbyters of the Diocese. If the Bishop and his Council, or a major part of them, after hearing the evidence, shall judge the accused person guilty of either or all of the charges laid against him, the Bishop shall reprove, suspend, or degrade the person so convicted, as he and a major part of his said Council shall think the offence may deserve.

§ III. If the accused shall neglect or refuse to appear, when summoned according to this Canon, and no defence be made by his authority, they shall declare him to be "in contumacy;" and sentence of suspension from the ministry, until he shall appear or render satisfactory answer, shall pass against him for contumacy; and if, after six calendar months from the date of such sentence, he shall not have appeared, nor have rendered such answer, the Bishop may, with the advice and consent of the Clerical members of the Standing Committee, pronounce against him the sentence of degradation from the ministry; or else the sentence of suspension shall still remain in force till he shall appear or render satisfactory answer.

CANON V.

There shall be in every Parish Monthly Offerings for Diocesan Objects. It shall be the duty of the Rector or Minister of each Parish to give notice of these collections, and regularly to remit the amounts contributed for Diocesan Missions to the Treasurer of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, and the other collections to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Diocesan objects are, Diocesan Missions; the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate; Christian Education; and Bible and Prayer Book Distribution.

CANON VII.

It shall be the duty of all Ministers of this Diocese to report to the Bishop the names of such persons as may come to their knowledge, who are attached to our Communion, and who are inhabitants of towns where there is no Episcopal congregation; and it shall be the duty of the several Rectors in this Diocese to give the Bishop early notice of the removal of any of their parishioners to such towns.

THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

To the Secretary of the Convention of the Diocese of Maine :

SIR,—In compliance with the requirements of Article 8 of the Constitution, I would hereby officially make known, through you, to the Convention of the Diocese of Maine, the following proposed changes in the Book of Common Prayer of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, adopted by the General Convention of 1880, and to be finally acted upon by the General Convention of 1883, to wit :—

*See Appendix I. A.

It was, by concurrent action (vide Journal of Convention, pp. 156, 157-159, 161, 162, 181, 182, 185-187, 188, 225, 251, 263, 273, 291, 292, 299, 300, 303, 316) of the two Houses of the General Convention of 1880,—

Resolved, That the Ratification of the Book of Common Prayer be amended so as to read as follows, and that such proposed amendment be made known to the several Diocesan Conventions, in order that it may be adopted in the next General Convention, according to Article 8 of the Constitution :

THE RATIFICATION OF THE BOOK OF COMMON PRAYER.

By the Bishops, the Clergy, and the Laity of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, in General Convention assembled.

The General Convention of this Church, having heretofore—to wit, on the sixteenth day of October, A. D. 1789—set forth and established a Book of Common Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, and thereby established the said book and declared it to be the Liturgy of this Church, and required that it be received as such by all the members of the same, and be in use from and after the first day of October, A. D. 1790; the same book is hereby ratified and confirmed, and ordered to be for the use of this Church from this time forth.

But note, however, that on days other than Sunday, Christmas Day, the Epiphany, Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and Ascension Day, it shall suffice if the minister begin Morning or Evening Prayer at the General Confession, or the Lord's Prayer, preceded by one or more of the sentences appointed at the beginning of Morning and Evening Prayer, and end after the Collect for Grace, or the Collect for Aid against Perils, with 2 Cor. xiii. 14, using so much of the Lessons appointed for the day, and so much of the Psalter, as he shall judge to be for edification.

And note, also, that on any day when Morning and Evening Prayer shall have been duly said, or are to be said, and upon days other than those first afore-mentioned, it shall suffice, when need may require, if a Sermon or Lecture be preceded by at least the Lord's Prayer and one or more Collects found in this book. Provided, that no prayers not set forth in said book, or otherwise authorized by this Church, shall be used before or after such Sermon or Lecture.

And note further, also, that on any day the Morning Prayer, the Litany, or the Order for the Administration of the Lord's Supper, may be used as a separate and independent service, provided that no one of these services shall be disused habitually.

In testimony whereof, I have this day hereunto affixed my name.

CHARLES L. HUTCHINS,
Secretary of the House of Deputies.

MEDFORD, Mass., May 2, A. D. 1881.

[COMMUNICATION 3.]

MEDFORD, MASS., Nov. 10, 1880.

MY DEAR SIR :—

In accordance with a resolution adopted by the House of Deputies, at the recent session of the General Convention, I beg to transmit to you the accompanying Report of a "Special Committee on Increasing the Fund for Disabled Clergy, and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen."

In doing so, I am desired to call your attention to the approval of the plan proposed by the Committee, contained in the following Message from the House of Bishops.

NEW YORK, 19th day of the Session, }

MESSAGE No. 76.

The House of Bishops informs the House of Deputies that it has adopted the following resolution:—

Resolved, That the House of Bishops has received with lively satisfaction the communication from the House of Deputies, contained in its Message No. 70, informing it of the action taken looking to the increase of the Fund for Disabled Clergymen and their families. The Bishops hail with joy this prospect for the relief of our suffering brethren, and of the families of those departed, and heartily approve of the action taken.

Attest: HENRY C. POTTER, Secretary.

Commending this subject to the careful consideration of your Diocesan Council, in accordance with one of the accompanying resolutions, unanimously adopted by the House of Deputies.

I am, dear sir, your obedient servant,

CHARLES L. HUTCHINS,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INCREASING THE FUND FOR DISABLED CLERGY AND THEIR FAMILIES.

On the fourth day of the present session of the General Convention (October 11th), a Deputation from the House of Bishops, consisting of the Rt. Rev. Dr. Lee, Bishop of Delaware, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Whipple, Bishop of Minnesota, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Lay, Bishop of Easton, and the Rt. Rev. Dr. Dudley, Assistant Bishop of Kentucky, presented to the House of Deputies, in cogent and convincing appeal and argument, the cause of disabled clergy and the widows and orphans of deceased clergymen.

This almost unprecedented action of the House of Bishops in urging upon the House of Deputies the earnest consideration of a measure, was avowedly designed to impress upon the latter the eminent estimate which our Rt. Rev. Fathers entertained of the importance of the cause they thus presented for consideration.

With the earnest words of the Bishops still fresh in our memory, and their glowing sentiments still warm in our hearts, it is scarcely necessary that your Committee should enlarge upon the merits of the matter referred to their consideration.

That the Church should first of all extend a helping hand to those who have ministered at her altars until age and infirmity have weakened their powers, is a self-evident proposition.

The sentences selected to be read, while "the alms for the poor and other devotions of the people" are being received, in the Office of the Holy Communion, do most unequivocally set forth the great idea that the support of the clergy is properly derivable from the offerings of the people,—that "they who preach the gospel should live of the gospel." The soldier who fights his country's battles is amply supported by the government which he serves; and when he is wounded, or disabled, or incapacitated by old age, the State still supports him and his family, and when he dies there is a pension to his widow. This usage obtains in many other relations of secular life; but we are left to mourn the fact, and a humiliating fact it is, that they, who give their lives for the welfare of their fellow-men and the honoring of the Lord Jesus Christ, are in many instances left to terminate their ministry of toil and self-denial in circumstances of suffering and poverty. Shall not the Church care for her children as the State does for hers?

The Church presents us the manifest duty, nay, in the revelation of God, even from the beginning, it is clearly enforced, that "they who minister about holy things [should] live of the sacrifice." Now, our Rt. Rev. Fathers have come before us, and urged to immediate action in this pre-eminent charity, this paramount duty of humanity. Your Committee recognize the grateful fact that a step has been taken in the direction to which we are bidden, by depositing with the Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm, and Disabled Clergymen, a royalty upon the publication and sale of our Hymnal. The money thus received and disbursed by the Trustees of this Fund has been the means of relieving much suffering, but the amount is quite inadequate to meet the great and painful wants.

Your Committee further recognize the several Diocesan efforts in this direction, which have been organized and administered with varying measures of success; but while these serve in part to relieve the need of the disabled clergy in the older and richer Dioceses, where they are chiefly to be found, still they do not contemplate the extension of aid to the feebler Dioceses, where no such organizations exist, nor to the vast missionary jurisdictions, where now, and for many years to come, the want will be found to be greatest and the means of help the feeblest.

The immediate question is, What can be done to increase the Fund designed for general distribution.

Your Committee have had a number of projects referred to them, all of which have received their respectful consideration. There are difficulties insuperable to almost every plan, save that which is manifestly set forth in the Church's theory, as translated to us in the Offertory Sentences. The rubric in the Communion Office is in harmony with this, when it provides for the collection, not only of "alms for the poor," but for "the other devotions" (or consecrated gifts) "of the people." Now, for what are these "other devotions" of the people designed, if not for that very purpose set forth in the Offertory Sentences which ask for them? It can scarcely be too much emphasized in this connection, that the Offertory appeals only for the relief of the poor and the sustentation of the clergy.

And then the Canon [Title I., Canon 14, ¶ 3 of the Digest], speaking of "the Alms and Contributions of the Holy Communion" as proper to be applied by the minister, or under his superintendence, to such pious and charitable uses as shall by him be thought fit,—after dividing a certain part for the relief of the poor, which may rightly be called the "Alms,"—what "pious and charitable use" can possibly be made of the other part, called "Contributions," of as great and pressing import, of as high and holy character, of as appropriate and divinely ordered description, as giving relief to our suffering brothers, who have spent their lives in fatherly offices in the "household of faith?"

Your Committee feel the difficulty of fixing, at once, upon any method which shall be general and final, but prefer to submit such measures as shall be rather tentative, while proposing further investigation in the way of correspondence and the compilation of statistics.

Your Committee therefore beg to submit the following Resolutions for the approval of this House:—

1 Resolved, That the Committee appointed to consider the subjects of the increase of the Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm and Disabled Clergymen, be continued, with an increased membership, with instructions to act in the premises during the time intervening before the next General Convention, to the end that they may the better accomplish the objects for which the Committee was raised.

2 Resolved, That this House do earnestly request the several Diocesan Conventions or Councils that they duly consider, and, if they find it expedient, approve, commend, and indorse the eminent charity embraced in the purpose and effort of this Committee.

3 Resolved, That every minister in charge of a Congregation be requested to reserve, from this time forth, out of "the alms and other devotions" of the people, collected upon each and every occasion of the administration of the Lord's Supper, a percentage of the whole amount, not less than one, nor more than ten per cent, at the discretion of the Minister, the same to be forwarded and paid over to the Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm, and Disabled Clergymen.

4 Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Authorities of each Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction, for the purpose of collecting facts and statistics bearing upon the subject committed to them, such as the local provision now made in certain Dioceses for the relief of disabled Clergy and their families, the wants that now exist and that are unsupplied, the irregular and unorganized assistance that is now being extended, and all other information that shall contribute to a full exhibit of the present condition of this charity and its probable future; and that this Committee prepare and present to the next General Convention a digest of all the information thus gathered, with reference to further and more formal action.

5 Resolved, That this Committee be further instructed to inquire into the practicability of founding a Sustentation Fund, for supplementing the salaries of Clergymen who have not suitable support.

6 Resolved, That the Secretary of the House of Deputies be instructed to publish this Report in the Church Press, to send copies to the Bishops of the Church and to the Secretaries of the Conventions or Councils of the Dioceses and Missionary Jurisdictions, with the request that the Report be submitted to the consideration of the several Diocesan Conventions or Councils.

7 Resolved, That this Report be respectfully communicated to the House of Bishops, as the response of this Body to their request that some action be taken upon the subject of the relief of disabled clergy and their families, and that, in submitting this Report, it is hoped that it will meet the approval of our Rt. Rev. Fathers.

All which is duly submitted.

[COMMUNICATION 2]

6 NEWBURY ST., BOSTON, April, 1881.

REVEREND AND DEAR SIR:—

Will you be good enough to read this letter at the next meeting of the Convention of your Diocese, and to invite an expression of opinion from the Convention in reply to the questions asked in it.

By reference to the Journal of the General Convention you will see that the matter of providing for the expenses of the Deputies was brought up in both houses. On page 214 of the Journal you will find a resolution offered by the Bishop of Virginia, that, the House of Deputies concurring, it is incumbent on the several Dioceses to make provision for the entertainment of their own deputies to the General Convention. The Assistant Bishop of Kentucky offered the following as a substitute—That it be referred to a committee of three bishops, three presbyters and three laymen, to consider the expediency of increasing the assessment to be paid by the Dioceses to the General Convention, so as to pay the expenses per diem of the bishops and the clerical and lay deputies.

On page 41 of the Journal of the House of Deputies you will find that Mr. Blair, of Maryland, offered a resolution—That, the house of Bishops concurring, it be referred to a committee of three bishops, three clergymen and three laymen, to consider and report as to the expediency of so increasing the assessment upon the Dioceses as to enable the General Convention to pay the expenses incurred by the clerical members in attending its sessions.

This was referred to the Committee on Expenses. Their reports will be found on the 104th and 127th pages, in which they mention that they have ascertained the traveling expenses of the members of this Convention to be thirty thousand two hundred and forty-two dollars, and to provide for the traveling expenses of the Bishops and Deputies of the next Convention, an assessment of ten cents on each communicant must be laid, or of ten dollars on each clergyman.

At the same meeting it was voted—That the Committee on Expenses be empowered to sit during the recess, and to take full and final action touching the traveling expenses of members of the next General Convention.

The Committee ask for information if any provision is now made in your Diocese for the traveling expenses of the Bishop and Deputies to the General Convention. They also invite an expression of opinion from each Diocesan Convention whether it is best that the General Convention should undertake to provide these expenses by an assessment on each Diocese. The sum of ten cents upon each communicant would be the smallest assessment providing enough to meet these expenses. You can easily calculate the assessment on your Convention.

There is a great difference in the traveling expenses of the Bishops and Deputies of different Dioceses. A sum of nearly three thousand dollars must be provided to pay the traveling expenses from California and Oregon to Philadelphia; of thirteen hundred and fifty dollars from Texas to Philadelphia; from Arkansas, nine hundred and fifty-six dollars. From New York or Maryland the amount would be only fifty dollars.

A prompt answer to this communication is very desirable, so that the Committee can take early action if this course is recommended by the Diocesan Conventions.

G. C. SHATTUCK,

Chairman of Committee on Expenses.

On motion, communication No. 2 was referred to a special Committee composed of the following gentlemen :

Messrs. Ingalls, Deake and Bridge.

On motion, communication No. 3 was referred to a special Committee, as follows :

Rev. Messrs. Nichols and Bradley, and Mr. James Bridge.

The Convention, on motion, took a recess for the Annual Meeting of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.

The Society having adjourned, the Convention resumed its session.

The Report of the Committee on Diocesan Education, appointed last year, was presented by the Rev. E. F. Small.

REPORT :—

The Committee on Diocesan Education, while it realizes the great necessity that our children should receive religious as well as secular instruction, yet being conscious that its formal Report as printed in the Convention Journal deals only with smooth generalities which issue in nothing, beg leave to offer the following Resolution as its Report :

Resolved, That the Bishop be requested to issue at an early date a Pastoral letter to the clergy and laity of this Diocese, urging greater attention to the religious education of the young, and offering such suggestions as may seem to him advisable.

EDWIN F. SMALL,
HARRY P. NICHOLS,
LEVERETT BRADLEY, } Committee on Diocesan Education.

The Registrar presented his Annual Report.*

In accordance with Sect. 3, Art. 3, of the Constitution the Cathedral of S. Luke, the Report of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of S. Luke's Church was laid by Cathedral Chapter, before the Convention, and read by Secretary, as follows :

The Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of Saint Luke's Church, Portland, respectfully report to the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Luke that the Cathedral property is in good condition and repair ; that during the year just passed, a tablet to the memory of late Judge George F. Shepley, that the Chancel has been cleaned and re-tinted, that there has been expended for repairs on the outside mason and wood work $74.65, and that so far as we can determine there will be no repairs of any moment required either on the Rector or Canon's house during the coming year. The insurance on the Cathedral is $15,000, on the Organ $2000, and on the Canon's house $2000.

CHARLES BEN. MERRILL, } Wardens.

PORTLAND, Sept. 1, 1881.

Appendix II. B.

The Special Committee appointed to consider the Communication from the General Convention on the Fund for Disabled Clergy, etc., presented the following report :

The Committee appointed on the Communication from the Secretary of the General Convention in regard to the Fund for Disabled Clergy and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, beg leave to submit the following :

We recognize that the gift of a certain percentage of the Communion Alms by the minister of each parish is a very legitimate use of such alms. From the varied nature of the offertories in the Maine parishes, however, such uniform appropriation is impossible. The Committee find a better basis of recommendation in the Table of Assessments for the Diocesan Fund, as made by the Standing Committee of the Diocese. They, therefore, propose the following :

Resolved, That the minister as constituted authority of each Parish be recommended to remit to the Trustees of the Fund for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Clergymen, and of Aged, Infirm and Disabled Clergymen, a sum not less than 25 per cent of the Annual Diocesan Assessment of that Parish, taking that money from the Communion Alms or from such offerings as he deem best.

H. P. NICHOLS,
L. BRADLEY,
JAMES BRIDGE,

The resolution proposed by the Committee was, on motion, adopted.

The consideration of a resolution moved by Mr. R. H. Gardiner, as follows :

And also the discussion of a resolution proposed by Rev. H. Sawyer,

That in the opinion of this Convention the Episcopate Fund should be increased sufficiently to make its income equal to the Bishop's entire support, and to effect this that a Committee of one, acting under the direction of the Bishop and the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund, be appointed by the Bishop to make solicitations for this purpose,

Was, on motion, deferred till to-morrow morning.

On motion of the Secretary, it was resolved,

That as soon as possible after the Annual Meeting of any Parish or Mission, the names of the newly elected Wardens and Vestry shall be forwarded to the Bishop and Secretary of the Diocese, by the Vestry Clerk, and that the names of the Wardens be inserted in the Annual Journal of the Convention.

The Convention adjourned till to-morrow at 9 A.M.

On motion, the nomination was confirmed.

The resolution proposed by Rev. H. Sawyer, relating to the Episcopate Fund, was carried.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Finance was presented by the Chairman, Mr. Geo. E. B. Jackson :

The Standing Committee on Finance have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Episcopate and other Funds, and of the Treasurer of the Diocese, and have found the same correctly cast and properly vouched.

GEO. E. B. JACKSON,
JAMES BRIDGE,
C. B. GREENLEAF.

APPENDIX I.

A.

The Bishop's Address.

My dear Brethren :

Once more I am permitted to make report of a year's work uninterrupted by any physical disability or other serious impediment. To God be ascribed the praise for whatever good may have been wrought, and may He mercifully pardon the imperfections of my service.

But a short space of time intervened between the adjournment of our last Convention and the assembling of the General Convention, in New York City, and during that time my only official acts were the admission of a candidate for Deacon's Orders, Mr. John Howard Veazey, Sept. 22d, the administration of confirmation at Newcastle on the Feast of S. Michael and All Angels, Sept. 29th, when two candidates were presented by the Rev. Mr. Pyne, and the confirmation of one candidate in the Cathedral, Oct. 1st. The session of the General Convention opened on the 6th, and continued to the 26th of October. Its proceedings and acts have been so widely published, and so variously commented upon, that it is needless, at this late day, to refer to them in detail. Our secretary will present to you such of its acts as are required by the constitution to be submitted to the various Diocesan Conventions.

Besides these, there is a communication from the chairman of the committee on the expenses of the General Convention, which should receive your careful attention, and a report with accompanying resolutions, of the Committee on the increase of the fund for disabled clergy and their families. And, further more, the Church Building Fund Commission asks our co-operation in accomplishing its arduous undertaking to raise a million of dollars before October, 1883.

The easiest mode of disposing of such questions as these documents bring before us is to declare that, in view of the smallness of our numbers and the meagreness of our resources, we are unable to contribute to the furtherance of such projects; that all we can give, and more, is required for the development and sustentation of Church work in our own diocese, etc., etc. But although this is not only the easiest answer, but one which may be plausibly justified, I hope it is not the answer which we shall be disposed or shall determine to give; for it is neither Christian nor Churchly. It is not Christian, for it exhibits none of the largeness and warmth of Christian sympathy; it is not Churchly, for it does not recognize the relations and corresponding obligations of members of the Church to the organization of which they are members. By the same plea some dioceses have sought to justify themselves in doing nothing for the support of the general missionary work of the Church, some parishes in failing to support diocesan work, and some individuals in declining to contribute to needful parochial enterprises. It is generally resolvable at last into an apology for selfishness, lukewarmness, worldliness, and therefore Christian men should blush to offer it.

Certainly, if there are any practical advantages in our various organizations, they can be realized only in the degree in which the members of these organizations, first individuals, then parishes, then dioceses, perform the functions assigned to them ; and only in the same degree are we loyal to the Church into which we have been incorporated. Of course they who have the largest ability are most largely responsible for the performance of the work, and must bear the heaviest share of the burden (if that should be called a burden which is undertaken for Christ's sake), but none of us should be willing to plead, with respect to any undertaking of the Church, that we are in no measure responsible for its success ; for such is not the truth, nor will the plea be allowed at the supreme tribunal. It is just as vain an imagination that we can be good Christians while we ignore or despise the obligations imposed upon us by the Church, in accordance with her divine mission and authority, as that we can be good citizens while refusing to fulfil the obligations imposed upon us by the state in the exercise of its lawful functions.

My own interest in the proceedings of the General Convention was centered chiefly upon its action when sitting as the Board of Missions, partly because it was then that we seemed to be engaged in our most necessary work, and partly because of the grave difficulties to be surmounted in procuring a general and hearty approval of the particular measure which it had been made my duty to present and advocate. After a very general and animated discussion, extending through several days, that measure was adopted with enthusiastic unanimity, and the plan of systematic offerings for the missionary work of the Church thus endorsed and set forth stands now as the specific method and instrumentality of this Church for the support of her general missionary work, in contra-distinction to all mere local or individual schemes and methods. Every diocese, therefore, and every parish which would approve itself as respectful of the wisdom and loyal to the determinations of the General Council of the Church, will at least give a fair and faithful trial to the system so endorsed and prescribed. No doubt it will be only by slow degrees that the plan will come into general and vigorous operation, but its fruitful results are daily commending it more and more to the good-will of all who earnestly desire to see our missionaries and missionary enterprises more generously supported.

Two men were absent from the House of Bishops at the late Convention whose counsels and influence had been of great value there, and both have since been taken to their rest, the Bishop of North Carolina, and the Bishop of Pittsburgh. Bishop Atkinson was one of the oldest members of the House, having been consecrated in 1853, and therefore his long experience in ecclesiastical legislation, as well as the soundness of his judgment, the equability of his temper, and the purity and gentleness of his character, gave great weight to his opinions and conduct. Bishop Kerfoot was my official senior by but one year; of a more ardent and impulsive temperament than Bishop Atkinson, but honest, scholarly, intellectually vigorous, and in every way worthy of the respect of his peers. His later years were clouded by many afflictions which, though borne with a truly Christian resignation, seriously affected his health, and may have hastened his departure. But the end came in God's own good time, and the faithful soldier was ready to lay down his armor at the Master's call.

On the three Sundays occurring during the session of the General Convention I preached in various churches in the vicinity of New York, and subsequently passed a week in Washington. Among my memoranda of the same period I find the reception of the letter dimissory of the Rev. William Allen Fiske, LL.D., from the Diocese of Illinois. It afforded me no small pleasure to welcome as a co-worker one who had so well approved himself at several important posts as Dr. Fiske, and the results of his labors here, as rector of S. John's, Bangor, have already been very gratifying.

On the 2d of November I transferred the Rev. John Gregson, whose faithful services during six years as rector of Grace Church, Bath, will long be gratefully remembered, to the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania. Being in Philadelphia soon after this time, I had the gratification of assisting at the consecration of S. Peter's Church, Germantown, of which an old and dear friend is rector, and with which other valued friends are associated.

On the 11th of November, on the application of several residents of Caribou, Aroostook county, and in conformity with the provisions of the Canon, I organized a mission in that village, under the name of S. Luke's Mission.

During the winter, and up to Easter, I was chiefly occupied with my duties at the Cathedral, of which, though engrossing and important in themselves, no more particular account need be given here. Episcopal acts during the three winter months were as follows, viz. :

Dec. 1st, Rev. Joseph W. Norwood, Priest, received from Nova Scotia.

Dec. 7th, Rev. William W. DeHart, Priest, received from Mississippi.

Dec. 7th and 8th, presided at session of Diocesan Board of Missions at Gardiner.

Dec. 22d, the Rev. Charles James Palmer, transferred to the Diocese of Massachusetts.

Dec. 27th, S. John's Day, acting for the Bishop of New Hampshire, I pronounced sentence of deposition from the holy ministry upon William Stevens Tucker, Deacon, of that diocese, in conformity with the provisions of Canon 5, Title 2, of the Canons of the General Convention.

Feb. 22d and 23d, I presided at a session of our Board of Missions at Lewiston, and administered the rite of confirmation to a sick person in that parish.

Feb. 26th, I examined for Priests' Orders William Henry Burbank and Charles Melville Parker, Deacons, of the Diocese of New Hampshire, and on the following day, Quinquagesima Sunday, ordained them to the Priesthood in the chapel of S. Paul's school, Concord, N. H.

Feb. 27th, I confirmed a class of eight candidates in S. Paul's Church, Concord, N. H.

On Ash Wednesday, March 2d, I received notice of the reception of the Rev. William J. Alger from this Diocese into the Diocese of Massachusetts.

On the third Sunday in Lent, March 20th, in Christ Church, Exeter, N. H., I ordained to the Diaconate Frederick Charles Cowper and Arthur Wilde Little, candidates in that diocese, and in the same church, in the evening confirmed a class of four candidates.

On Wednesday evening, March 23d, beginning my spring visitation, I preached in S. John's, Bangor, and confirmed seventeen candidates presented by the rector, Rev. Dr. Fiske.

March 25th, Feast of the Anunciation, I received the Rev. John M. Bates, Priest, from the Diocese of Connecticut.

April 1st, I confirmed one person in the Cathedral.

On the Wednesday in Holy Week, April 13th, in Trinity Church, Lewiston, I preached, and confirmed twenty-seven candidates presented by the rector, Rev. Canon Washburn.

On Easter even, April 16th, I baptized eleven adults in the Cathedral, and on Easter Day confirmed there a class of thirty candidates. On the following day, Easter Monday, I confirmed in the Cathedral and admitted to the Holy Communion two persons coming for that purpose from Paris Hill, Oxford county.

On the first Sunday after Easter, April 24th, I visited S. Mark's Church, Augusta. In the morning preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed fourteen persons ; in the afternoon preached at the Soldiers' Home, Togus, and in the evening preached, and confirmed four candidates in Christ Church, Gardiner.

On the following Sunday, May 1st, visiting Grace Church, Bath, and S. Paul's, Brunswick, I preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed two candidates in the former parish, and preached, and confirmed five in the latter.

On the third Sunday after Easter, May 8th, acting for the Bishop of New York, I administered the rite of confirmation in S. Chrysostom's Chapel, New York City.

On the 15th of May, fourth Sunday after Easter, I preached, and confirmed six candidates in S. Stephen's Church, Portland.

On the following day, May 16th, in compliance with a request from the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese of New Hampshire, I began a full visitation of the parishes of that diocese, in the course of which (including services already mentioned) I have, up to this time, preached thirteen sermons and confirmed ninety-six candidates, in twelve churches. Several parishes are yet to be visited during the present month.

On the 21st of May I transferred the Rev. Charles J. Ketchum to the Diocese of Vermont.

On the Sunday after Ascension, May 29th, in Trinity Church, Saco, I preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed seven candidates, and in the evening, in Christ Church, Biddeford, preached and confirmed five.

My appointments for S. Thomas', Camden, and S. Mark's, Rockport, were fulfilled on the occasion of the third session of our Board of Missions, May 31st and June 1st. No candidates were presented for confirmation.

On the third of June I preached and confirmed one person in S. Peter's Church, Rockland, and preached in Church of S. John Baptist, Thomaston.

June 7th in Christ Church, Fitchburg, Mass., with the permission of the Bishop of that Diocese, I confirmed a lady, Miss Alice M. Shepley, whom, on the following day, in the same church, assisted by the Rev. J. P. Franks, I united in holy matrimony to the Rev. H. P. Nichols, rector of S. Paul's, Brunswick. On Trinity Sunday, June 12th, I preached twice in S. Saviour's, Bar Harbor, confirmed five candidates, celebrated the Holy Communion, and catechised the Sunday-school.

I visited and preached in S. Matthew's Church, Hallowell, June 21st, presided at commencement exercises of

S. Catharine's Hall June 22d, preached in Church of Messiah, Dexter, and confirmed one candidate June 23d, and preached in Holy Trinity Church, Exeter, on the Feast of S. John Baptist, June 24th.

On the first day of July I admitted William Quintard Ketchum as a candidate for Deacon's Orders.

On the 7th I visited Christ Church, Eastport, preached, and confirmed two candidates, and on the following day, at evening prayer in S. Ann's, Calais, preached, and confirmed seven candidates.

On the 10th of July, fourth Sunday after Trinity, I had the pleasure of assisting at the consecration, in the Cathedral, Fredericton, New Brunswick, of the Rev. Hollingsworth Tully Kingdon, D.D., as Coadjutor Bishop of that Diocese. The new Bishop has been very heartily welcomed, and has entered upon his duties with much vigor. We all, in this adjacent jurisdiction, are especially interested in the prosperity of the Diocese of Fredericton, and I am sure that you will heartily unite with me in congratulating the venerable Bishop of that Diocese, and our brethren there, upon the important accession thus gained, and will give a very cordial welcome to the Right Rev. Dr. Kingdon, whenever he shall find it convenient to come within our borders.

On the sixth Sunday after Trinity, July 24th, I visited S. John's parish, Houlton, preached, and celebrated the Holy Communion, being assisted in the service by Rev. H. H. Neales of Richmond, N. B. On the same day I preached in S. Paul's Church, Richmond. Since my visitation, regular services have been maintained in Houlton by a candidate for Holy Orders, Mr. William Q.

Ketchum, and it is hoped that a simple chapel may soon be erected.

On the following day, S. James' Day, I officiated at evening prayer in S. Luke's Mission at Caribou.

Proceeding to Presque Isle, on the 26th I celebrated the Holy Communion in S. John's Church in the morning, and preached in the same church in the evening.

At Fort Fairfield, on the 27th, I celebrated the Holy Communion, preached, and confirmed five candidates in S. Paul's Church.

On the following day, July 28th, at Limestone, I consecrated the newly-built church under the name of the Church of the Advent, preached twice, celebrated the Holy Communion, baptized one adult and three children, and confirmed three candidates. The Rev. L. A. Hoyt of the Diocese of Fredericton, Rev. Mr. Jones of Ashland, and Rev. Mr. Sawyer, missionary in charge, assisted in the services. In the afternoon I visited and administered the Holy Communion to a sick lady residing three miles from the village.

On the 29th I preached, at evening prayer, in S. James' Church, Van Buren, being assisted in the services by Mr. Sawyer and Mr. J. H. Veazey. It is now very desirable to unite Limestone and Van Buren as a distinct charge, under an additional missionary, who would find here a most interesting and profitable field of labor.

Reaching Ashland the next day, I preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and baptized and confirmed one adult in the morning, Sunday, July 31st, in Emanuel Church, and confirmed another candidate, unable to attend the public service, in the afternoon, and preached, at evening prayer, at Masardis, an outlying station of Mr. Jones' mission.

Driving the next day with Mr. Jones forty-seven miles, to Sherman, I preached, at evening prayer, in the school-house, and baptized a child.

Early on the following morning, Aug. 2d, at Staceyville, four miles distant, I said the burial service over the graves of five children, baptized a sick man, and confirmed four persons, and then proceeded to Winn, thirty miles southward, where I officiated at evening prayer in S. Thomas' Church.

Availing myself now again of the railway, I reached Oldtown Aug. 3d, and preached at evening prayer in S. James' Church, the service being said by the Rev. Dr. Fiske of Bangor, and on the next day preached in S. John's, Bangor, and confirmed a supplemental class of fourteen candidates.

On the 4th I fulfilled my appointment for S. Mark's Mission, Waterville, and preached at evening prayer. The present missionary, Rev. J. M. Bates, having been in charge but a short time, no candidates were ready for confirmation.

My final visitations for the Conventional year were held at Wiscasset, where, on the 23d of August, I preached, and confirmed three candidates in S. Philip's Church; at Newcastle, on S. Bartholomew's Day, Aug. 24th, where I preached, and confirmed one, and at Thomaston, Aug. 25th, where I preached, and confirmed two candidates. The Rev. Arthur Wilde Little, Deacon, was received into this Diocese from New Hampshire Aug. 23d.

I officiated at Rye Beach, N. H., on Sunday, Aug. 28th.

This bare outline of official acts, which may suffice as a report, can give but a very imperfect conception either of what has been done by the Bishop, or of the condition of the various parishes and missions of the Diocese. The results of conferences with the officers of parishes, or of conversations with individuals, or the concurrence of various interesting and impressive circumstances on particular occasions, are oftentimes more influential and important than anything said or done at the public services. Parochial reports will, of course, supplement the Bishop's in some measure, but even these are usually chiefly statistical. I will, therefore, add here a few words to indicate my own impressions with respect to the state of the Church in this Diocese. There have been several changes among the clergy, but the number actively employed remains as large as before. The number confirmed has been unusually large in some parishes, and the aggregate is greater than for several previous years,—174. Such an accession to our list of communicants ought to represent an increase of earnest labor for the cause of Christ and His Church, and therefore to assure more rapid progress in the future. The vows of baptism and confirmation are the vows of a soldier pledging himself to faithful service under the banner of Christ, and he will share in the final reward only as he fights manfully and works diligently. If it be a false and dangerous notion that only when we have assumed such vows, and in consequence of them, are we held to such service, it is equally a delusion that the mere assumption of them, without purpose or endeavor to fulfill them, can be in any wise to our advantage. Every man is bound to enroll himself under the banner of Him who gave His precious life for our redemption, but by the same token he is bound to follow where that divine Captain of our salvation leads, to honor Him in his daily walk and conversation, and by all available means, by prayer, by offerings, by helpful words and deeds, to show forth His light and love, and thus to win the world to Him. I have good reason to believe that most of those presented for confirmation during the past year had been duly instructed in this regard, and came to that holy rite with a sincere desire to be strengthened and enabled for actual and efficient service in Christ's name, and I therefore found much encouragement in the increased number of candidates. And even where there were but few quite prepared for confirmation, I yet often observed, especially in our newer missions, a greater degree than formerly of reverential attention to the proprieties and prescriptions of public worship, while sometimes it was plainly indicated in conversation with individuals that, being already spiritually well-minded, only further instruction is needed to fit them for the due and profitable reception of the sacraments of the Church. On the other hand I have occasionally found, to my grief and disappointment, among those who should have long since attained a worthier conception of their obligations and privileges as members of the Church of Christ, tokens of the presence of that same spirit which S. Paul rebuked in the Corinthians, the spirit which regards and treats the Church as a mere human association, and esteems its ministers only according to their personal qualities ; which provokes and promotes strife and contentions, and leads far astray from the blessed path of peace and godliness. But I trust that such instances are but few among us, and the prevalence of such a spirit in any parish quite transient. Most of us, however, need to exhibit greater zeal in good works. The responsibility of every member of the Church is limited only by his ability. And yet the number of active helpers and liberal givers, of men and women more in earnest to advance the cause and kingdom of Christ than to attain any worldly end, is comparatively small. Because of this it is that offerings are irregular and insufficient, that churches remain unfinished or in debt, that it is so difficult to maintain religious schools and missionary and charitable organizations in full and efficient operation, and that the progress of the Church in any direction is slow. O, my brethren, it is to our Lord that we must answer, and each of us must answer for himself before His judgment seat. We ought to desire not only to accomplish all that we can of good during the few years which remain to us on earth, but to perpetuate our usefulness among men, if it may be, and to stimulate others, by the monuments of our zeal for Christ, long after we shall have gone hence and are no more seen. Where can we bestow our goods so safely or so profitably, in view of the account we must render and the promises given us, as in the homes of the poor or the treasury of the Lord's house? What monument so worthy of a Christian disciple as that which shall transmit his power for good, and glorify his Master, and bring untold benefits to his fellowmen, through generation after generation? And far better is it, when practicable, to found, or to be helpful in founding or perpetuating such an institution, agency, or endowment, in one's own life-time, while the choice must be made between a benevolent or a selfish use of what we have, while we can still retain what we do not freely bestow, and while we can ourselves direct in the execution of our laudable purpose, than to wait until we can no longer derive any personal advantage from our worldly possessions, or even certainly control the disposition of them.

I am the more urgently constrained to present these considerations by the contemplation of the probable future of our community. The population of the state has been for a long time nearly stationary, and I see no ground for hope that it will soon be greatly increased. Many of our towns are less prosperous than they were twenty or thirty years ago. As a consequence some of our parishes are financially weaker; many of those on whose solicitation the parish was established, and who were among its chief and most efficient supporters, having passed away. Numerically it may have gained, and yet the maintenance of it is more difficult. There are more souls for whose spiritual care we are responsible; the light must therefore be kept burning, pastoral ministrations must be provided, and still by reason of the loss through death or emigration of certain individuals, it may be not only that local efforts are less availing, but that even our Board of Missions is less able to extend help. Now all these difficulties would have been obviated had those brethren provided that the support which they for a time gave, should be continuous; and I see no other means, than such wise and loving provision on the part of individuals, by which the stability of our foundations at certain points can be assured. The progress of new missions toward the condition of even temporary self-support must necessarily be slow, while we gain nothing by immigration and lose so many by emigration; but we should not be restrained by that consideration from organizing them when such organization is sought, nor become impatient of supporting them when organized. An increased endowment of our Missionary Society would be specially advantageous in this regard. And certainly we ought to provide that stated services should be more widely extended. In five counties in the western part of the State, with an aggregate population of 150,000 souls, we have but a single parish and a single minister, and yet in several towns within that region are communicants of the church. Have we no duty with respect to them? In view of such demands there and elsewhere, I most heartily wish that a fund could be created adequate to the support of at least one competent missionary-at-large, to be kept constantly in the field, whose special function it should be to seek out and minister unto these scattered sheep. But even more valuable, probably, than parochial or missionary endowments would be the endowment of our Diocesan School. Nothing seems to me of greater importance to the future of our work than the establishment of this school upon such a basis as shall ensure its continuance under temporary vicissitudes of patronage, and enable it to extend its advantages to those in very moderate circumstances. It has already and throughout the whole period of its existence been a most helpful instrumentality, and I trust that even under the same conditions as have hitherto existed its influence for good may be more widely felt in the future. But it is within the power of some members of the Diocese to put it upon a far more stable and satisfactory footing, and I would rejoice to find their hearts inclined to so excellent an undertaking.

In general I think I may say that the condition of most of our parishes and missions is encouraging, and in some cases very encouraging; but we ought not to be content with the best which has hitherto been attained, even with respect to posts already occupied, and when we consider how few those posts still are, we cannot but conclude that a vast work has yet to be performed if we would fulfil the mission of the church in this jurisdiction.

The resignation, by reason of her marriage, of the excellent and devoted principal of S. Catharine's Hall threw upon the trustees of that institution a grave responsibility. They have discharged it, as I believe, in a manner which will prove very satisfactory to the patrons and friends of the school; but in deference to the wishes of the accomplished lady who is about to assume the headship of S. Catharine's, I refrain from expressing here any sanguine anticipations as to the results of her superintendence and labors.

It has pleased God to spare our little band of clergy any loss by death during the past year, but in the ranks of the laity some have fallen, and among them, very recently, one whose departure, because of his exemplary character and widely felt influence and singular devotedness as a churchman, we cannot but deeply deplore—Mr. E. S. J. Nealley of the parish of Grace Church, Bath. A dear friend and a strong helper has been withdrawn from me by his death, and yet I could wish that any who shall be summoned from my side might be even as he, concerning whom I feel an entire confidence that after a life of faithful service, he has entered into the rest which remaineth for the people of God.

We do not forget, amidst our more private sorrows, or in our busiest hours, how the whole nation awaits, in trembling suspense, the issue of a brutal and murderous assault upon its chief magistrate; and already we have made our united prayers to Almighty God on behalf of the brave and patient sufferer. Well may we take shame to ourselves that such a blow could be struck at such a life, in this free and Christian land, in a time of profound peace and general prosperity. That shield in which we have boasted, and our rulers have confidently trusted, the ægis of public virtue, has again failed to protect the man exalted to the highest place by the suffrages of his countrymen. But in this we rejoice, even in the midst of our humiliation and grief, that forasmuch as our beloved President has served as faithfully under the banner of Christ, as under the flag of his country, if it shall please God to remove him from the most exalted earthly station, there remains for him a still higher place, a more honorable station, a more glorious reward. Of that living crown, of that heavenly inheritance, no assassin's violence can rob him.

APPENDIX II.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

A. Report of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese respectfully report that they have signed the canonical testimonials in behalf of Mr. William Quintard Ketchum jr., Postulant, desiring admission as a candidate for Holy Orders, and of Rev. George Franklin Pratt, Deacon, desiring to be admitted to the Priesthood.

In accordance with instructions from the Convention, they have also considered the matter of apportionment of deficiencies in the Bishop's salary among the parishes, and have notified the several parishes of their action.

All which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee by
GEO. E. B. JACKSON, Secretary.

PORTLAND, Sept. 6, 1881.

B. Report of the Registrar.

The Registrar begs leave to report that during the past year he has received for the Cathedral Library, in addition to the usual Diocesan Journals and other pamphlets, eight volumes of the Christian Journal of date 1817 to 1824, presented by Miss Henrietta Haight of New York; and a very old and curious Hebrew Lexicon of the year 1548, presented by Mr. Augustus W. Swift.

C. MORTON SILLS, Registrar.

PORTLAND, Sept., 1881.

C. Report of the Trustees of St. Catharine's Hall.

The Trustees of St. Catharine's Hall respectfully report that at their Annual meeting, June 22, 1881, the resignation of Mrs. James E. Prudden was presented and accepted. In testimony of the appreciation felt toward Mrs. Prudden and her unwearied labors in behalf of St. Catharine's Hall, which in point of pecuniary sacrifices have been exceptionably noticeable, it may be proper here to say, that while feeling constrained to accept Mrs. Prudden's resignation, they deeply regret that such action was found necessary, and here reiterate their sense of obligation for the unselfish and unremitting devotion with which she, for five years, served St. Catharine's.

The Trustees feel that they have been especially fortunate in securing the services of a thoroughly competent and accomplished lady to fill the place of Principal. Madame Mondan, late of Brattleboro, Vt., of well assured ability as a teacher, and a lady otherwise highly qualified, assumes the charge of the school, with the prospect of abundant usefulness and success.

Many substantial improvements have been made during the summer vacation in the school building, which are calculated to contribute materially to the health and comfort of the household. The Trustees feel confident that under the new arrangement, St. Catharine's will maintain its former excellent advantages, and add to them increased facilities for a thorough and finished course of education.

SAMUEL UPJOHN, Secretary.

At a meeting of the Standing Committee, of the Diocese of Maine, holden February 26, 1881, the following action was had upon the matters referred to them by the Annual Diocesan Convention of 1879 :

The Committee then considered the matter of appointment of a portion of the salary of the Bishop, upon the Parishes of the Diocese, as committed to them by vote of the last Diocesan Convention.

REMARKS.

S. PAUL'S CHURCH, PORTLAND.

The Rev. Arthur Wilde Little.

A much needed gift, in the shape of a new organ—costing $1,000—was presented to S. Paul's last Easter by a number of kind friends within and without the parish. The Rector, the Rev. Charles John Ketchum, resigned the fourth Sunday after Easter. I have been in charge since Trinity Sunday.

TRINITY CHURCH, LEWISTON.

The Rev. W. H. Washburn.

The new church is still unfinished, although some work has been done upon it since last convention. We hoped that it might have been completed by this time, but have found it impossible to raise the necessary funds.

TRINITY CHURCH, SACO.

The Rev. E. F. Small.

Services have been held at Old Orchard Beach since May 1st, on Sunday evenings, and during the month of August on Sunday mornings, by the Rector of Saco, with the assistance of visiting clergymen. Good congregations have attended these services,—partly from the residents and partly from the summer boarders at the Beach. The offerings have amounted to $168. Plans have been procured for a church edifice, and steps taken toward procuring a suitable lot for the building.

BRUNSWICK, Sept. 1, 1881.

Geo. T. Packard, Priest.

I would respectfully report that in accordance with the injunctions of my medical adviser, I have refrained from officiating during the past year, and that I am encouraged to anticipate a resumption of my professional duties after a further period of rest.

CHRIST CHURCH, EASTPORT.

The Rev. M. H. Wellman.

The Woman's Association for Parish Work has given during the year ninety-four new and good second-hand garments to needy men, women and children in the Parish.

The Sewing School has been continued, and the pupils have made and hemmed thirty-eight garments and handkerchiefs. The Woman's Auxiliary has made garments for Diocesan and General Missionaries and their families, valued with freight and money contributions, at $39.67.

In view of my probable resignation of the Parish, I regret to say that the mortgage debt of five hundred dollars remains as I found it.

I am happy to say that there has been no further debt added to embarrass the Parish.

Beyond meeting its current obligations and expending one hundred dollars on church repairs, there has been contributed to Diocesan and General Missionaries' families, and other objects without the Parish, $392.36. The annual proportion of this amount was greatest in the year just closed, and amounts to $139.43.

I cannot say that I think the Parish has grown stronger except in so far as it is more willing to do for others, as well as for itself, which willingness is always strength in view of its possibilities under the blessing of Him who loveth cheerful givers.

EMMANUEL CHURCH, ASHLAND.

The Rev. Henry Jones.

The amount subscribed toward the Rectory here was reported in last year's Journal—although the money was paid in the present Convention year.

The Rectory, though not entirely completed, is so far along as to relieve us of the anxiety we felt the beginning of the Convention year. It is finished on the outside, and all down stairs in the inside, and plastered throughout. About $300 more would complete the building, and give us a suitable barn and wood-shed, which we lack yet.

I feel thankful for what friends have done already, in giving us a house which we can, for the time being, call our own, and from which we cannot be driven at the will of the landlord.

APPENDIX V.

A

CONSTITUTION OF THE DIOCESE OF MAINE,

AS ADOPTED AT THE ANNUAL CONVENTION OF 1878.

ARTICLE I.

§ 1. The Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Maine, shall be held on the first Tuesday in September, at the Cathedral Church, Portland, unless some other time or place be appointed by the previous Convention, or by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

§ 2. A Special Convention may be called by the Ecclesiastical Authority at any time, and shall be called when requested by the Standing Committee.

§ 3. Fourteen days' notice of every Special Convention, and of every alteration of the time and place of the Annual Convention, must be given to all the Clergy, Parishes, and Missions of the Diocese.

ARTICLE II.

§ 1. All Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, canonically and actually resident in this Diocese for one month next preceding any Annual or Special Convention, shall be entitled to seats in the same.

§ 2. The Parishioners at their Annual Meeting, or the Vestry of each Parish, at any meeting duly convened, may elect not more than five Lay Deputies, male persons of full age, and Communicants in the Parish, or where the election of Communicants is impracticable, stated worshipers therein, to represent said Parish in the Convention.

§ 3. The evidence of the election of a Lay Deputy shall be a Certificate signed by the Rector, Warden, or Clerk of the Vestry.

§ 4. The Wardens of all Organized Missions in the Diocese, and the Treasurers of the Diocese, of the Episcopate Fund, and of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, shall be entitled ex officio to seats in the Convention.

§ 5. No Lay Deputy shall be entitled to a seat in any Convention other than that for which he was elected.

ARTICLE III.

§ 1. The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex officio President of the Convention. In his absence, the Assistant Bishop, or if there be none, or he be absent, a Priest chosen by the Convention shall preside. The Presiding Officer shall have the right of speaking and voting on all questions.

§ 2. A Quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of one-fourth of the Clergy entitled to seats, and Lay Deputies from one-fourth of the Parishes; Provided, that a smaller number shall have power to adjourn from time to time; and that in the election of a Bishop, a majority of the Clergy entitled to vote in said election, and Lay Deputies from a majority of the Parishes, shall be present.

§ 3. The Clergy and Lay Deputies shall deliberate and vote in one body; Provided, that on the demand of any two members, they shall vote in two distinct Orders; and when so voting, each Parish or Mission represented in the Convention shall have one vote only, and the concurrence of the two Orders shall be necessary to enact any measure.

ARTICLE IV.

§ 1. There shall be elected at each Annual Convention,

(1) A Secretary of the Diocese:

(2) A Treasurer of the Diocese:

(3) A Standing Committee, consisting of three Priests and three Lay Communicants of the Diocese:

All of whom shall continue in office until the next Convention, and until their successors are chosen. Vacancies in the offices of Secretary and Treasurer shall be filled by appointment of the Ecclesiastical Authority, and in the Standing Committee, by themselves.

§ 2. A Registrar of the Diocese shall be appointed by the Bishop. His duty shall be to collect and preserve the Records and Journals of the Convention, and other documents pertaining to the history of the Church, and to report the condition of the same to each Annual Convention.

§ 3. Deputies to the General Convention shall be elected once in three years, at the Annual Convention of the Diocese next preceding each Triennial General Convention; and at the same time an equal number of Supplemental Deputies shall be elected, from which vacancies in the office of Deputy shall be filled by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

§ 4. All elections shall be by ballot, unless otherwise ordered by unanimous consent.

ARTICLE V.

§ 1. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate of this Diocese, the Standing Committee shall call a Special Convention for the election of a Bishop, to be held within not less than one nor more than three months after the occurrence of said vacancy.

§ 2. The election of a Bishop shall be by concurrence of both Orders, voting separately by ballot, each Parish represented having one vote. A majority of each Order shall be necessary to a choice.

§ 3. The Clergy shall vote first, and their choice shall be communicated to the Laity. The Laity shall then vote, and their choice shall be communicated to the Clergy. If both Orders have chosen the same person, he shall be declared elected; but if they have chosen different persons, they shall vote again in the order and manner before prescribed.

ARTICLE VI.

§ 1. The application of a Parish for admission into union with this Diocese shall be accompanied with (1) evidence of the complete organization of the Parish under the Law of the State of Maine for the Incorporation of Parishes of the Protestant Episcopal Church; (2) a vote of the Parish requesting such admission; and (3) a promise of obedience to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese.

§ 2. Such union may be declared forfeited at any Annual Convention, on proof of refusal or neglect, for two successive years, to comply with the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese, or with the Acts and Resolves of the Convention in conformity thereto.

ARTICLE VII.

This constitution may be altered or amended at any Annual Convention, if the proposition for such alteration or amendment, which must be in writing, shall have been approved by a vote of the Annual Convention next preceding.

CANONS IN FORCE, 1881.

[See Journals of 1875, pp. 11, 19, and 1877, p. 13.]

CANON I.

Of Missionary Organization.

§ I. The Missionary operations of the Church in this Diocese shall be conducted in accordance with the Act of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.

§ II. 1. Missionary Stations are under the control of the Bishop and the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

2. Missionaries are appointed by the Board of Missions, on the nomination of the Bishop; and in the fields assigned them are the agents and representatives of the authorities of the Diocese.

3. The entire salaries of the Missionaries are to be paid by the Board of Missions, but the people to whom they are sent must be stated contributors to the Treasury of the Board, to the amount of a minimum which shall be agreed upon, from year to year, between them and the Board.

4. The Weekly Offertory is to be established at the commencement of the Mission; not only as the easiest way of raising money, and of dividing the expenses equitably among the people, but also that the duty and habit of Christian giving shall be practically inculcated.

5. The title of real estate given to or purchased by the Mission for Church purposes, shall be vested in the Trustees of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, to be held by them until such time as the Mission shall become a duly organized Parish, or longer if the Parishioners shall so elect.

6. The change from the "Mission" to the "Parish" may be made when, first, there shall be a sufficient number of male persons of good standing to act as Wardens and Vestrymen; and when, secondly, the station is provided with a church, and is able to support a Rector without Missionary aid.

7. Missions duly organized shall report to the Annual Convention through their Missionaries, or if there be none in charge, through their Clerk, or if there be no Clerk, through the Treasurer. And in these reports, in their own records, in all Diocesan statistics and accounts, in their names, in their obedience to the Canons of the Church, and the action of the Diocesan Convention, they shall be held and treated as Parishes, with the obvious exceptions resulting from their having no corporate character.

8. The failure of the people of the Mission to fulfill their stipulation, may warrant the Bishop in withdrawing his Missionary, and with the consent of the Convention, dissolving the organization.

§ III. 1. Persons desirous of the services of the Church in their town, village, or neighborhood, shall make application to the Bishop in the following form:

To the Right Rev. the Bishop of Maine.

We, the undersigned, residents of the town of ———, county of ———, Diocese of Maine, being desirous of obtaining the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, do hereby request you to provide them for us as you think fit. For which benefits we do hereby agree to put ourselves under your charge; promising conformity to the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of said Church, to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Maine, and to the rules regulating Missionary Stations in this Diocese. And in accordance with those rules, we are now desirous to be organized as a Mission, under the name of ———Mission, ———. Furthermore, we hereby agree to pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions of the Diocese, in four equal quarterly installments, the sum of ———, at least, for the first year.

Respectfully,

Your obedient Servants,

This application shall be signed by the adults, not less than six in number, who propose to be members of the Mission.

2. If the Bishop consent to the organization of a Mission, he shall appoint, on consultation with the Missionary, the following officers to serve for the first year, after which they shall be elected annually, in Easter Week, by the people:—a Warden, a Treasurer, and a Clerk; or if it be deemed expedient by the Bishop, a Warden and Treasurer only shall be appointed.

3. It shall be the duty of the Warden to procure a room or house, to be used as a place of public worship; to see that the same be kept clean and in good repair, and that it be provided with all things necessary for conducting the services of the Church decently and in order. He shall also provide the Bread and Wine for the Holy Communion; take charge of the Communion Service, the Linen, Books, etc., belonging to the Mission; and shall endeavor, in the absence of the Missionary at any time, to keep up the regularity of the services.

4. The Warden shall be Deputy ex officio to the Convention, and shall also be entitled to a seat and vote in the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to collect or receive all moneys contributed by the Mission, and to remit or disburse them in accordance with the rules of the Board of Missions.

6. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, or if no clerk be appointed or elected, of the Treasurer, to keep a record of events of importance to the Mission, and a list of its families and members; and in case the Missionary be non-resident, to have the custody of the Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, etc., but not to make entries therein, except by the Missionary's request, or in his absence; and to attend to any correspondence required by or for the Mission.

7. The Missionary, in consultation with the officers, shall appoint the Sexton, Organist, Choir-leader, Sunday-school Superintendent, and any other helper he may find necessary; but in his absence, the right of such appointment shall rest with officers previously named.

§ IV. 1. Every person becoming a member of the Mission, and willing to aid in its support, is expected to name a certain sum per week, which he will pay to the Board of Missions, whether it be large or small, "according as God hath blessed him."

2. At every Sunday service, or at least once when there are two on the same day, there shall be an offertory; and then the contributors shall place the amount due from them in the Alms-basin, in envelopes marked with their names or numbers. The Treasurer receiving and opening these envelopes shall credit the givers with the amounts enclosed, and at the end of each quarter shall collect whatever arrearages may be unpaid.

3. Money contributed outside of the envelopes shall be separately recorded and reported to the Board of Missions, and excepting such amounts as have been collected as Communion Alms, or for Canonical objects, they shall be appropriated: 1. To the contingent expenses of the Mission. 2. To such other objects as the Missionary may deem expedient.

§ v. 1. Every organization of a Mission in accordance with § 111., shall be reported by the Bishop to the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

2. The Convention on receiving such report, shall declare by vote its approval of the organization; and such approval shall entitle the Mission to representation by its Warden, as provided in § 111. 4.

CANON II.

Of Lay Deputies.

§ 1. A form of Certificate for Lay Deputies, in conformity with Art. 11., § 2, of the Constitution, shall be sent to all the Parishes by the Secretary of the Diocese, one month at least before the meeting of the Annual Convention.

§ 11. The Certificates of the election of Lay Deputies shall be sent to the Secretary before the first Day of the Annual Convention; and the Secretary shall make a roll of the names of the Lay Deputies whose Certificates are in regular form.

CANON IV.

§ 1. When any Minister of this Church is tried for any of the offences named in the Canons of the General Convention, for which a Minister may be tried and punished, it shall be on presentment made to the Bishop by three Presbyters of this Church, or by the Vestry of the Parish to which the Minister belongs, and approved by at least one Presbyter. In every presentment the charges shall be distinctly specified.

§ 11. When any Clergyman has been charged according to this Canon with any offence, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to furnish the accused with a copy of the charges and specifications alleged against him, and require him to make answer thereto before him and his Council, whom he shall convene to hear and judge of such charge or charges; and it shall be his duty to notify the accused person of the time and place of meeting, one month at least previous to the meeting. The aforesaid Council shall consist of at least four Presbyters of the Diocese. If the Bishop and his Council, or a major part of them, after hearing the evidence, shall judge the accused person guilty of either or all of the charges laid against him, the Bishop shall reprove, suspend, or degrade the person so convicted, as he and a major part of this said Council shall think the offence may deserve.

§ 111. If the accused shall neglect or refuse to appear, when summoned according to this Canon, and no defence be made by his authority, they shall declare him to be "in contumacy;" and sentence of suspension from the ministry, until he shall appear or render satisfactory answer, shall pass against him for contumacy; and if, after six calendar months from the date of such sentence, he shall not have appeared, nor have rendered such answer, the Bishop may, with the advice and consent of the Clerical members of the Standing Committee, pronounce against him the sentence of degradation from the ministry; or else the sentence of suspension shall still remain in force till he shall appear or render satisfactory answer.

By an Order - diocesan Canon -

CANON V.

There shall be in every Parish Monthly Offerings for Diocesan Objects. It shall be the duty of the Rector or Minister of each Parish to give notice of these collections, and regularly to remit the amounts contributed for Diocesan Missions to the Treasurer of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, and the other collections to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Diocesan objects are, Diocesan Missions; the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate; Christian Education; and Bible and Prayer Book Distribution.

CANON VII.

It shall be the duty of all Ministers of this Diocese to report to the Bishop the names of such persons as may come to their knowledge, who are attached to our Communion, and who are inhabitants of towns where there is no Episcopal congregation; and it shall be the duty of the several Rectors in this Diocese to give the Bishop early notice of the removal of any of their parishioners to such towns.

On motion, the Standing Committee of the Diocese was appointed a Committee on Diocesan Assessments.

On motion, the further election of Diocesan officers was postponed till to-morrow morning.

On motion, the Convention adjourned till to-morrow morning at half past nine.

WEDNESDAY, 9 A.M.

After Morning Prayer the Bishop took the Chair and called the Convention to order.

The Roll of Clergy and Lay Deputies absent yesterday was called by the Secretary, and one Clergyman and two Lay Deputies answered to the names.

The Minutes of yesterday's session were read and approved.

The Standing Committee on Diocesan Education, to whom was referred the Report of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall, presented as their report, that of the Committee on Examination at the said school, as follows:

The Committee appointed to examine S. Catharine's Hall, respectfully report that they were in attendance on Monday, June 19, and listened to thirteen exercises from the several classes.

One or two features stood out prominently in the examination. The interest of the pupils, young and old, and their lady-like conduct was a strong testimony to the general good management; in truth, the training of pupils into a pure, refined womanhood is primary. There was manifested, too, a system rarely to be found in boarding-schools, and one that would be creditable to any public institution. The pupils were prompt, alert, clear, fresh, even to the close of a fatiguing day.

In any special mention the Committee would note the class in Geometry. Here was shown a clearness of comprehension and expression most complementary to the teacher in charge of the mathematical work. The examination of the French and German departments, under the instruction of the Principal, disclosed a pleasing facility in the idioms of the tongues, the wise aim in instruction in modern languages.

The accomplishments are cultivated in S. Catharine's with a spirit that makes them a real pleasure and not a superficial gilding. Almost the whole school took part in a musical exercise, including reading music at sight in two parts. The Committee were delighted with a rythmical calisthenic exercise, at once a rest and an enjoyment to the whole school. The Art Room contained the usual display of full and careful work in crayon and paints, from a very large number of pupils.

With but one or two exceptions, in every department the pupils seemed to be far above the average, scarcely a dull and nowhere an indifferent and uninterested scholar being observed.

The Committee are glad to know that another year additional attention will be paid to the more careful grading of the school, and hence to advance in Classical and Historical studies.

One or two changes are to be made in the teachers, a necessity to be regretted, but Madame Mondan thinks that the vacancies can be wisely filled under the present admirable management, and with such a full attendance of pupils the prospects of S. Catharine's seem most auspicious.

HARRY P. NICHOLS,
WILLIAM WALKER,
LEVERETT BRADLEY,

The Chair appointed the following Committees :

"That this Convention esteeming it a matter of importance that a Diocesan paper should be properly conducted and supported, to this end appropriates from the Diocesan fund $100 to be paid to the editor of the North East, for one year from July 1st."

This resolution was passed by a rising vote.

The following resolution was passed unanimously :

Resolved, “That the thanks of the Convention be extended to the Rector and Parishioners of S. Mark’s Church, Augusta, for the kindness and hospitality extended to the members of the Convention.”

On motion, the reading of the Minutes of to-day’s proceedings was dispensed with.

APPENDIX I.

A.

The Bishop's Address.

My Dear Brethren:—The time of the meeting of our Convention having been changed from September to June for this year, my own report and the parochial reports, as well as those of the various officers of the Convention, will cover a period of only nine months. This remark is made at the outset, in order to obviate an unfavorable inference from the statistical tables hereto appended.

My first official act after the adjournment of the last Convention was the ordination in the Cathedral, on Saturday, the 10th of September, of the Rev. Arthur Wilde Little, and Rev. George Franklin Pratt, Deacons, to the Priesthood, and George Samuel Hill, and John Howard Veazey to the Diaconate. On the same day I received notice of the acceptance of letters dimissory to the Diocese of Albany, given to the Rev. Daniel Flack.

On Thursday, Sept. 14th, I attended at the opening exercises of the school year at S. Catharine's Hall, and made a brief address. The remainder of the month was devoted to completing a visitation of the Diocese of New Hampshire, the details of which visitation have already been published in the Journal of that Diocese.

I find no proper Episcopal acts recorded in my diary for October, but I officiated regularly at the Cathedral. On the first day of this month there was suddenly called from the labors and trials of earth to the rest of Paradise one to whose generous sympathy and aid I had been largely indebted in every year of my Episcopate,—although he was resident in another diocese, and foremost in all the activities and benefactions of another community,—Mr. Enoch Redington Mudge of Boston. There is no part of our work requiring for its accomplishment external aid with which his name is not identified. His was the largest individual contribution to the building of the Cathedral, from without the Cathedral congregation; his name is found among those assisting in the purchase of the property of S. Catharine's Hall, and in the increase of the Episcopate Fund, and I know not what mission church in the diocese has been erected without some help from Mr. Mudge. Besides all this, he gave frequently, and for a considerable period statedly, for the support of the missionaries. No doubt the fact that he was born in Maine, and passed the earlier years of his manhood here, served to stimulate his interest in the work of the Church in this region, and to impose upon his chivalrous conscience a sense of obligation to aid in its advancement. But it is very seldom that an obligation of that kind is so heartily recognized, or even at all allowed. With him there was "first the willing mind," a heart sensitive to every call of duty, and an eye watchful for every opportunity of usefulness. He was quick also to appreciate the special claim of such a field as this, where whatever gains the Church may make are nearly balanced by losses through emigration, upon the consideration of brethren elsewhere, and particularly upon those through whose own removal from the diocese both our numbers and our ability have been lessened; and although he was not a churchman when living here, and acquired his property elsewhere, yet so far was he from questioning the validity of such a claim upon himself, that he was the first to point it out to me. All this is but an illustration of the large-hearted benevolence and Christian fidelity of the man. His own Diocese of Massachusetts was still more largely indebted to him, and that not only for pecuniary support, but for active labor in many departments of Church work, and for the wholesome influence of his daily walk and conversation. That beautiful memorial church at Lynn, within whose courts his own mortal remains now rest, was but his latest and crowning offering for the glory of God and the benefit of his fellow-men. Monuments of his zeal and generosity may be found in every part of the country, and everywhere is his name held in honor. Such laymen, such "living epistles," are the best witnesses of the transforming and ennobling power of the gospel, the most effective preachers, the chief strength and glory of the Church in any age.

On Wednesday, Oct. 5th, I attended and assisted at the funeral of Mr. Mudge in S. Stephen's Memorial Church, Lynn, and subsequently, on Wednesday, the second day of November, assisted at the consecration of the same church.

On the 25th of October the Rev. Herbert M. Jarvis was received into this diocese from the Diocese of Fredericton, and appointed to the charge of Christ Church, Eastport. I was absent from the diocese, but still concerning myself with its interests, during the greater part of the month of November, and during the winter was chiefly engrossed by duties at the Cathedral.

Was present by invitation and made several addresses at a missionary conference held at Utica, N. Y., in the last week of November, and presided at a meeting of our own Board of Missions in Saco and Biddeford on the 13th and 14th of December.

On the 13th of the same month I gave my consent to the consecration of the Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead, D.D., as Bishop of Pittsburgh, and on the 15th admitted George Herbert Davis, of S. Mark's Church, Augusta, as a candidate for Priest's Orders. I had unusual satisfaction in this latter act, for Mr. Davis was exceptionally well prepared, both in scholarship and in character, to enter upon a course of preparation for the holy ministry. But it pleased God to disappoint my glad anticipation of having him for a co-worker, and to withhold from the ministry of the Church on earth the benefit of his service. Only two months later, on Ash-Wednesday, the 22d of February, he was called to a sweeter service, in higher courts than those of the earthly temple. The summons was unexpected, but it was not unwelcome. If it denoted for those who loved him the blighting of cherished earthly hopes, it brought to him an earlier fulfilment of the hope "which maketh not ashamed." Our dear young brother heard it without murmuring and without dread, bore his sufferings patiently, and departed in peace. He had in singleness of heart, and with great earnestness of purpose, put aside worldly inducements to devote himself to the work of a toilsome office for Christ's sake, and although he was taken away before the offering could be consummated, yet it is a source of precious consolation to us that with the utmost fullness of intention and ardor of desire he had made it, and we believe assuredly that he rests with those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

On the first day of January I was called to officiate at the funeral of an eminent and highly respected citizen of Oldtown, Mr. George P. Sewall. Though not a communicant of the Church, Mr. Sewall was truly and deeply interested in its sustentation and progress, and rejoiced to see his family and friends partakers of those highest spiritual privileges in which (probably through the still prevailing influence of erroneous instruction in early life) he felt himself unqualified to participate. A large number of his fellow-townsmen assembled at the church and followed to the cemetery, to testify their own sense of loss and their sympathy with his bereaved family. I thank God that all those to whom he was nearest and dearest are able to recognize in their affliction the hand of a loving Father, and have already experienced the sweetness of those consolations wherewith He comforts His children. A warm and steadfast friend has been taken from my own side by the death of Mr. Sewall, and long and sadly shall I miss his cordial greeting when I revisit that hospitable home.

In the course of this month, January, on the invitation of the Bishop of Quebec, I visited that city and addressed a missionary meeting. The visit was made in every way agreeable and refreshing to myself (however little it may have contributed to the advantage of the missionary cause) by the hearty reception and generous entertainment which I received from the Bishop and his family and the clergy and churchmen of the city.

S. Paul's Day, Jan. 25th, bringing with it, as the fifteenth anniversary of my consecration, many saddening reflections, brought also cheering expressions of affectionate remembrance and regard from various friends in the diocese.

In February I issued, in accordance with the request of our last Convention a pastoral letter on the subject of Christian education.

On the 16th of the same month I confirmed an aged lady in Trinity parish, Saco, and preached in Christ Church, Biddeford.

On the 4th of March, at evening prayer, in S. Paul's Church, Portland, I confirmed one candidate.

Beginning my regular spring visitation at Easter, I have confirmed in the course of it, in the Cathedral (including one from Christ Church, Gardiner) 28; Trinity Church, Saco, 5; Christ Church, Biddeford, 5; S. Mark's, Augusta (including one from Gardiner), 15; S. Mark's, Waterville, 2; S. John's, Bangor, 8; S. John's, Dresden, 1; S. Paul's, Portland, 21; S. Paul's, Brunswick, 2; Grace Church, Bath, 12; S. James' Mission, Sherman, 6; Holy Innocents' Mission, Staceyville, 2; S. Stephen's, Portland, 9; Trinity Church, Lewiston, 16; S. Matthew's, Hallowell (including one from Augusta), 5.

I have also officiated at Dexter, Exeter, Oldtown, Milford, Richmond, and Thomaston. At Oldtown I baptized three children, and at Sherman and Staceyville, respectively, one adult. Celebrated the Holy Communion at Saco, Augusta, Waterville, Milford, Bangor, Brunswick, Sherman, Staceyville, and Lewiston, and preached at all services. Partly from the inconvenience of traveling so early in the season in the northern portion of the state, and partly at the request of the clergy in charge, I have postponed the visitation of several parishes and missions to a later day. I have preached and celebrated the Holy Communion in the Cathedral on all Sundays when not elsewhere engaged, and have devoted much time to parochial work.

The list of clergy is not materially changed ; one priest has been received, as already noted, the Rev. Mr. Jarvis and two transferred to the Diocese of Albany, the Rev. Daniel Flack, and the Rev. Joseph W. Norwood. Letters dimissory to the Diocese of New York have been recently given to the Rev. William W. De Hart, but notice of their acceptance has not as yet been received. The names of those ordained soon after the last Convention are already on the published list. The Rev. Andrew Merkel has been transferred from Rockport to Calais. Two postulants have been admitted as candidates for Priests' Orders, George Herbert Davis, and Carroll Everett Harding.

I had hoped that the new and beautiful church at Lewiston might be quite ready for consecration before the close of the Conventional year, but owing to the inclemency of the spring months the work is only just now finished. Church buildings are projected and will probably be erected during the coming year at various points in the diocese. A small chapel at Northeast Harbor is already, I suppose, nearly complete through the kind efforts of the Bishop of Albany and some of his personal friends, who have summer cottages at that point on our coast. A chapel is also in course of erection at Old Orchard, on a lot given by the late Mrs. Williams. It is expected that services may be holden in it after the middle of July. I am particularly desirous to see the longings of our brethren at Sherman and Staceyville for a suitable house of worship fulfilled. Their want is a very urgent one, and considering that a few hundred dollars would supply it I trust that your kindness will abundantly fulfill their need. A liberal sum of money has been contributed for the enlargement of S. Saviour's Church, Bar Harbor, and that work will probably be begun at the close of the present summer. I hope to have very soon the pleasure of laying the corner-stone of a church at Newcastle.

The approaching retirement of one of our most laborious and useful clergy from the active work of the Ministry, on account of physical infirmities, should lead us to consider very seriously the question of making some provision for such cases. None of the clergy of this diocese are supported with that liberality which will enable them to have any means of self-support when disabled for active service, and we have as yet no fund from which to aid them under such circumstances. It is high time that we should follow the good example of other dioceses in beginning to accumulate such a fund. But unless some large hearted brother, having the ability to do so, shall lay a generous foundation for it, it cannot be soon built up to advantageous proportions. I would suggest, however, as an initiative step, that a committee be appointed to procure an act of incorporation for trustees of a diocesan fund for the relief of disabled clergy ; and meanwhile I appeal with confidence to the clergy and laity of the diocese to make some suitable provision for the comfort of the one worthy and beloved Presbyter, who, having served for many years as a missionary in this jurisdiction, is no longer sufficiently vigorous for such labor. The trustees of the General Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergy have already pledged, on my application, the sum of one hundred dollars for this object. I hope that the resolution passed at our last Convention with respect to contributions to the treasury of that corporation has not been forgotten or ignored by the clergy.

The condition and management of our diocesan school for girls, S. Catharine's Hall, have been quite satisfactory during the past year, and its prospects are encouraging. I trust that the members of the Convention will embrace the opportunity now afforded them of inspecting the school, and making such thorough inquiry as shall enable them to speak intelligently to their friends of its standing and advantages. Much more might be done than has been done by the clergy and churchmen of the diocese to direct public patronage to this excellent institution, and in that way to enlarge the sphere of its usefulness. An increased number of pupils would enable the trustees to amplify its equipment, and eventually to reduce the rates of board and tuition, without impairing the efficiency of the instruction. Let me again urge that the endowment of this school, which has already approved itself as a most valuable auxiliary to our general work, should be seriously considered by all who have the progress of that work at heart. Thus far, instead of having any reserve fund, it has been continually burdened by debt. Progress has been recently made toward the liquidation of the debt, but more than this should be sought, and the school put on such a foundation as not to be jeopardized or seriously affected by temporary ebbings of patronage. Through the efforts of one lady of the diocese, appealing chiefly to friends abroad, a scholarship of $3,500 is now complete, the special purpose of which is to enable the daughter of some one of our missionaries, or other clergy, to enjoy the educational advantages of S. Catharine's Hall. It is to bear the name of the dear little child who made the first offering to it from her Lenten savings, and who now rests in Paradise, but it is the product of the offerings of many willing and generous helpers. I trust that this may be but the first of several scholarships, the establishment of which would not only help the school, but serve to extend its benefits where they could not otherwise be afforded.

I have recently been notified that legacies of $600 to the Episcopate Fund of the Diocese and $600 to the Diocesan Missionary Society, under the wills of two ladies of Christ Church, Gardiner, sisters, now deceased, will shortly be paid. It was my privilege to know and minister to one of these ladies in the later years of her life, and I can testify that her posthumous benefactions are by no means the first gifts for which the Church is indebted to her. But her Christian considerateness and that of her sister, in providing for the perpetual continuance of their aid in sustaining and prosecuting the work of the Church in this community, I would especially commend as an example. Why should not many be thus mindful to perpetuate their usefulness as brethren of the household of faith, and prefer to have for their monument some bulwark of the walls of Zion? And what Christian person reflecting at the hour of death upon the errors and shortcomings of his past life, and the evil which may have befallen others through his transgressions or neglects, but would wish to leave some witness still on earth of his desire for God's glory and the benefit of his fellow men; some representative beneficent agency, diffusing blessings which shall plead for him at the bar of judgment? Let no injustice be done, in the final disposition of worldly goods, to the proper claims or reasonable expectation of kindred, but he who would, in that matter, fulfill his Christian obligations, and approve himself as a faithful steward, must at least take into account claims arising from his membership in the body of Christ, as well as those springing from mere natural relations.

Before concluding I wish to make a few remarks upon a subject which, though it does not particularly concern our welfare as an ecclesiastical body, yet has a very close and important relation to the welfare of the whole community, and for that reason cannot be remote from the sphere of our personal or corporate obligations. I refer to the prevalent views with respect to marriage and divorce, and the existing laws of this State pertaining thereto. Without considering these in other relations, no one can compare them with the explicit teachings of our Lord, and with the whole tenor of teaching and legislation on these topics in Christian countries for many hundred years, without instantly perceiving that they are not merely unchristian but distinctly anti-Christian. And this has come to pass not where, as under the old Roman empire, Christians were in the minority, and had but little control of legislation, but in a community where for many generations the people have been universally under Christian instruction, and all law-making has been in the hands of representatives of the people. Laxity of opinion and teaching on the sacredness of the marriage bond, and on the question of divorce, originated among Protestants of Continental Europe in the last century. It soon began to appear in the legislation of Protestant states on that continent, and nearly at the same time to affect the laws of New England. And from that time to the present it has proceeded in this country from one degree to another, until, especially in New England and in States most directly influenced by New England opinions and usages, the Christian conception of the nature and obligations of the marriage bond finds scarcely any recognition in legislation, or, as must thence be inferred, in the prevailing sentiment of the community. How is it in our own State? We seem to have departed farthest of all in this respect from the divine law, reiterated and solemnly re-enacted by Christ. For although the specific offenses on account of which a divorce a vinculo matrimonii may be granted under our statutes are no more numerous than those enumerated in other codes, it is furthermore provided that such divorce may be decreed by any justice of the supreme court "whenever, in the exercise of a sound discretion, he deems it reasonable and proper, conducive to domestic harmony, and consistent with the peace and morality of society, if the parties were married in the state or cohabited there after marriage." Could there be a plainer challenge than this of the authority of our Lord's inhibition, "What God hath joined together let not man put asunder"? And what has been the result of throwing thus wide open a door of legal escape from the sacred obligations of the married state? The ratio of divorces to marriages in Maine is certainly not less than one to ten; and when we consider, furthermore, that no restraint is put upon the remarriage of either party to a divorce, it becomes very evident that we have given place to an evil which, if long tolerated, must prove destructive of the most precious social and moral foundations. This could never have happened against the protest, or without the express or tacit consent, of that portion of the community which professes fidelity to the revealed law of God, and implicit obedience to the precepts of Christ; and therefore it denotes either gross unfaithfulness or gross negligence on the part of Christian organizations in our midst. It is still, as I believe, quite within their power to check and finally to extirpate this growing evil, however difficult it may be to account for or excuse their indulgence toward it in the past; and I rejoice that an influential movement to that end, already begun in other New England states, is receiving the serious attention of some of our own foremost citizens. But I shall have no confidence in the effectiveness of any measures which are not based squarely and uncompromisingly upon the Christian conception and law of marriage, as opposed to the civil contract theory, and to all other theories which do not recognize in marriage a divine institution, imposing of itself peculiar and perpetual obligations which no human hand may justly assume to annul or modify.

I am thankful to be able to say that in all branches of our own communion this principle has continually prevailed, and that our ecclesiastical legislation has been in full accord with it. But from the very fact that we hold this vantage ground, it may be specially incumbent upon us to strive to elevate the general sentiment and practice of the community to the same level otherwise than merely by example, and it is the sense of such a responsibility that has impelled me to speak, as I have done, at the present time. I would suggest the publication of the canon of the General Convention, on Marriage and Divorce, in our Diocesan Journal for this year, and shall be ready to entertain any motion for further action which you may be disposed to take.

I have already referred in this address to several of our losses by death in the course of the past year, but have by no means enumerated all of them. This parish (S. Mark's, Augusta) and community are mourning the departure of two distinguished men, Judge Rice and Mr. J. W. North; S. Paul's, Brunswick, has lost Mr. E. P. Kaler. Sorrow after sorrow has befallen us in the Cathedral congregation by the death of some of its worthiest and most helpful members, and other parishes have had a like experience. We know that our Father's hand is in all this, and we may trust Him to give both comfort and strength according to our need, if we remain steadfast and faithful. But are we prepared to welcome the same summons for ourselves? Have we set our own house in order? Are we so living the life of the righteous that we may die the death of the righteous? Are the works which shall follow us into the next world works which shall win for us the commendation of good and faithful servants?

REPORTS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

A Report of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese respectfully report that they have signed testimonials on behalf of the Rev. Cortlandt Whitehead, D.D., Bishop elect of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, and on behalf of the Rev. Arthur Wilde Little, Deacon, for Priest's orders, and of Messrs. George Samuel Hill and John Howard Veazey, for Deacon's orders. They have also recommended Messrs. George Herbert Davis and Carrell Everett Harding, Postulants, as Candidates for Holy orders.

GEORGE E. B. JACKSON, Secretary.

B Registrar's Report.

The Registrar respectfully reports that with the exception of the usual Diocesan Journals, no additions have been made to the Cathedral library during the past year.

C. MORTON SILLS, Registrar.

C Report of Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall.

The Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall respectfully report that the past year has been one of much encouragement in satisfactory work done in the school and in many signs of increased interest on the part of both teachers and pupils. The number of pupils has increased during the past year; the present year closing with a quarter more than last. The Trustees have every confidence that the school under its present efficient management will not fail to recommend itself to the favorable estimation and patronage of parents and guardians. A scholarship fund of $3,500 called the Louise Cotheal Fund has been inaugurated and nearly completed through the efforts of Mrs. Neely. It is hoped that this instance of diligent and wise effort will be seconded by others, so that the advantages of the school may be extended more widely to the daughters of the clergy of Maine. Gifts in any form, of money, or articles useful for the equipment of the school, such as maps, philosophical and astronomical instruments, books for the library, etc., are much needed and earnestly solicited. A donation of $200 from Mr. J. H. M'Mullan toward the repairs of the Hall made during the last summer is acknowledged with thanks.

SAMUEL UPJOHN, Secretary.

REMARKS.

TRINITY CHURCH, SACO.

The Rev. Edwin F. Small.

A chapel, to be called St. John's by-the-Sea, is now in process of erection at Old Orchard Beach, which will be ready for occupancy about the middle of July next. This building is 60 x 30, with accommodation for 200 adults, and is located on a lot 100 feet square, given in trust to the Trustees of the Episcopate Fund in 1874 by Mrs. Williams, now deceased. Services will be held every Sunday evening during July and August by the Rector of Saco, and on Sunday mornings whenever practicable. It is hoped that sufficient funds will be collected this year to finish the chapel this Fall.

TRINITY CHURCH, LEWISTON.

W. H. Washburn.

The new church is almost completed. We have had a long, hard struggle to carry on this work, but are well satisfied with the result, as we have a very pretty and substantial building. When it is finished we shall lack about $400 of enough to pay all the bills. We hope to be able to raise this before long, and have the church consecrated.

S. STEPHEN'S CHURCH, PORTLAND.

The Rev. Asa Dalton.

Thirty-three names have been dropped from the list of Communicants, nothing having been known of said persons for over twenty years.

S. MATTHEW'S, HALLOWELL.

The Rev. Medville McLaughlin.

The following amounts came too late for insertion in the Tables of Statistics: Current expenses, $445.95; schools, $10.50; building vestry, $450.00.

BOSTON, June 16th, 1882.

The Rev. G. T. Packard respectfully reports that since the last Convention he has been unable to officiate, owing to continued ill health, and has been engaged in literary work.

REPORT.

The Rector, Warden, and Vestrymen of S. Luke's Church, Portland, Me., respectfully report to the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of S. Luke, that, during the past year, there have been some small repairs made to the Cathedral building, and that it is now in a fair state of repair and will not require any large outlay of money during the coming year, unless it is decided to make some permanent alterations or additions to the Porch.

The Canon's house is not in so satisfactory a condition, and will require a considerable expenditure to be made upon it, if it is to continue to be used for a residence for the Resident Canon.

The insurance on the property expired during the past year, and has been renewed as follows: Fifteen thousand dollars on the Cathedral building, two thousand dollars on the organ, two thousand dollars on the Canon's house, all on five years' policies.

For an itemized statement of the amount spent for repairs we refer you to Financial Statement of Easter Monday, 1883.

HENRY INGALLS,
WILLIAM P. MOODY,
S. T. CORSER,

The report of the Standing Committee on Unfinished Business was presented by the Chairman as follows :

REPORT.

The Standing Committee on Unfinished Business respectfully report that there remained on the Journal of the last Convention the following unfinished business, viz.: Reports from the following committees :

Committee on the Ratification of the Book of Common Prayer.

Committee on Divorce Legislation.

Committee on obtaining Act of Incorporation for Trustees of Fund for Aged and Disabled Clergy.

Committee on Plan of the American Church Building Commission.

Committee on Canons with reference to the more accurate reporting of communicants.

It will also be the duty of the Convention to elect one Honorary Canon of the Cathedral.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

C. MORTON SILLS,
W. A. FISKE,
E. P. LEE,
J. W. YORK.

The report of the Committee on obtaining an Act of Incorporation for the Trustees of a Fund for Infirm and Disabled Clergy was made verbally, and to the effect that the Legislature had objected to pass any special act referring to this matter, on the ground that previous legislation had rendered such special act unnecessary.

The action of the Committee on Divorce Legislation was referred to at some length in the Bishop's Address, so much so that any further report on their part seemed unnecessary.

On motion, the following resolution introduced by Col. C. B. Merrill was unanimously passed by a rising vote.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention are herewith extended to the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Quebec for his able and timely sermon delivered this morning before this Convention.

His Lordship, in reply, spoke briefly of the gratification he felt at the reception given him by the Diocese, and expressed his pleasure at being able in any degree to assist in furthering the work of the Church in Maine.

The Standing Committee on Canons reported on the resolution committed to them at the last session of the Convention, and referring to the more uniform method of reporting communicants, as follows :

Whereas, it is a matter of common observation that, in the manner of accounting and reporting communicants among the clergy, and consequent inaccuracy, and, whereas, it is important that our annual statistics give as true a statement of the membership of the Church as may be, therefore,

Resolved, That the following be adopted as Section 2, Canon VII, of the Canons of this Diocese.

(1) In reporting communicants, the minister shall report the whole number of those who, having been confirmed, have received, and who have not been transferred, or who have not permanently removed, to any other parish or mission or out of the Diocese. (2) He shall also report the number of those who have received during the year last past, and he shall keep the congregation informed of this regulation and of its intent.

It was moved and seconded,

"That the report of the Committee be accepted and the resolution contained therein adopted."

The matter was under discussion when the Convention was adjourned till to-morrow morning at half past nine o'clock.

WEDNESDAY.

The Holy Communion was celebrated at 7 A.M., Rev. Canon Sills being celebrant, assisted by Rev. Canon Washburn. Morning Prayer was said at 9 o'clock by Rev. Messrs. Pratt and Pyne.

After prayers, the minutes of yesterday's session were read by the Secretary, and, being amended by the withdrawal of the name of the Rev. Leverett Bradley from the list of Supplemental Delegates, were approved.

Three Lay Deputies absent yesterday were reported present to-day.

The Standing Committee on Finance reported that they had examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, and had found them correctly cast and properly vouched.

The report of the Standing Committee on Canons was then taken up for discussion.

It was moved in amendment that the part of the Canon referring to the reporting of Communicants be stricken out.

After some debate, it was resolved to refer the Canon back to the Committee to report before the close of the Convention.

The Annual Report of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall was presented by the Secretary, the Rev. Canon Upjohn.*

The Registrar presented his annual report. †

On motion, the proposed amendment of the Constitution of the Diocese referring to the time of meeting of the Annual Convention was ratified.

It was voted that the Standing Committee of the Diocese be appointed the Committee on Diocesan Assessments.

On motion, it was resolved that the same number of Journals as last year be printed and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

*Appendix II, C. †Appendix II, B.

On motion, the same appropriation from the Diocesan Fund as last year was made to the editor of the Diocesan paper—"The North East."

The Secretary was directed to print the Canon on Divorce referred to in the Bishop's Address of 1882, in the Journal of this Convention.

The Committee on the Communication from the General Convention, concerning the Ratification of the Book of Common Prayer, presented as their report the following resolution, and moved its adoption.

Resolved, That it is inexpedient for this Convention to assent to the same.

Carried.

On motion, it was resolved that the thanks of the Convention be tendered to the Clergy and congregation of the Cathedral for the cordial hospitality and generous entertainment extended to the members of this Convention.

The Standing Committee on Canons, referring to the Canon recommitted to them, reported a majority and minority report. The former merely defining who are to be called communicants of this Church, and being the part marked (1) of their former report; the latter being the whole report as originally presented (see page 13).

It was moved and seconded,

That the minority report be substituted for that of the majority.

Lost.

On motion, the majority report was adopted, and made Section I of Canon VII.

The Report of the Standing Committee of the Diocese on the Table of Assessments for the Diocesan Fund was presented as follows :

APPENDIX I.

A.

The Bishop's Address.

MY DEAR BRETHREN:—Giving thanks to God for all His mercies toward us in the past, and imploring His blessing on our present deliberations and future labors, I proceed to report my official acts for the year just closed.

On the day of adjournment of our last Convention, June 21st, I presided at the anniversary exercises of S. Catharine's Hall, and the Right Rev. the Coadjutor Bishop of Fredericton kindly made an address to the pupils. On the following day I participated in the examination of Mr. William Lionel Watson, a candidate for deacon's orders, and on Friday, June 23d, ordained him to the diaconate, in the Cathedral. The candidate was presented by the Rev. Canon Upjohn, and the Rev. Canon Sills and the Rev. Arthur W. Little assisted in the service. On the same day a license as lay reader was given to Carroll Everett Harding, a candidate for holy orders in this diocese.

On Sunday, June 25th, by request of the President of Trinity College, Hartford, I preached the baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class, in Christ Church, in that city.

For a month after this time I was continually on duty at the Cathedral. On the 14th of July I transferred the Rev. Wm. W. DeHart to the diocese of New York. Proceeding on the 24th of this month to a brief visitation of the Aroostook Missions, I held a service on the evening of the 25th at Houlton, and on the next day baptized a child in that place. On the 28th preached at Evening Prayer in S. James' Church, Van Buren. On the 29th, in the Church of the Advent, Limestone, preached and confirmed one candidate. On Sunday, the 30th, preached, confirmed five candidates, and celebrated the Holy Communion in S. Paul's, Fort Fairfield. In the afternoon preached at Caribou, and in the evening preached, and confirmed two candidates in S. John's, Presque Isle. At evening prayer, Aug. 1st, I preached in Emmanuel Church, Ashland, being assisted in the service by Revs. Sawyer, Jones, and Watson. No candidates for confirmation were here presented.

During my absence on this journey, Canon Sills being also absent in England, the daily service in the Cathedral was undertaken, at my request, by Mr. Henry Babb Carleton, at that time awaiting his ordination to the diaconate, having completed a full theological course and passed all the required examinations. But it pleased Almighty God to withhold him from the work for which he had so diligently prepared himself, and to call him to a more blissful service. On Sunday, the 10th day of September, he passed from this to the higher life, from earthly scenes and employments to the vision and the condition of the children of God in the eternal world. His unlooked-for departure was a source of poignant grief to his loving relatives and many ardent friends, but I rejoice to know that they upon whom the blow fell most heavily were enabled to bear it with a true Christian submissiveness and to say from the heart, "It is the Lord, let Him do what seemeth Him good." Mr. Carleton had given promise of being very useful in the work of the ministry, and was anticipating with much pleasure his entrance upon that work.

My heart was saddened about the same time by the loss of other dear friends and helpers. On one day in August two were stricken down at my side, Mr. James T. McCobb and Mr. W. H. Stephenson. Mr. McCobb had been long and prominently identified with the work of the Church both in the parish and the diocese. He was an honored citizen, a steadfast, sympathetic, generous friend; a man ready for every good work, and the departure of such an one could not but be mourned by the whole community. Mr. Stephenson had been an invalid for a considerable period, and withdrawn on that account from active life, but his interest in spiritual things increased with the decline of his physical powers, and the ministrations of the Church were very precious to him.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 6, I preached and confirmed one candidate in S. Philip's Church, Wiscasset. On Saturday, the 9th, I baptized and confirmed a young man in the Cathedral. On the 12th I officiated at the funeral of Henry Babb Carleton, in Rockport. On the 19th and 20th I presided at a meeting of our Diocesan Board of Missions in Gardiner. On the 21st, S. Matthew's Day, I officiated at morning prayer in S. Paul's, Brunswick, and baptized the infant child of the rector.

On Sunday, the 24th, I preached twice in S. Anne's, Calais, confirmed three candidates, and celebrated the Holy Communion, and notwithstanding a heavy rain throughout the day, the congregations were good, and the participation in the services general and hearty. On Tuesday evening, Sept. 26th, I preached and confirmed seven candidates in Christ Church, Eastport. The Rev. H. M. Jarvis, at that time rector of this parish, has recently resigned, and been transferred to the diocese of Virginia.

On Friday, Sept. 29, I consecrated to the honor and worship of Almighty God the new and beautiful church at Lewiston, under the name of Trinity Church. Revs. H. P. Nichols and A. W. Little assisted in the subsequent service, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. Canon Upjohn. A second service was held in the evening, at which I preached. I trust that the completion of this excellent church, for which we are largely indebted to friends in other dioceses, may mark the beginning of an era of great prosperity for the parish.

During the greater part of the months of October and November, I was absent from the diocese, and although not wholly disengaged from labor on its behalf, a particular report of my acts for that period, none of them being of a strictly official character, seems unnecessary. But I cannot refrain from placing on record here an event occurring during that period, which has already been recorded, not only in many documents, but many hearts, the death of the late secretary of our committee for Domestic Missions, Rev. Dr. Alvi Tabor Twing, on the 11th day of November. The circumstances of his death are already so generally known that it cannot be needful to describe them again. It will be enough to say that the summons reached him when engaged as earnestly and laboriously as ever before in the prosecution of the great missionary work to which he was so heartily devoted, and in which he had been so eminently successful. It was his part not to go out into the field as a missionary, but to succor, encourage, and provide for all the missionaries, and scarcely could one be found better qualified than he for such an office. An excellent organizer, enthusiastic, sympathetic, his voice was always potent in council and effective in appeal. Every missionary felt that he had in the secretary a personal friend. He was a welcome visitor in every parish, and seldom failed to awaken a new interest in the missionary cause. Up to this time his place has not been filled, and the cause of Domestic Missions will be fortunate if even at the approaching General Convention a worthy successor to him can be named.

On the 5th and 6th of December I presided at a meeting of our Diocesan Board of Missions in Bangor. At the same time, I confirmed in S. John's church five candidates presented by the Rector, Rev. Dr. Fiske, and subsequently two sick persons at their own house.

After this time, during the winter months and the season of Lent, I was constantly engaged in priestly and pastoral work at the Cathedral. My Episcopal acts for the same period were as follows, viz.:

Jan. 17. Gave my consent to the consecration of the Rev. Hugh Miller Thompson, D.D., as Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Mississippi.

Jan. 19. Confirmed in the Cathedral a young man residing at East Sumner, Maine.

Jan. 22. Admitted George W. Raeburn as a candidate for Priest's Orders.

Jan. 25. S. Paul's Day. Celebrated the 16th anniversary of my consecration in the Cathedral. Received the Rev. Edward P. Lee, Priest, from the Diocese of Vermont.

Feb. 11. 1st Sunday in Lent. Officiated for Rev. Canon Washburn in Trinity Church, Lewiston, and, on the same day, confirmed in that parish a sick man at his own house.

Feb. 16. One of the Lenten Ember Days. Ordained to the Priesthood, in the Cathedral, William Dickinson Martin, Deacon. The candidate was presented by the Rev. Canon Sills, and the Rev. A. W. Little and the Rev. Edward P. Lee united with the Bishop and Canon Sills in the laying on of hands. Sermon by the Bishop.

March 23. Good Friday. Preached, and confirmed thirty-six candidates presented by the Rev. A. W. Little, in S. Paul's church, Portland.

March 25. Easter Day. Confirmed fourteen persons in the Cathedral.

In the month of March, on the 5th day, occurred the death of Mr. James B. Fiske of Bangor, one of the oldest officers and staunchest supporters of S. John's parish, a man of singular purity as well as strength of character, whose influence was of great value to the cause of the Church in the community, and whose decease involves a serious loss to the diocese as well as to the parish.

On the 21st of this month the Rev. Dr. James S. Purdy, for a short time, several years since, engaged in pastoral work in this diocese, and still canonically connected with the diocese, died at Saratoga, N. Y. Dr. Purdy was a man of excellent learning and ability, and in the earlier years of his ministry did efficient service for the Church. But for a considerable time before his decease he had been incompetent for the discharge of official duties, and lived in retirement, amongst loving relatives and friends. I am assured that he bore the pains of a prolonged illness with exemplary fortitude, and died peacefully.

The beginning of my spring visitation has been already noted in the confirmations at S. Paul's and the Cathedral, Portland.

On Easter Tuesday, at Evening Prayer in Trinity church, Lewiston, I preached, and confirmed a class of fifteen candidates. On the following day, I presided at the business session and concluding services of a meeting of our Board of Missions in the same place.

On Thursday, March 29, I visited S. Mark's Church, Waterville, preached, and confirmed one candidate.

Friday evening, March 20, preached at Richmond, in the hall newly obtained and tastefully fitted up through the exertions of the Rev. Mr. Wellman, for the celebration of Divine service.

On the first Thursday after Easter, April 1, I preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed seventeen candidates in S. Mark's Church, Augusta, in the morning, and preached, and confirmed one candidate in Christ's Church, Gardiner, in the evening.

S. Mark's parish has suffered a serious loss in the decease of one of its wardens, Mr. Edward Rowse. He was a devout and thorough churchman, a quiet but steadfast supporter of all churchly enterprises, and highly respected for the sterling qualities of his character. I feel myself bereft by his death of a most trustworthy and earnest helper.

On the 13th, at the request of the Bishop of New York, I confirmed a class of twenty-eight candidates, at Hyde Park, in his Diocese.

Trinity Church, Saco, and Christ Church, Biddeford, were visited April 15, the third Sunday after Easter. In the former parish I preached, celebrated Holy Communion, and confirmed two candidates, and in the latter, preached, and confirmed seven candidates. An effort is now making to complete the church building at Biddeford, which I earnestly hope may be successful.

April 19, I admitted Mr. Frederick H. Rowse as a candidate for Priest's Orders.

On Sunday, April 22d, I preached, and celebrated the Holy Communion in Grace Church, Bath, in the morning, and, in the evening, preached, and confirmed nine candidates in S. Paul's Church, Brunswick.

It is with great regret that I have felt constrained to accept the proffered resignation of the Rev. Harry P. Nichols as rector of S. Paul's, Brunswick, and to consent to his departure from the diocese. For six years past he has labored most efficiently, not only for the welfare of the parish, but for the various interests of the diocese, and his helpful hand will be sorely missed by all of us. His loyal and loving service will long be remembered by me, and I pray for his abundant success and continued happiness in the wider sphere of parochial labor to which he has been called. I have been officially notified of the election of the Rev. George A. Holbrook as the successor of Mr. Nichols, but am not as yet assured of his acceptance of the call.

On the Sunday after Ascension, May 6, I preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed five candidates in S. John's, Bangor, preached and confirmed one person in S. James', Oldtown, and held a full evening service in S. Peter's, Milford.

On Tuesday in Whitsun week, May 15, on the request of the Bishop of New York and the Rev. Dr. Morgan, Rector of the parish, I consecrated S. Thomas' Church, New York City.

On Trinity Sunday, May 20, I preached twice, confirmed four candidates, celebrated Holy Communion, and catechised the children of the Sunday-school, in S. Saviour's Church, Bar Harbor.

On the 22d, I preached in the hall occupied, for the present, by the congregation of S. Peter's Church, Rockland. Extensive repairs are needed upon the church building in this parish, if it is to be saved from utter destruction.

In the Church of S. John, Baptist, Thomaston, on the evening of the 23d of May, I preached and confirmed one candidate. The new pipe organ erected in this church in the course of the past year is a very satisfactory instrument.

On Friday evening, May 25, at a service for deaf mutes, conducted by the Rev. Dr. Gallaudet of New York, in the Cathedral, I confirmed one deaf mute presented by him.

On Wednesday evening, May 30, in Holy Trinity Mission, Exeter, I preached and confirmed three candidates presented by the Rev. Geo. S. Hill. On the following evening I preached in the Church of the Messiah, Dexter. The closing of the principal mills in this manufacturing village has seriously affected, for the time being, both the numbers and the ability of the members of the parish.

On Friday, June 8th, I visited for the second time the village of Buckfield, in Oxford County, one of the places in which Rev. Mr. Lee has been recently holding services, preached, and confirmed five persons presented by Mr. Lee. The deep and wide-spread interest here manifested in the ministrations of the Church is very gratifying and encouraging.

The general condition of our parishes and missions and the proceedings of our Board of Missions being reported from month to month in the NORTH EAST, it has seemed to me unnecessary to refer to them more particularly in this account of my official acts. In two of the more important parishes no candidates for confirmation were presented during the past year, but, nevertheless, owing to the exceptionally large classes in two or three parishes, and the efficient efforts of our itinerant missionary, the Rev. E. P. Lee, the aggregate of confirmations is somewhat above that of last year. Mr. Lee's report for five months fully justifies our conceptions of the importance of the work assigned to him, and more than justifies our anticipations of results to proceed from such work. It exhibits very plainly the fact that our opportunities and therefore our obligations are greater than we had imagined. There is everywhere indicated a no small degree of preparedness for the sober teachings and methods of the Church, a readiness to hear and consider what we have to present, and oftentimes a spiritual craving which at once recognizes in what we bring the means of its satisfaction, and rejoices with an exceeding great joy in the discovery. I very earnestly hope that it may be found practicable to maintain this new missionary agency, which has already been productive of very gratifying results.

The condition of our diocesan school for girls, S. Catharine's Hall, has been very satisfactory during the past year. The number of pupils in attendance has been nearly as large as could well be received, there has been no prevailing sickness among them, and most of them have made creditable progress in their studies. Some considerable improvements have been made upon the buildings, and others to promote the greater comfort of the household are contemplated for the present summer. The help of the churchmen of the diocese is earnestly solicited in providing steam apparatus for the heating of the buildings. The number of graduates for this year is expected to be unusually large, but I am assured that accessions already in prospect will quite fill the places thus vacated.

Overtures were made to me last summer for the establishment of another Church school in the northern part of the state. I was much gratified by the expression of such a desire from the people of that locality, and the conditions proposed by me having been acceded to, it is probable that a school will be opened at Presque Isle in the course of the coming autumn. It will meet a real and urgent educational want of the community, and I have little doubt that it will be abundantly sustained.

It may be permissible for me to report here that as chairman of the committee appointed at the last Convention "to consider the subject of the divorce laws in the state of Maine, and the expediency of a petition to the legislature for their judicious modification in the interest of a sound morality," I appeared before the judiciary committee of the legislature with a petition for such amendments of the existing divorce laws as your committee had agreed upon. It was not to be expected that changes so radical as those proposed by us, in conformity with the law of the Church, would be at once allowed; but the result of our appeal, in conjunction with strong and influential petitions from other sources, was a very important modification of the divorce law of the state, clearing it of those features most grossly objectionable from a social point of view, and adding provisions which will probably go far to check a great and growing evil. But let us pray that the people of this goodly state of ours, having already taken so worthy a step, may be unwilling to rest short of an adequate expression of the one true conception of marriage, and of the obligations of the state of marriage, upon the statute book.

Having spoken thus far of affairs within this diocese, and chiefly of my own share in them, I add a few words respecting the condition of the Church at large. Every year men of prominence and repute as leaders in theological movements, or in ecclesiastical administration, are taken away. In the course of the past year two men who had exercised a very remarkable influence upon their generation have been taken from the English Church, Archbishop Tait and Dr. Pusey. One of our own most active bishops, Bishop Talbot of Indiana, and several distinguished presbyters (among them Prof. Edwin E. Johnson, formerly of this diocese, and well remembered by some of you) have been removed by death. No doubt such losses and the changes consequent upon them must affect in some way the welfare of the Church, but not at all as if the strength and progress of the Church were dependent upon mere human agents and oftentimes what seemed to be an irreparable loss (as when some grand leader has been stricken down by the hand of violence) has resulted to the manifest advantage of the cause and kingdom of Christ. While therefore we cannot but deplore the removal of tried and able champions from the ranks of the Church militant, we should in no case speak of it as a calamity, or suffer it to be a source of discouragement, for so God is still working out the fulfillment of His wise and gracious purposes.

And the same steadfast confidence should be maintained by us in the face of what may seem to be far graver forms of adversity or evil threatening the peace and integrity of the Church. New weapons are forged in every age against the revealed Word of God in the workshops of an unbelieving philosophy, and the exulting clamors of an unbelieving world rend the heavens again when some new Goliath sends forth his boastful challenge to the hosts of Israel. But as in all the past that divine promise has been made good, "No weapon formed against thee shall prosper," and a David has never been wanting to Israel, so it shall be in the future, for "the Lord of hosts is with us and the God of Jacob is our refuge." Nor should we be at all surprised or amazed when some who have been set to defend the ramparts of Zion, either through treachery, or cowardice, or the wiles of the adversary, or the entrance of an evil spirit of unbelief into their own hearts, are heard to propose concessions and compromises, and to prophesy all manner of disaster, unless we shall not only change our mode of defense, but abandon the only bulwarks from which the citadel of the faith can be defended. Strange even to absurdity is such a proposal as that now heard from certain avowedly Christian teachers, that believers should accept a view of the Bible presented by a school of criticism whose utmost conception of the supernatural is that of an Epicurean Deism, and which holds as utterly incredible that prime fact of our religion concerning which S. Paul declares that if it be not a fact "then is our preaching vain and your faith is also vain." But whatever may be the duty of the Church, in her disciplinary capacity, in such a case, the case itself presents or suggests no danger which has not been a thousand times encountered and repelled, and the duty of the individual members of the Church is still to take to themselves and rest upon the assurance, "In quietness and confidence shall be your strength." In spite of all adversaries and adverse influences the Church is even now achieving conquests in the heathen world which rival those of the first ages, and whatever tokens there may be of a decline of faith in any Christian nation, they are more than matched by labors of faith and love which honor Christ and testify to His abiding presence with His people.

Fidelity to Him who hath loved us and given Himself for us, faithfulness in the discharge of the stewardship which He has committed to us, fruitfulness in all good works, to the glory of His name, this only need be our concern. The ark of God is in stronger hands than ours.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

A Report of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese respectfully report the following official acts: Testimonials have been signed on behalf of Henry Babb Carleton and William Lionel Watson, for Deacon's Orders, and of Rev. Messrs. John Howard Veazey and William Dickinson Martin, Deacons, for Priest's Orders, and of Messrs. George W. Raeburn and Frederick Herbert Rowse, Postulants, for admission as Candidates for Holy Orders. They have also given their consent to the consecration of the Reverend Hugh Miller Thompson, D.D., as Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Mississippi.

GEORGE E. B. JACKSON, Secretary.

B Registrar's Report.

The Registrar respectfully reports that in addition to the usual number of Diocesan Journals, he has received for the Cathedral Library during the past year, ten volumes of theological works from the library of the late Mr. Henry Babb Carleton; a Hebrew Bible from the Rev. Mr. Allen; an excellent likeness of the late Bishop Burgess; the "Official Year Book of the Church of England," presented by Mr. Geo. E. B. Jackson; "A Memorial of George Edward Hayes," presented by Rev. C. W. Hayes; a "Facsimile of Church Documents," published by the Historical Club of the American Church, and a Digest of the Councils of the Diocese of Virginia, presented by the Bishop of the Diocese.

C. MORTON SILLS, Registrar.

C Report of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall.

The Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall respectfully report to this Convention that the school for the year now closing has fulfilled in all respects the promise of its first year under the supervision of Madame Mondan. There has been an average attendance of thirty boarding and twenty day pupils. A large class will graduate at the approaching commencement, while there is every prospect that the number thus withdrawn from the school will be made up by new accessions. During the year a debt of $1000 has been paid, and a small balance will be left in the treasury after all current bills are discharged. A new heating apparatus and an adequate water supply are greatly needed for the school building, and the Trustees appeal to the friends of S. Catharine's to assist them in carrying out this important improvement.

SAMUEL UPJOHN, Secretary.

REPORT OF EXAMINERS OF S. CATHARINE'S HALL

The committee appointed to examine S. Catharine's Hall would report, that it was in attendance on Monday and Tuesday, June 19th and 20th.

In general, the methods of examination conformed to those of previous years. The committee was glad to notice a partial fulfillment of the promise of last year in the improved systematizing of the different grades.

Something yet remains to be done in this direction. As far as possible scholars should be classed with those of similar attainments, that thus too great advantages may not be given to some and too great discouragements forced upon others. The recitations were interesting and well sustained,—interesting because the scholars seemed to enjoy them, and well sustained because of their proficiency in studies. The committee have nothing but words of commendation for the good work done through the year.

The good will and kindly interest existing between the teachers and the scholars is again worthy of special notice. The school gives the impression of a Christian home, where familiarity and discipline have each their place, but where the lines between the two are not rigidly drawn by laws and specific rules, but by mutual respect and esteem and that appreciation of personal duty which makes all dutiful to others as well as self.

The committee expresses its regrets at the withdrawal of several teachers, especially that one who has made the musical department of the school brilliantly successful by more than a half decade of years of faithful service. It is perhaps proper to state that the principal of the school hopes to present a full corps of teachers at the beginning of the new year.

Among the wants of the school may be mentioned better appliances for instruction in chemistry and natural philosophy. Is it too much to hope that kind friends of the school will see that these deficiencies are not so noticeable another year?

Before closing the committee would suggest that in the future something be done by way of developing the speaking voice. It is a common fault of the day that scholars do not get the tones of their voices outside their mouths. The scholars at the Hall are open to this criticism. Brief breathing and vocalizing exercises in connection with calisthenics would, in the mind of the committee, prove exceedingly helpful toward making further criticism upon this point impossible.

REMARKS.

TRINITY CHURCH, SACO.

The Rev. Edwin F. Small.

There have been held in S. John's-by-the-Sea at Old Orchard sixteen Sunday services since June 1, 1882, with a good attendance. Two windows given by church women from abroad have been placed in the chapel, the cost of which was $100, and other gifts from friends in New York have likewise been received. The amount contributed at the offertory was $264.82, and from entertainments, etc., $162.29, making a total of $427.11. The interior of the chapel is not yet finished, but services will be held during the present season.

S. JAMES' CHURCH, OLDTOWN.

Geo. T. Sewall, Warden.

Clerical services have been held during the year by the Bishop at his regular visit, and also by the Rev. Joseph W. Hill, of New York, and the Rev. John M. Bates of Waterville, Me.

S. THOMAS' CHURCH, WINN.

The Rev. J. H. Veasey.

The increase of thirteen reported communicants over last year is accounted for by the fact that before I had not the parish record at hand and reported only those I had been able to find, but the record shows 18 still living in this vicinity. Some of them ought to be stricken off the list, however, and will be when we shall have Holy Communion so as to apply the Diocesan Canon upon that point.

EMMANUEL CHURCH, ASHLAND.

The Rev. W. Lionel Watson.

In making out report I mentioned families whom I am accustomed to visit, and who come to church and contribute something to support services. There are not more than twelve actually connected with the Mission. I made no account of Masardis. If I should it would make the number of families fifteen more, and total of offerings $12.88 larger, in all $200.04. This report embraces only nine months from the time I came here till Easter. I find, by referring to Mr. Jones' account, there was $9.17 given at the offertory from last Easter till the time I came. I do not know how much he received in other ways. Making sum total, so far as I am able to ascertain, $209.21; at the offertory, total, $38.48.

TRINITY CHURCH, LEWISTON.

The Rev. W. H. Washburn.

Since the last Convention the new church has been completed and consecrated. The old building has been torn down and we shall utilize the materials, as far as possible, in the construction of a rectory, which was begun in May last. This we hope to have far enough along by October so that it may be occupied in an unfinished state.

THE CHURCH OF THE MESSIAH, DEXTER.

The Rev. Wm. D. Martin.

As the within report is very misleading as to the strength of the parish, I have thought it best to tabulate it as follows. Communicants are thus distributed, viz.: In Dexter village, 25; Dexter township, 9; Guilford, 6; Sanguerville, 6; Boston, 2; Skowhegan, 1; Lewiston, 1; Corinna Center, 1; Anson, 2; New York, 1; Hartland, 1; North Gray, 2; Pittsfield, 2; Total, 59. Families in Dexter, 13; in Dexter township, 2; Total, 15.

S. JOHN'S CHURCH, DRESDEN AND MISSION AT RICHMOND.

The Rev. Merritt H. Wellman.

An improved condition at Richmond from last year consists chiefly in a hall tastefully fitted up, and held for our church uses exclusively.

The Rev. George T. Packard respectfully reports, that, during the past year, as in the year previous, he has been engaged in literary work, being unable, on account of his health, to do clerical work. In making this report, he wishes to record his growing appreciation of the inestimable privilege of those who can give themselves wholly to the ministry of our Lord and His Church.

REPORT OF THE TRAVELING MISSIONARY FOR THE DIOCESE OF MAINE.

KENNEBUNK.—Families, 4; Individuals, 20; Individuals not included in families, 5; Baptisms, infants, 1; Communicants, males 2, females 6.

Services:—First service held Jan. 21, 1883, and every third Sunday in each month thereafter; 5 services in all to June 1st. Holy Communion, at each monthly service, 5 public. Sunday-school, none. Offerings, $25.10.

The services are held in an unoccupied store, which has been occasionally used as a school-room. The people, who are all earnestly devoted to the Church, have arranged a temporary chancel with a plain altar rail, and with other furniture, though rude, yet the appearance is quite churchly. Some friends of S. Stephen's parish, Lynn, Mass., have contributed a handsome altar cloth, which adds much to the appearance of the temporary chancel.

NORTH GRAY.—Families, 1; Individuals, 5; Individuals not included in families, 1; Communicants 2, 1 male, 1 female.

Services:—First service held in school-house Sexagesima Sunday, Jan. 28, 1883, and every fourth Sunday thereafter in each month till March; 3 services in all. Since that time the services have been discontinued. Holy Communion, none; Sunday-school, none; Offerings, none.

NORTH BERWICK.—Families, 1; Individuals, 3; Communicants, 1 male.

Services:—First service held in the afternoon of Quinquagesima Sunday, and thereafter every third Sunday afternoon of each month in connection with Kennebunk; 5 services in all. Holy Communion, none; Sunday-school, none; Offerings, none.

BUCKFIELD.—Families, 4; Individuals, 20; Communicants, females 7, males 1; Baptisms, adults 2, infants 4; Confirmed, males 1, females 4.

Services:—The missionary visited this place in February, but the first service was not held till the first Sunday in April. Since that time there have been held 8 services, making 10 in all, including those Sundays at which there were two services. Two of these services were on week days at which the Bishop was present. The services as now established are the second Sunday of each month. Holy Communion, 3; Sunday-school, none; Offerings, none.

Beside these services the missionary has visited the parish at Camden, March 4, 1883, and held two services, morning and evening, one child baptized, and also on the same day he held a cottage service in the house of Mr. Carleton at Rockport. April 22d and May 6th he held two services each day in S. Mark's Church, Waterville.

At times when not otherwise engaged the missionary has attended the Cathedral and assisted in the public ministrations when his services were needed.

CANON VII.

*§ I In reporting communicants the minister shall report the whole number of those who having been confirmed, have received, and who have not been transferred, or who have not permanently removed to any other parish or mission or out of the Diocese.

§ II It shall be the duty of all ministers of this Diocese to report to the Bishop the names of such persons as may come to their knowledge, who are attached to our Communion, and who are inhabitants of towns where there is no Episcopal congregation; and it shall be the duty of the several Rectors in this Diocese to give the Bishop early notice of the removal of any of their parishioners to such towns.

CANON—OF MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.

§ I If any persons be joined together otherwise than as God's Word doth allow, their marriage is not lawful.

§ II No minister, knowingly, after due inquiry, shall solemnize the marriage of any person who has a divorced husband or wife still living, if such husband or wife has been put away for any cause arising after marriage; but this Canon shall not be held to apply to the innocent party in a divorce for the cause of adultery, or to parties once divorced seeking to be united again.

§ III If any minister of this Church shall have reasonable cause to doubt whether a person desirous of being admitted to Holy Baptism, or to Confirmation, or to the Holy Communion, has been married otherwise than as the Word of God and discipline of this Church doth allow, such minister before receiving such person to these ordinances shall refer the case to the Bishop for his godly judgment thereupon:—Provided, however, that no minister shall, in any case, refuse the Sacraments to a penitent person in imminent danger of death.

§ IV Questions touching the facts of any case arising under Section II of this Canon shall be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese or Missionary Jurisdiction in which the same may occur; or, if there be no Bishop of such Diocese or Missionary Jurisdiction, then to some Bishop to be designated by the Standing Committee; and the Bishop to whom such questions have been so referred shall thereupon make inquiry in such manner as he shall deem expedient; and shall deliver his judgment in the premises.

§ V This Canon, so far as it affixes penalties, does not apply to cases occurring before it takes effect according to Canon 4, Title IV.†

The Convention resumed its session.

The names of members absent at the morning session were called, and one priest, one deacon, and three lay deputies reported themselves present.

The Bishop delivered his annual address.*

According to Art. II. Sect. 3 of the Constitution of the Cathedral, the Bishop nominated as Honorary Canons the Rev. Canon Leffingwell to serve for two years, and the Rev. Mr. Pyne to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of the Rev. Canon Upjohn, and to serve for three years.

On motion these nominations were confirmed by the Convention.

On motion the Standing Committee of the diocese was appointed the committee on Diocesan assessments.

The President appointed Rev. Messrs. Little, Ogden, and Richardson as a committee on examination of S. Catharine's Hall, to report to the Trustees of the same.

The following resolution was introduced by the Rev. Mr. Little.

Resolved, That in the event of the election of a rector, it shall be the duty of the Wardens at once to give notice of the fact to the ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese as set forth in the office of institution of ministers, and the rectorship shall date from the time of institution, or of the receiving of the letters of institution. Thereupon, the ecclesiastical authority of the diocese being satisfied that the rector elect is a qualified presbyter of this church, shall proceed to institute him, or shall at least transmit to him a letter of institution.

On motion this resolution was referred to the Standing Committee on Canons.

The Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of Saint Luke's Church, Portland, Me., respectfully report to the Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Luke, that the Cathedral property is in a good and satisfactory condition; that the beauty of the interior of the Cathedral has been much enhanced by the placing in it of new stalls for the clergy and choir, a gift from the Ladies' Guild of the Cathedral Parish.

That large repairs have been made during the year upon the Canon's house, and the usual annual ones to the furnaces and fixtures of the Cathedral, for an itemized statement of which we refer you to our financial statement of Easter Monday, 1884.

The insurance on the property is the same as reported last year.

APPENDIX I.

A.

The Bishop's Address.

MY DEAR BRETHREN:—Welcoming most heartily those of the clergy who appear here to-day for the first time as members of our Diocesan Synod, I still cannot but express my sense of loss in the departure from us, in the course of the past year, of some to whose faithfulness in labor and wisdom in council the Church in this jurisdiction stands largely indebted, and who had many claims upon my personal esteem and affection. On the 25th day of September the venerable Thomas Marsden, for fifteen years a faithful missionary in this diocese, was relieved from his earthly labors and taken unto the rest which remaineth for the people of God. Born and reared in England, Mr. Marsden was during his earlier manhood a prominent and successful minister among the Methodists in that country. Coming to America about the year 1864, he soon afterward applied for orders in the Church, and was ordained to the diaconate by the Bishop of New York in 1866, and to the priesthood in 1867. He removed on my invitation to Maine in 1868, so that nearly the whole of his ministry in the Church was passed here, first at Winn, then at Dresden, and finally at Dexter and Exeter. Mr. Marsden was a man of blameless character and kindly and courteous disposition, a diligent student, and scrupulously attentive to the duties of his calling. It was a source of much grief to him that for some time before he was otherwise disabled a serious affection of the vocal organs compelled him to desist from public ministrations ; yet he bore that trial and all that followed with exemplary patience, and passed away at last with little physical suffering, and in the confidence of a certain faith, to join the blessed company of those who have fought the good fight and finished their course.

This beloved brother only has been taken from our little band of clergy by death, but several others have removed from the diocese. The dismissal of Rev. Mr. Nichols to the diocese of Connecticut was alluded to in my last report. The Rev. Edward P. Lee has been transferred to Vermont, the Rev. John M. Bates to Kansas, the Rev. H. M. Jarvis to Virginia, the Rev. William Walker to North Carolina, the Rev. Samuel Upjohn to Pennsylvania, and the Rev. Andrew Merkel to Albany. Letters dimissory were also given to the Rev. Henry Jones, who for the health of his wife journeyed to Colorado and accepted temporary work there, but having now returned to Maine, I trust that he will abide with us. Some of these brethren had labored here but for a short time, and therefore, though their departure was to be regretted, yet in so far as their vacated posts have been filled the immediate inconvenience occasioned by their removal has been comparatively slight. There is but little actual comfort, however, to be found in this consideration, for, on the other hand, if such frequent rotation among the clergy should become general, nothing could be done in a field like this, and strength already attained would rapidly dwindle. Persistency is so important a condition of achievement in the work set before us here that I could hardly wish any clergyman to accept a post temporarily (though sometimes happy results have been attained even by such services), and for the same reason I cannot but deeply deplore the resignation and removal of any brother who has already won the slowly given confidence and regard of the community in which he resides, that being the most needful prerequisite of official success. I was therefore especially reluctant to write letters of transfer to other jurisdictions for the Rev. Canon Upjohn and the Rev. William Walker. The former had been identified with the diocese nearly as long as myself, and with a continually increasing influence in the diocese as well as in his own particular parish. The singleness of his devotion to the work of the Church was always conspicuous, and his tireless energy would not suffer him to decline any undertaking for its advancement, so that his name had become familiarly associated with all of our organizations and institutions, and his ability in counsel and action contributed much to their efficiency. The degree to which the Rev. Mr. Walker had attained the respect and affectionate regard of the community in which he labored for nearly eight years is indicated by the fact that after his resignation and removal a petition for his return was signed by two hundred men of that community. Surely a clergyman who has so endeared himself as a man to his fellow-citizens holds a most important vantage-ground for usefulness among them as a minister of Christ. But though deeply regretting for such and other reasons the removal of these beloved brethren, I have the satisfaction of knowing that by neither of them was the change sought, while it was fully justified by the considerations presented. Of the faithful laymen who have been taken from us the parish of Christ Church, Gardiner, and the diocese have reason to deplore especially the death of Mr. Francis G. Richards, which occurred unexpectedly to his friends on the 10th day of February last. Another loss sustained by the Church during the past year, while not directly affecting our diocesan interests, touched me very deeply; I refer to the death of the Bishop of Nebraska. Though less than three years my senior in the Episcopal office, there were at the time of my own consecration six bishops between us. In the wisdom of God all of these save one, the Missionary Bishop of Japan, had been taken away, and, he not being present at the last General Convention, Bishop Clarkson and I were brought side by side. As we thus closed up the broken ranks we spoke sadly together of the dear brethren who had fallen between us, and often in the intervals of business we referred to one or another of them,—Randall, Armitage, Wilmer, Kerfoot. At other times our thoughts turned to the losses likely to be suffered by our House before another General Convention, and once in that connection this word of remembrance was dropped, "But, after all, it may be me or you." How often do men thus remind themselves or others of the precariousness of our earthly life, but with very little apprehension of the nearness of death to themselves individually. And so it was in this case. Bishop Clarkson and I were comparatively young men, and he apparently as vigorous as myself, while before and around us were brethren who through age or protracted illness must be, it seemed, very near the end of their earthly course. We knew indeed that either of us might be taken before them, but though that reflection occurred to us it did not, I think, seriously impress us at the moment. Yet within a few months the summons came not to any of those whose departure we had anticipatngly mourned, but to one of us. It came not, however, to an unwatchful servant. His loins were girded about and his light burning; he was prepared to meet his Lord at the earlier watch, and so all was well. Bishop Clarkson's work in and for the Church is so generally known and appreciated that I need not describe it here. He was called to the Episcopate so early in life that, though he had not reached threescore years at his death, his term of office was by no means brief, and it was made illustrious by the fulness and remarkable success of his labors in a field demanding indomitable energy and manifold expedients to keep pace with the influx of population. The many and noble Church foundations in Nebraska and Dakota are his worthy memorial.

And just now has come the word that our venerable Presiding Bishop is no more. His life, closed in peace on the last day of May, dated back to the infancy of our American Church, and the term of his Episcopate was nearly the longest on record, fifty-two years. Consecrated by the venerated Bishop White, he was the last survivor of those who had received their Episcopal commission from the same hands. He became by seniority our Presiding Bishop on the death of Bishop Hopkins in 1868, and until very recently had been able to discharge personally most of the duties of that position, though unequal to more active diocesan work. He had witnessed the growth of the Church in all its stages, and himself had taken order for the consecration of forty-nine bishops. The official lives of two bishops of our own Church, Bishops White and Smith, extending thus over nearly a century, suggests that the chain of the Episcopal succession has not so many links as is often imagined, and from such imagination argued that it is quite incredible that there should be no missing link in that chain. Thirty-six of such lives carry us back to the apostolic age; and when it is furthermore considered that the rule has always prevailed of requiring at least three bishops to unite in the consecration of another, it will be readily seen that so far from there being a high degree of probability against the continuance of a lineal succession in the Episcopate, there is scarcely the least ground for the opinion that it could have failed, even if we had not ample documentary evidence to the contrary.

From these brief notices of departed brethren I turn now to pleasanter themes. During the period which we are now reviewing five bishops have been consecrated. In the consecration of two of them I participated, that of the Rev. Dr. Henry C. Potter as Assistant Bishop of New York, in Grace Church, New York City, on the 20th day of October, 1883, and that of the Rev. Dr. Alfred A. Watson as Bishop of the new diocese of East Carolina, in Wilmington, North Carolina, on the 17th day of April, 1884.

The losses in our own clerical ranks have been partially supplied by the accession of the Rev. Geo. A. Holbrook from the diocese of Ohio, the Rev. Charles T. Ogden from the diocese of Vermont, the Rev. Walker Gwynne from the diocese of Albany, the Rev. Frederick Towers from the diocese of Fredericton, Canada, priests, and the Rev. Leonard W. Richardson, deacon, from the diocese of Iowa. It is probable that the services of other clergy might have been secured for Camden, Dexter, Calais, and the Northern Aroostook missions, had we been able to pledge them an adequate support. I have visited in the course of the year all or nearly all of our parishes and missions, and in most of them have administered the rite of confirmation. The order of these visitations and the number confirmed in each parish and mission will appear in the summary of this report. The aggregate of confirmations is somewhat larger than usual, being 215.

The general condition and prospects of our work are, I think, on the whole better than have sometimes appeared. A beautiful church has been erected and consecrated at Newcastle (the gift of Mr. William T. Glidden), and a considerable endowment secured for the perpetual maintenance of services in it. A new church has also been built in a central locality, and will soon be consecrated, at Rockland. This movement will, we hope, enable us to work much more effectively than heretofore in that community, and I would here express my gratitude to those kind friends within and without the diocese who have enabled us to prosecute it successfully. An energetic effort has recently been made to finish the fine Church edifice at Biddeford, and the work will soon be accomplished. The Church of the Messiah, Dexter, though still without a rector, has paid off a considerable portion of the parish debt. S. James', Oldtown, will shortly erect a new church or thoroughly renew the present edifice. The ladies of S. Peter's, Milford, have by their own exertions greatly improved and beautified their little church. S. Mark's, Augusta, has entered upon the work of building a new and substantial church, and I most earnestly hope that the effort may soon be successful, for I know of no more important parochial undertaking in the diocese. S. John's Church, Bangor, has been put into thoroughly excellent condition by the members of that parish. An excellent rectory is nearly completed at Lewiston. The debt of Christ Church, Eastport, has been entirely cancelled, and an effort is now making to raise that of S. John Baptist Mission, Thomaston. Extensive repairs have been made upon the Church edifice at Bath. Some internal improvements may be observed in the Cathedral. These are tokens of a general interest felt in the material condition of our parishes, and I trust of a sense of responsibility to God also, and of an earnest desire for the advancement of the kingdom of our Lord upon earth. Our diocesan school for girls, S. Catharine's Hall, has had a prosperous year. There were twelve graduates at the last Commencement, and it is expected that seven young ladies will receive the diploma of the school next week. A steam-heating apparatus has been supplied for the buildings, and other improvements made which contribute to the greater comfort of the inmates. The management and instruction have been, as before, excellent, and have given, I think, entire satisfaction to the patrons of the school. There are many things still needed, however, for its full equipment, for the convenience of both teachers and pupils in the various departments of instruction and for making the grounds more attractive and useful, and I trust that the friends of the school, those who appreciate its value to the Church and the community, will consider and supply these needs. Contributions of valuable books to the library, or of instruments for use in the class-room, or of works of art, or of articles of furniture, are particularly desirable, and a few hundred dollars expended upon the ample grounds would make them not only more beautiful, but much more serviceable to the pupils.

In my last report I expressed a hope of opening a new Church school in the northern part of the diocese in the following autumn. It was found impracticable, however, to complete the school building before January, and that being an unfavorable season for the opening of a school, and the erection of a house for the accommodation of the principal and of boarding pupils being also found necessary, it was finally decided to postpone the opening to the autumn of the present year. The munificent gift of a dear friend in another diocese will enable me, I trust, to put up the second building without incurring a debt, and we shall thus be prepared to receive at the outset a goodly number of boys as boarding pupils on very moderate terms. It is intended to make this a thoroughly good grammar and classical school, under the auspices of the Church, and thus to supply a great desideratum for that portion of the state. And although the location is somewhat remote from the present centers of our population, I do not think it unreasonable to expect that boys will be sent there from the southern counties. It is easily accessible by rail, the region is a remarkably healthful one, we shall have fine new buildings and extensive grounds, the advantages proffered for intellectual and religious training will be superior, and at the same time these advantages can be afforded at a considerably less cost than if the school were situated in or near one of our larger towns. I hope that a sufficient interest may be felt in this enterprise by the churchmen of the diocese to induce many of them to attend at the opening exercises of the school at Presque Isle in September next, and to encourage the undertaking at least by their prayers for God's blessing upon it.

The Rev. Mr. Ogden, whom I have very gladly received back into this diocese after an absence of several years, has already entered upon the special work prosecuted for a few months and very acceptably by the Rev. Edward P. Lee. Mr. Lee brought to it many admirable qualifications, and I much regretted his resignation and removal. But I have no fear that Mr. Ogden will not be equally successful in it, and I trust that his efforts will be very heartily sustained. Although his title is "traveling missionary" or "missionary at large," yet his labors to be effective should be chiefly confined to a particular district, and he should have stated appointments, and those not widely separated in time. The people for whose benefit his ministrations are specially designed will, it is presumed, pledge certain definite sums toward his support in consideration of certain definite services to be regularly afforded them, and those usually on Sundays. It should not be expected, therefore, although he is "traveling missionary," that he can be ready, at any time, to travel anywhere, on the call of any vacant parish, or mission, or that of a brother clergyman. Such appeals can ordinarily be granted only by one who has no stated Sunday duties. I very heartily wish that we had among us at least one efficient clergyman who should be free to answer such calls without injustice to other engagements, but as yet there are here no clerical supernumeraries. It will be necessary that our Missionary Board should contribute to the support of the "traveling missionary," and that it may do so without impairing its ability to give needful aid elsewhere, I earnestly ask all of the clergy and communicants of the diocese to increase their offerings for Diocesan Missions.

It will be remembered that a very large portion of the session of the late General Convention was devoted to the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Enrichment of the Prayer Book. That report, after various amendments, was finally adopted by a nearly unanimous vote, and should this act be ratified by the next General Convention a very significant and important step will have been taken by our branch of the Church. Meanwhile it is subject to discussion by the various diocesan conventions; but while the report as amended and adopted has been sent down to the dioceses, there has been as yet no publication of the Prayer Book as it would appear after the proposed changes and additions had been made, and for that reason it seems to me that no intelligent discussion of the report, or action upon it, is practicable at the present time. It is certainly desirable that liturgical scholars throughout the Church should have full opportunity for examining and criticising the proposed book, and for making such suggestions respecting it as may occur to them; and on that account, especially, the delay of its publication is much to be regretted. We want not merely some improvement, if any alterations in our cherished Prayer Book are to be tolerated, or a somewhat ampler provision for the celebration of the various offices of religion, but the very best which the wisdom and piety of the Church, imploring divine guidance and seeking diligently among all her treasures, can discover or produce. If such a work is to be done at all, it should be so done as to stand, without revision or any apparent need of revision, for many generations to come. No evident defect in it should be deemed unimportant, and no error trivial. With respect to certain particulars, and from certain points of view, the judgment of those not specially versed in liturgical compositions, and even that of unlearned but spiritually-minded men, might be quite as valuable as that of the most distinguished scholar. Therefore it is to be hoped that this book when issued will be fully and minutely examined by many persons, and that due heed will be given to deliberate expressions of opinion concerning it, or any part of it, from whatever quarter they may come. Our diocesan conventions may then be able, through their delegates, to give valuable aid to the counsels of the next General Convention, when all questions relating to the revision of the Prayer Book will be finally determined.

My approval has been recently asked by a self-constituted committee in another diocese of a plan for raising $1,000,000 as a special and supplemental offering for missions at the General Convention of 1886. The plan is, in brief, to obtain a sufficient number of five-dollar subscriptions, payable within two and a half years, to make up $1,000,000. I would rejoice to see the laymen of this diocese co-operating in such a project in so far as they might without lessening their stated contributions to missionary and other Church objects. Such an offering would be a worthy testimonial of our thankfulness to God for the varied blessings vouchsafed us as a Church during the past hundred years, and at the same time would greatly forward our missionary work. Yet I cannot but feel that the same degree of energy and the same general co-operation in all of our dioceses which will be necessary to the success of this scheme, if devoted to carrying into effect the plan discussed and approved by the General Convention of 1880, would secure far greater and more lasting benefits to the missionary cause. Under that plan the members of the Church would be enrolled not for a merely temporary effort, but as stated contributors, according to their several ability, to the support of the missionary operations of the Church. Until they are so enlisted, those operations will be encumbered by many difficulties, while if there were such a general enlistment, all of our missionary undertakings could be prosecuted on a much larger scale, without incurring debts, as has been done by the English Church. I shall be glad to see the churchmen of Maine uniting with their brethren of other dioceses to make a grand centennial offering for missions, but it would give me still greater pleasure to find them all enrolled as annual subscribers for the support of missions at home and abroad. No plainer or higher obligation than that rests upon the members of the Church, and the faithful discharge of it would bring down upon us a wonderful blessing.

If there are tokens among us of a spiritual barrenness, may it not be referable to the same cause as that which brought about the great dearth in Israel of old? And for healing and fruitfulness must we not resort to the same means which God then presented to His people? "Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse that there may be meat in my house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

Granting that the obligation of the tithe is not a literal obligation for all Christians, the duty of honoring God with our substance is universal, and He is not honored by mere occasional and insignificant offerings, nor by such meagre support as is commonly given to His ministers, nor by any man who does not remember and testify that he holds all his possessions in trust as a steward of God, to be administered according to His will, and accounted for in the day of judgment.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

A Report of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese respectfully report that they have consented to the consecration of the Reverend Alfred Augustin Watson, D.D., as Bishop of East Carolina; the Reverend Samuel D. Ferguson, as Bishop of Cape Palmas and parts adjacent, and the Reverend William Jones Boone, as Bishop of Shanghai.

They have also signed testimonials in favor of Lyman Herbert Merrill, Postulant, as a candidate for Holy orders; the Reverend George S. Hill, Deacon, as a candidate for Priest's orders and Frederick Herbert Rowse, as a candidate for Deacon's orders.

Attest:

GEORGE E. B. JACKSON, Secretary.

Portland, June 10th, 1884.

B Registrar's Report.

The Registrar of the Diocese respectfully reports that in addition to the usual number of Diocesan Journals, he has received for the Cathedral Library during the past year, a large number of English and American magazines, presented by the widow of the late Rev. Thomas Marsden, and being in many cases complete volumes for the past few years.

Serious inconvenience is experienced on account of the small space in the Library. The shelves are now mostly filled to their utmost capacity, and the proper classification of the Journals cannot be made till further accommodation is provided.

Respectfully submitted,

C. MORTON SILLS, Registrar.

C Report of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF S. CATHARINE'S HALL.

The secretary of the Board of Trustees respectfully reports that the statements presented to the meeting of June 18th testified to a high state of prosperity in the condition of S. Catharine's Hall. The report of the committee of audit on the treasurer's accounts showed that out of the year's income the school had paid its current expenses and, in addition, the extraordinary sum of $2,207.92 for interest on debt and improvements in the buildings. These improvements consist of a steam-heating apparatus, costing $1,360.92, and the construction of a water reservoir at an expense of $400.

REMARKS.

TRINITY CHURCH, LEWISTON.The Rev. W. H. Washburn.

The Rectory which was commenced in May, 1883, has been completed outside, and enough has been done to the interior to make it habitable. Thus far the funds have come chiefly from friends outside the diocese. It is hoped that the parish will be able before long to complete the interior.

S. MARK'S CHURCH, AUGUSTA.The Rev. Walker Gwynne.

The present Rector took charge of the parish on January 17th, 1884. The chief part, therefore, of the preceding report is a record of work done by the Rev. S. Upjohn.

CHRIST CHURCH, BIDDEFORD.The Rev. E. F. Small.

Through the assistance of church people abroad, and after many struggles on the part of the members of the parish, the interior of the church edifice has been finished at a cost of about $1.800, and will be opened for public services during the present month (June).

ST. JOHN BY THE SEA, OLD ORCHARD.The Rev. E. F. Small.

Whole number of services, 18; celebration of Holy Communion, 1; offerings, $335.13.

S. PAUL'S CHURCH, BRUNSWICK.The Rev. Geo. A. Holbrook.

The present Rector took charge of this parish August 12, 1883. The clerical report, therefore, extends back only to that date, save that incorporated in it are two marriages and one infant baptism, occurring before the present Rectorship, and during the conventional year.

S. MARK'S MISSION, WATERVILLE.The Rev. L. W. Richardson.

The Rev. John M. Bates resigned the charge of S. Mark's Mission, April 1st, 1883, and the present missionary entered upon his duties March 2d, 1884. During this period, Mr. Motram acted as lay-reader, and the chapel was opened every Sunday. From time to time clergymen were obtained to preach and administer the Holy Communion.

S. JOHN'S, BANGOR.The Rev. W. A. Fiske.

The repairs and improvements which have been made in the church are mostly due to the energetic co-operation, with the Rector, of the ladies of the parish.

Small, and Messrs. Geo. E. B. Jackson, Henry Ingalls, and S. T. Corser.

On motion the Rev. C. T. Ogden was appointed to cast the vote of the Convention for the Rev. C. L. Wells as Trustee of S. Catharine's Hall, there being a vacancy in the Board of Trustees, owing to the dismissal of Rev. L. Bradley to the diocese of Massachusetts.

The vote was cast, and the Rev. C. L. Wells duly elected.

On motion the Convention adjourned for divine service till 3 P.M.

Paul's, Brunswick, $5.39, and S. Mark's, Waterville, $8.26.

Passed.

The Special Committee on the Bishop's Address reported as follows.

The committee to whom was referred the Bishop's Address beg leave to report the following resolution.

Resolved, That this Convention has listened with the greatest interest to this address, and especially to its earnest and stirring appeal to the clergy and laity for a more hearty self-consecration of themselves and of their means to the work of the Church. And we earnestly hope that these weighty words of our Bishop will bring forth much good fruit in more earnest and faithful endeavors on the part of all the members of the Church in Maine.

The committee would further report that the Convention is deeply conscious of the multiplied labors and anxieties of the Bishop, burdened as he is with the cares appertaining to a rectorship in addition to those of the Episcopate, and we hope and pray that the time may not be far distant when, by adequate increase of the Episcopate Fund, the Bishop may find a measure of relief.

On motion their report was adopted.

The minutes of to-day's session were read and approved.

On motion it was resolved that after Prayers the Convention be adjourned sine die.

The Bishop having made a brief and affectionate address pronounced the benediction, and the Convention adjourned.

A.

The Bishop's Address.

MY BELOVED BRETHREN:—Permitted to meet with you once more in our Annual Convention, I proceed to make a brief report of my official acts during the eighteenth year of my Episcopate. During the session of our last Convention, June, 1884, in the Cathedral, I ordained to the diaconate Frederick Herbert Rowse. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Edwin F. Small, and the candidate presented by the Rev. Canon Sills.*

In the week after the adjournment of the Convention, I preached before the graduating class of S. Catharine's Hall in S. Mark's Church, Augusta, and presided at the Commencement exercises of the school, and at the annual meeting of the board of trustees. Seven young ladies received at this time the diploma of the school.

On the 22d of June I preached at the opening of the completed edifice of Christ Church, Biddeford. The congregation had for several years been worshiping in the basement of their church, being unable to complete the upper portion of the building. But having finally accomplished that very desirable work, I had the pleasure of joining with them in their joyful celebration of the event, and of congratulating them upon the success of their earnest and persistent efforts. No additional debt was incurred by the parish in this undertaking, but the original debt on the building is still a heavy burden, which I earnestly hope may soon be removed.

* The official record of this act may be found in the Journal of 1884.

On Sunday, June 28th, I preached twice in Christ Church, Gardiner, and confirmed seven candidates.

On the 14th of July I admitted William Alonzo Swan, jr., of Augusta, as a candidate for Priest's orders.

On the 15th, in the vacancy of the rectorship, I officiated at a wedding in Grace Church, Bath.

Proceeding thence to Bar Harbor, I had the sad privilege of ministering to a dear friend, Mr. Gouverneur M. Ogden of New York, during the closing days of his earthly life, and on Sunday, the 20th, I officiated in S. Saviour's Church.

I was next called to Presque Isle, Aroostook County, to inspect the new school building, and make arrangements for the opening of S. John's School in September, and on this journey was accompanied by Prof. Geo. S. Atwood, who had been engaged to take the headship of the school.

Making a few visits also in Fort Fairfield and Houlton during the same week, but performing no official acts, I reached Calais on the 26th, and presided, by request, at a parish meeting on the evening of that day. On the following day, Sunday, July 27th, I preached and celebrated the Holy Communion in S. Anne's Church in the morning, in the afternoon preached, and confirmed six candidates presented by Rev. Prof. Steenstra of Massachusetts, in the seaside chapel at Robbinston, and in the evening preached in All Saints' Church, S. Andrew's, N. B.

On Thursday, July 31st, at Evening Prayer in Christ Church, Eastport, I preached and confirmed two candidates, having previously confirmed a sick person in the same parish.

On the 9th of August I received by transfer from the diocese of New York Mr. Wyllys Rede, a candidate for Priest's orders.

On Sunday, Aug. 17th, I officiated at the morning service in S. John's by the Sea, Old Orchard.

On the 20th I confirmed two young ladies, sojourners at the seaside, in the Cathedral.

On Sunday, Aug. 24th, the Bishop of Albany, acting at my request, confirmed thirteen candidates in the chapel of S. Mary by the Sea, North East Harbor.

On Thursday, Aug. 28th, I consecrated to the honor and worship of Almighty God the new edifice of S. Peter's Church, Rockland. And in making record of this act I would again testify to the persevering zeal of the excellent lady through whose efforts the work of building this church was finally accomplished, and again express my sense of obligation to the kind friends who so generously responded to her appeals. It was very unfortunate that the former church should have been so poorly built and so badly located as to compel its abandonment and demolition, and especially that owing to the same circumstances the growth of the parish had been greatly obstructed for many years. But having now a comfortable though smaller church, in a central location, it may be reasonably expected that we shall see larger results in the future from our work in this important town. On the evening of the same day, Aug. 28th, in the same church, I confirmed two candidates presented by the missionary in charge, the Rev. Frederick Towers.

At Evening Prayer, on the next day, I preached and confirmed two candidates in the church of S. John Baptist, Thomaston, in charge of the same missionary.

On Sunday, Aug. 31st, I preached twice in S. Thomas' Church, Camden, and preached and confirmed one candidate in S. Mark's Church, Rockport.

In S. Andrew's Church, Newcastle, Monday, Sept. 1st, I preached and confirmed two candidates presented by the Rev. Canon Pyne. This beautiful church, consecrated last year, has recently been made more complete in its appointments by the addition of a very handsome altar and several other costly and tasteful articles of chancel furniture.

On the 3d day of this month there was laid at York Hardon. by the Right Rev. the Bishop of Quincy, acting on my behalf, the corner-stone of a Church building which, I hope, may be completed early in the present summer. Although this building is intended primarily for the religious advantage of summer visitors, it may ultimately become, as some of our sea-side chapels have already become, an instrument of perpetual spiritual benefit to the residents of the town. A notable illustration of the blessings which our own people may reap from such undertakings is found in what has been accomplished within the past two years at North East Harbor. Of those confirmed there in 1883 about one-half were residents of the place, and of the thirteen confirmed last summer all but two were residents. It is true that the conditions in this case are very exceptional. Not only have we the only house of worship there, erected as a memorial by members of the family of my beloved brother, the Bishop of Albany, and not only does that earnest and eloquent Bishop personally minister therein during the summer months, but he himself has provided for the maintenance of the services and for pastoral ministrations, by efficient resident priests, throughout the entire year. And that grave close to the walls of the little church has, in its silence, spoken more movingly to the hearts of the people than the lips of any man. But the great and efficient agent has been the Holy Spirit, and the same blessed Spirit of peace and truth can, by inferior and less singular means, accomplish like results. Thanks and praise be unto Him for what He has already wrought for us through S. Mary by the Sea, and many thanks to the dear brethren who have been His chief instruments in that work.

* I very gladly, on the 6th of September, gave my consent to the organization of a mission at North East Harbor, with the name of S. Mary by the Sea, and appointed Stephen Smallidge, warden, D. Everett Kimball, treasurer, and Charles H. Frazier, clerk.

On Sunday, Sept. 14th, I preached and celebrated the Holy Communion at Exeter in the morning, and in the evening preached and confirmed five candidates in the Church of the Messiah, Dexter, the candidates being presented by the Rev. G. S. Hill.

Thence on the following day I proceeded, with several of the clergy and laity, to Presque Isle, where a meeting of our Board of Missions and the opening of our new S. John's School had been appointed for the 16th and 17th of this month. We were joined on the way by the venerable Metropolitan of Canada, who had very kindly consented to favor us with his presence and assistance on the occasion, and by several of the clergy of the diocese of Fredericton. Two or three clergymen from other dioceses were also members of our party. A large congregation was assembled in S. John's Church, Presque Isle, at the first service on Tuesday evening, and an excellent sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Israel Foote, of the diocese of Western New York. On the following morning, Sept. 17th, after Morning Prayer at the church, a large number of the townspeople proceeded with us to the new school building, where the exercises were of a very interesting and impressive character. A full account of these having been given elsewhere, I omit a detailed description of them at this time. A business session of our Board of Missions was held in the afternoon, after which, our party returning to Fort Fairfield, Evening Prayer was celebrated in S. Paul's Church. At this service the Rev. Geo. S. Chadwell of the diocese of New Jersey preached, and three candidates were confirmed.

On the following day, Sept. 18th, in S. Paul's Church, Fort Fairfield, I ordained to the priesthood the Rev. Leonard Woods Richardson, deacon, and to the diaconate Mr. Wyllys Rede. The sermon on this occasion was preached by the Rt. Rev. the Metropolitan of Canada, and the candidates were presented by the Rev. Canons H. R. Pyne and C. Morton Sills.

At Evening Prayer in the Church of the Advent, Limestone, on the 19th, the service was taken by the Rev. Canon Washburn, who had consented to accompany me on my further visitations in Aroostook County, and I preached to a large and attentive congregation. On the following morning I baptized an infant and celebrated the Holy Communion in the same church.

Arriving at Van Buren by wagon on the next day, Saturday, I preached and celebrated the Holy Communion in S. James' Church on Sunday morning, S. Matthew's Day, and reaching Caribou in the afternoon preached to a full congregation in the evening, being assisted at both services by the Rev. Canon Washburn. The next two days were devoted chiefly to consultations with the principal of S. John's School, Presque Isle, and to attendance upon the various exercises of the school, which, although the classes were not as yet fully organized, proved very interesting and satisfactory.

I then, still accompanied by Canon Washburn, traveled on to Ashland, and preached in Emmanuel Church on the evening of the 24th. On the 25th I celebrated the Holy Communion in the same church, and also preached in the school-house at Marsdis, assisted in the service by the Rev. W. L. Watson, deacon, missionary in charge at Ashland.

Pursuing my journey thence southward, I reached Sherman, forty-seven miles distant, in time for an evening service on the 26th, and there also on the next day I celebrated the Holy Communion in S. James' Church, and confirmed a sick person at her own residence. Rev. J. H. Veazey, in charge of Winn and Sherman, met me at this place and assisted in the services.

In S. Thomas' Church, Winn, on Sunday, Sept. 28th, I preached twice, celebrated the Holy Communion, and baptized two children.

I had an appointment for Milford on Monday, the feast of S. S. Michael and All Angels, but on my arrival there found that the repairs and improvements upon the church, for some time in progress, were not sufficiently advanced to admit of the use of the building for divine service. On the afternoon of this day I baptized a child at Great Works, near Oldtown, and then took the cars homeward.

On the 9th of October, in S. Philip's Church, Wiscasset, at Evening Prayer, I preached, and confirmed three candidates presented by the rector, Rev. Canon Pyne.

It would have given me great pleasure to attend, in the month of October, the centennial celebration in Scotland of an event of great interest to all American churchmen, the consecration at Aberdeen of our first Bishop, Samuel Seabury; but I found it impracticable to accept the cordial invitation extended to me, in common with others of our bishops, by the Bishops of the Scottish Church.

In S. Mark's Church, Waterville, on the 22d of October, I preached, and confirmed three candidates presented by the missionary in charge, Rev. L. W. Richardson.

On the following day I preached in S. John's Church, Dresden, and in Pownalborough Hall, West Dresden, the missionary in charge, Rev. M. H. Wellman, assisting in the services.

On the 27th I confirmed, in extreme illness, a person connected with S. Luke's parish, Portland.

After All Saints' Day, Nov. 1st, I was absent from the diocese, but concerning myself for its interests, until the 22d of that month.

Attending to my duties at the Cathedral during December, my only Episcopal act for that month was the confirmation of a sick person in S. Luke's parish.

On the 8th of January, in the Church of the Epiphany, Washington, D. C., I acted as one of the presenters of my old and dear friend, Rev. Dr. William Paret, for consecration as Bishop of Maryland, and on the following Sunday preached twice in the Church of the Epiphany.

During the remainder of the winter and through Lent my work was chiefly in Portland. A devotional conference of the clergy at the Cathedral, early in Lent, was very pleasant and profitable to myself and, I trust, to all who participated in it.

On the second Sunday in Lent, Mar. 1st, in the Cathedral, I ordained to the priesthood the Rev. John Howard Veazey. Rev. Canon Sills acted as presenter, and he, with the Rev. Arthur W. Little, united in the imposition of hands.

Beginning my spring visitation on Palm Sunday, I on that day preached and confirmed sixteen candidates in S. Mark's Church, Augusta, and in the evening preached in S. Matthew's, Hallowell.

At Evening Prayer on Good Friday, April 3d, I preached and confirmed twenty-one candidates in S. Paul's Church, Portland.

In the Cathedral, on Easter Day, I confirmed twenty candidates.

In S. Paul's, Brunswick, in Easter Week, I presided at a session of our Board of Missions and confirmed a class of five persons. At the same time, Wednesday, April 8th, and in the same church, I ordained to the priesthood Rev. George Samuel Hill, deacon. The candidate was presented by the Rev. Canon Henry R. Pyne, and the sermon preached by the Rev. Edwin F. Small; assisting presbyters, the Revs. Canon C. S. Leffingwell, R. N. Parke, D.D., A. W. Little, and others.

In Trinity Church, Lewiston, on Friday evening, April 10th, I preached and confirmed thirty-nine candidates (including a sick man confirmed at his own residence).

On the first Sunday after Easter, April 12th, I preached twice and celebrated the Holy Communion in Christ Church, Gardiner, and confirmed two candidates.

On the following Sunday I visited Grace Church, Bath, preached twice and celebrated the Holy Communion.

In S. John's, Bangor, on the third Sunday after Easter, I preached twice, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed ten candidates presented by the Rev. Dr. W. A. Fiske, rector.

On Sunday, April 28th, I visited S. James' Church, Oldtown, and preached at Evening Prayer.

On the festival of S. S. Philip and James, by invitation of the Metropolitan of Canada, I assisted, in the Cathedral at Fredericton, N. B., at the consecration of the Rev. Charles Hamilton as Bishop of Niagara.

On Ascension Day, May 14th, I confirmed five additional candidates in the Cathedral.

In Trinity Church, Saco, on the Sunday after Ascension, I preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, and confirmed ten candidates, and on the same day preached, at Evening Prayer, in Christ Church, Biddeford.

On the following day, May 18th, I officiated for the first time, personally, at Kennebunk, and confirmed four persons presented by our missionary at large, Rev. Charles T. Ogden. Notwithstanding thick darkness and rain, an excellent congregation was assembled at the service in the evening, and deep interest was manifested by all in the sermon and administration of Confirmation. I hope that by some means the erection of a simple little church at Kennebunk may soon be accomplished.

On Trinity Sunday, May 31st, I visited S. Saviour's Church, Bar Harbor, and the Church of S. Mary by the Sea, North East Harbor. In S. Saviour's I preached, celebrated the Holy Communion, confirmed five candidates (including two confirmed on the following day), and catechised the Sunday-school. At S. Mary's I preached at Evening Prayer. I was especially gratified by the large increase of numbers in the Sunday-school of St. Stephen's and by the admirable training in the catechism of the Church exhibited by them. The pastor of this flock, Rev. Canon Levingwell has greatly endeared himself to young and old and indeed to all classes in the community, by his sympathetic and loving devotion to them during the prevalence of an epidemic sickness in the past winter. The Rev. Richmond Shreve has done excellent service during the past winter at North East Harbor, and I much regret that he cannot be retained there, or at least in the diocese.

On June 3d in St. John's, Bangor, after officiating at the marriage of the daughter of the rector, I confirmed one candidate, making a total of eleven confirmed in this parish during the Conventional year.

On Sunday, June 7th, I preached, at Morning Prayer, in St. Stephen's Church, Portland, and confirmed five candidates.

Today in this place, and in your presence, I have ordained to the diaconate Carroll Everett Harding, and to the priesthood Rev. Frederick Herbert Rowse and Rev. Wyllys Rede, deacons.

This brief record of my public official acts exhibits but a small, and the least burdensome, portion of the work done in the discharge of my Episcopal functions. You, my brethren of the clergy, know well how imperfectly the statistical report which you are required to make here represents what your labors and cares have been for the period which it covers. And much less can the cares and labors of a bishop be estimated from any account of the number of miles he has traveled, the parishes he has visited, the candidates he has confirmed, or the public services he has held, in the course of the year. These acts engross a certain portion of his time, and require a certain degree of energy in the performance of them; and it is important, from a historical point of view, that some record of them should be made. But as a presentation of his life work and life burdens, of that which most tasks his nervous vigor, and consumes his vitality, and tries his faith, and compels him to realize his own insufficiency, such record is so utterly inadequate and misleading that the interests of truth would rather demand its complete suppression. I can truly say that I have hitherto seldom suffered from exhaustion or depression merely on account of any physical or mental labor required in the performance of what are commonly supposed to be the chief duties of a bishop. What wearies and depresses, and quenches the ardor of the spirit, is neither such labors, however extensive, nor any obstacles encountered from without, but the anxieties and disappointments and hindrances occasioned by the luke-warmness or neglectfulness of his own flock, of those who have pledged themselves to be Christ's faithful soldiers and servants, and upon whose loyal and active service the welfare and progress of the Church must always largely depend. S. Paul, after enumerating the many special trials and conflicts which he had undergone in the prosecution of his ministry, adds these words, which have for every bishop of the Church a significance little appreciated by others,—“Besides those things which are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.” That unremitting care and vigilance required of him as a chief overseer was, I doubt not, the burden which weighed most heavily upon him. Not merely, however, because his responsibility extended to many widely separated churches or congregations, or because he must be unceasing in his diligence to feed the flock of God, but because so many, even of those who had been brought to the knowledge of Christ by his personal instruction, and had been endowed with manifold gifts of the Spirit, were, so far from being helpers in the good work to which they had been called with himself, continually causing him grief, by defection from the faith, by unworthiness of character, or by neglect of plain duties. Read his epistles with this question in view, and you will readily find not only what were his chief trials, but what are the chief trials of every faithful bishop. When we hear him declaring to his son Timothy that Demas has forsaken him, that Phygellus and Hermogenes and all those in Asia have turned away from him, and that Hymenæus and Philetus have fallen into pernicious heresy ; or again, to the Philippians, that he has no one like-minded with Timothy to send unto them, "for all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's," we realize that the clergy of the apostolic age were not always a source of comfort and strength to the chief pastors of the Church, nor always worthy examples to the flock of Christ. When, again, we hear him rebuking the Corinthians for their carnal divisions and contentions, their man-worship, their easy tolerance of deadly sin among themselves, their frauds, their profanation of the Lord's table, their strange indifference to the wants of those who ministered to them in holy things,—we learn that there were many in that Church, so richly endowed with spiritual gifts, whom he could not have included in the commendation, "Ye are my epistles, known and read of all men, manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us ;" many who did no honor to his teaching or their Christian profession, who afforded him no moral or material support who were not helpers but hinderers of the word of God and the cause of their divine Master. And, once more, when the same watchful overseer expostulates with the Galatians for the willingness with which they gave heed to perverse teachers, or warns the Philippians against the many professed believers, who by their subjection to base, carnal appetites showed themselves to be enemies of the cross of Christ, it becomes evident that it was not in one Church or Christian community alone that S. Paul found occasion for grief and painful anxiety.

A Bishop of these days should not murmur if he finds himself called to fellowship with S. Paul in the same troubles and perplexities, but he cannot but mourn or burn with a just indignation, like him, when he sees how his hands are weakened, and the cause of the Church obstructed, and the very gospel of salvation made a savor of death unto death, through the slothfulness, or self-seeking, or indevoutness, or unwisdom of individuals among the clergy, or by the listlessness and inactivity, the worldliness, and covetousness, and heedlessness of religious obligations of many of the laity.

Why is it, my dear brethren, that in all of our parishes only a comparatively few take any active part in the work of the parish, and that so many are even inconstant and irregular in their attendance upon the public services of the Church? Why are parish officers so remiss in the performance of their proper duties? Why is the yoke of Christ's self-denial and self-discipline so generally refused? Why is the ordinance of our Lord that they who preach the gospel should live of the gospel so despised or ignored, and God so dishonored by the meager offerings of Christian men for the support or promotion of His cause on earth? Why is it that personal peculiarities or defects of the clergyman are so often made a pretext for refusing him respect and attention as the ambassador of Christ and a steward of the mysteries of God, and that there is so much wandering hither and thither, with itching ears, for strange novelties of doctrine, or the enticing words of man's wisdom? I will not undertake at present to answer why these things are so, but it cannot be denied that they prevail among us, and they are the source of all the discouragement I ever feel; they are the chiefest obstacles to the progress of the Church in this locality, and will they not, if our Master's words are true, shut out those who are responsible for them from entrance into the heavenly kingdom?

Other aspects of our work are more pleasing. The number of the clergy has increased so that the ministrations of the Church are now provided for nearly all the posts which, thus far, we have been able to occupy. Some new enterprises have already been alluded to, and of others begun or contemplated it is especially gratifying to me to note that of a new and substantial Church edifice for S. Mark's parish, Augusta, the foundations of which will be laid, I hope, within the present month.

Our new school at Presque Isle has had a prosperous first year, and is regarded with much favor by the community. It ought to be made widely known that this school offers the advantages of a full preparatory course for college or for business life on very moderate terms, that it has excellent new buildings in a very healthful location, and that the care and training afforded by it are those of a Christian home. It is well worthy of patronage from every part of the diocese, and the clergy can do a good service for their own parishioners and for others by directing the attention of parents to S. John's School.

I have often and thankfully referred to the good which we have been enabled to accomplish by means of our diocesan school for girls, S. Catharine's Hall. But the benefits of this excellent institution could also be more widely extended through some pains taken by the clergy and by former patrons of the school to give information respecting it. Advertisements of schools are so often unreliable, and parents are so much bewildered by the multitude of them, that a word of personal commendation by one who knows what sound and honest work is done at S. Catharine's would frequently be welcome and decisive.

In one or two of our more important parishes and in several of the missions there have been no candidates for confirmation during the past year, but the aggregate number, owing especially to the large class presented by Canon Washburn at Lewiston, has been as great as usual.

On the other hand there have been serious individual losses. On the 24th of October, Mr. Walter F. Phillips, one of the oldest and worthiest members of the parish and vestry of S.

Luke's Church, Portland, and a warm, personal friend to me, was taken from us, after a long and painful illness. Mr. Phillips had been a very active business man, and had not reached that period of life when retirement and rest are naturally sought, so that his prolonged disability was the more trying to him. To this trial was added that of a sore bereavement; yet he bore all, through the grace sought and given from above, with exemplary patience and fortitude. Though quiet and simple in his social habits, and seeking no conspicuous position in any sphere, Mr. Phillips had been for many years a faithful and generous helper in the work of the Church, and his testamentary bequest to the diocese, $2,000 to the Episcopate Fund, acknowledged in our treasurer's report, is but one of many benefactions for which that work is indebted to him. Well may we deplore the removal of such a man, when it is considered how few among us have a like sense of their responsibility as Christian disciples. The death of Mr. Thomas Kanada deprived Trinity Church, Lewiston, of one of its liberal supporters, and that of Mr. John H. McLellan, senior warden of Grace Church, Bath, was a grievous blow both to the parish and the diocese. I have known but few more excellent men, or more consistent, earnest, and loyal churchmen than John McLellan, and I had thought that he would be for many years yet, as he had long been, one of our strong helpers. But he was suddenly called away, and we may not doubt the wisdom of that summons. I rejoice that he was so well prepared to meet it, and that all who knew and loved him can feel well assured of his attainment of the blessedness of that servant whom the Lord when He cometh shall find watching. S. Paul's Church, Portland, has recently suffered the loss of one of its most steadfast and liberal supporters by the death of that excellent and energetic Christian woman, Mrs. Alfred Dyer.

One of my brethren of the clergy, the Rev. Henry Jones, has been called to mourn the departure of his beloved wife within the course of the past year, and I should do injustice both to my own feelings and to those of many others if I failed to bear testimony to the purity of the Christian character of that dear woman, and to her fulness of sympathy and heartiness of co-operation with her husband in his missionary work. She greatly endeared herself to the people of our northern missions, and many there would confess a large indebtedness to her labors and example. Other homes, too, have been darkened by sorrow, and other hearts saddened by bereavement. Such is the tale of every year, and such, sooner or later, must be the experience of us all. It is a valley of Baca through which we are journeying; happy are we if we find in it refreshing pools so that we can still go on from strength to strength, and if our pilgrim journeying is ever toward the heavenly Jerusalem.

My brethren of the clergy, the solemn service in which we were engaged this morning should have reminded us that our Lord's admonition to watchfulness was first given to his chosen apostles, and that upon our faithfulness as watchmen must largely depend the safety of the souls committed to our charge, as well as the salvation of our own souls. It is an awful responsibility, who would dare to undertake it but with the fullest conviction that he is called thereto by Him whose bidding no Christian man can refuse, and in the confidence of strength given from on high? But we ~~have~~ that responsibility, and may God help us so to discharge it that at the hands of a merciful Master and Judge we may receive the reward of faithful servants.

REPORTS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

A Report of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese respectfully report that since the last Convention they have given their consent to the consecration of the Reverend Nelson S. Russell, D.D., as Assistant Bishop of the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania; the Reverend George Worthington, S.T.D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Nebraska; and the Reverend William Paret, D.D., as Bishop of the Diocese of Maryland.

They have also signed testimonials on behalf of the Reverend Leonard Woods Richardson, Deacon, for Priest's Orders; the Reverend John Howard Veary, Deacon, for Priest's Orders; the Reverend George S. Hill, Deacon, for Priest's Orders; the Reverend Frederick Herbert Rowse, Deacon, for Priest's Orders; the Reverend Wyllys Rede, Deacon, for Priest's Orders; Mr. Carroll Everett Harding, for Deacon's Orders; and of Messrs. William Albert Swan and George Shuttlesworth Atwood, Postulants, as Candidates for Holy Orders.

The last Diocesan Convention authorized the Standing Committee to audit the accounts of the Treasurer of Diocesan Funds. That duty has been attended to and the accounts found correctly cast and properly vouched.

GEO. E. B. JACKSON, Secretary.

B Registrar's Report.

The Registrar of the Diocese respectfully reports that with the exception of the last Convention Journals and a number of pamphlets on both religious and secular matters, no additions have been made to the Cathedral Library during the past year.

C. MORTON SILLS, Registrar.

PORTLAND, June 1, 1885.

C Report of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall.

The Secretary of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall begs respectfully to report as follows: During the past year the school has not had so many scholars as in some previous years, but the attendance of day scholars has been good. Moreover, a very large proportion of the new scholars are in the youngest classes, so that there is a good prospect of retaining a greater number from year to year than formerly.

The condition of the property is excellent. The health of all residents has been uniformly good.

The Rev. William D. Martin has accepted the principalship in place of Mme. Mondan, who resigned at the close of the year. Mr. Martin brings to his new field a large experience in educational work, having been principal for fourteen years of a private school in Baltimore, Md. He is also well known in this Diocese for his faithful and earnest character.

All of the present excellent staff of teachers with one exception return for the coming year, and it is believed that the prospects of the school in regard to pupils are very good.

WALKER GWYNNE, Secretary.

AUGUSTA, July 3, 1885.

REMARKS.

S. JOHN'S BY THE SEA, OLD ORCHARD.

The Rev. E. F. Small.

Number of services, 16 ; number of communicants, 2 ; offerings, $371.14 ; indebtedness, $400.

CHRIST CHURCH, GARDINER.

The Rev. Charles L. Wells.

This report dates as far as possible from the first of June, 1884, though the present rectorship dated only from the 1st of December. The report as chaplain of the Togus Home is also included.

S. MARK'S CHURCH, AUGUSTA.

The Rev. Walker Gwynne.

There has been subscribed for the new church the sum of $25,639. It is hoped that it will be ready for consecration next summer.

S. ANNE'S CHURCH, EASTPORT.

The Rev. Wyllys Rede.

From June 1, 1884, to July 5, the parish was vacant, and no services were maintained. From July 5th to Sept. 10th, services were held by Mr. Johnson, a lay reader. During this time valuable services were rendered to the parish by the Rev. Mr. Dowling, Rector of Christ Church, S. Stephen, N. B., who throughout the year has shown unfailing kindness in the administration of the Sacraments in the absence of a Priest.

My ministrations in the parish began Sept. 20th, and ended June 1st. The report given, therefore, covers the time from July, 1884, to June, 1885.

CHRIST CHURCH, EASTPORT.

The Rev. William D. Martin.

Some notes are needed in explanation of the report, as the tabulated statistics are calculated to mislead. They very widely misrepresent the present strength and working capacity of the parish. The money returns are correct. The number of families, individuals, and communicants divided by two would more nearly approximate our real effective strength. Names and numbers have been retained, that persons may not be lost sight of, and as the children, in most instances, are thus gathered into the Sunday-school. By comparing this report and that of last year a very slight increase is perceptible in each department, but by the loss from different causes of some of our most efficient members, the number of workers is considerably diminished. The loss is especially felt in the Sunday-school.

REPORT OF THE MISSIONARY AT LARGE.

KENNEBUNK.—A regular service has been held on the second Sunday of each month for the past year. An increased interest is now manifested. On the 18th of May the Bishop confirmed four persons. The services are now held by the kind permission of the Methodist Society in the vestry adjoining their place of worship. Holy Communion at each monthly service. Offerings, $86.48.

BUCKFIELD.—A regular monthly service has been held here morning and evening and the Holy Communion administered. A communicant has established a class for instruction on Sunday afternoons. The service is held in the Methodist House of worship. Baptisms, Adults, two persons. Amount contributed $75.00.

OLDTOWN.—A monthly service was held here during the absence of a rector, four times. This place is now supplied with a rector. The Holy Communion was administered three times. Amount received, $20.00.

EAST BROWNFIELD.—The Holy Communion was administered to an aged communicant.

VANCEBORO.—Service was held here in December and five children were baptized, Offering $5.00.

SOUTH PARIS.—Two adults were baptized.

Besides these services the Missionary has held services in the Parishes of Bath, Gardiner, Saco, at various times and at North East Harbor, Dexter, Lunt's Corner, Allen's and Mechanic Falls. When not otherwise engaged the Missionary has assisted in the services of the Cathedral.

CHARLES T. OGDEN, Missionary.

CANON L

Of Missionary Organization.

§ 1. The Missionary operations of the Church in this Diocese shall be conducted in accordance with the Act of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society.

§ II. 1. Missionary Stations are under the control of the Bishop and the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

2. Missionaries are appointed by the Board of Missions, on the nomination of the Bishop, and in the fields assigned them are the agents and representatives of the authorities of the diocese.

3. The entire salaries of the Missionaries are to be paid by the Board of Missions, but the people to whom they are sent must be stated contributors to the Treasury of the Board, to the amount of a minimum which shall be agreed upon from year to year, between them and the Board.

4. The Weekly Offertory is to be established at the commencement of the Mission; not only as the easiest way of raising money, and of dividing the expenses equitably among the people, but also that the duty and habit of Christian giving shall be practically inculcated.

5. The title of real estate given to or purchased by the Mission for Church purposes, shall be vested in the Trustees of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, to be held by them until such time as the Mission shall become a duly organized Parish, or longer if the parishioners shall so elect.

6. The change from the "Mission" to the "Parish" may be made when, first there shall be a sufficient number of male persons of good standing to act as Wardens and Vestrymen; and when, secondly, the station is provided with a church, and is able to support a Rector without Missionary aid.

7. Missions duly organized shall report to the Annual Convention through their Missionaries, or if there be none in charge, through their Clerk, or if there be no clerk through the Treasurer. And in these reports, in their own records, in all Diocesan statistics and accounts, in their names, in their obedience to the Canons of the Church, and the action of the Diocesan Convention, they shall be held and treated as Parishes, with the obvious exceptions resulting from their having no corporate character.

8. The failure of the people of the Mission to fulfil their stipulation, may warrant the Bishop in withdrawing his Missionary, and with the consent of the Convention, dissolving the organization.

§ III. 1. Persons desirous of the service of the Church in their town, village or neighborhood, shall make application to the Bishop in the following form:

To the Right Rev. Bishop of Maine:

We, the undersigned, residents of the town of ———, county of ———, Diocese of Maine, being desirous of obtaining the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, do hereby request you to provide them for us as you think fit. For which benefits we do hereby agree to put ourselves under your charge; promising conformity to the Constitution, Canons, Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of said Church, to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Maine, and to the rules regulating Missionary Stations in this Diocese. And in accordance with those rules, we are now desirous to be organized as a Mission, under the name of ——— Mission; ———. Furthermore, we hereby agree to pay to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions of the Diocese, in four equal quarterly instalments, the sum of ——— at least, for the first year.

Respectfully,

Your obedient Servants,

This application shall be signed by the adults, not less than six in number, who propose to be members of the Mission.

2. If the Bishop consent to the organization of a Mission, he shall appoint, on consultation with the Missionary, the following officers to serve for the first year, after which they shall be elected annually, in Easter Week, by the people:—a Warden, a Treasurer and a Clerk; or if it be deemed expedient by the Bishop, a Warden and Treasurer only shall be appointed.

3. It shall be the duty of the Warden to procure a room or house, to be used as a place of public worship; to see that the same be kept clean and in good repair, and that it be provided with all things necessary for conducting the services of the Church decently and in order. He shall also provide the Bread and Wine for the Holy Communion; take charge of the Communion Service, the Linen, Books, etc., belonging to the Mission; and shall endeavor, in the absence of the Missionary at any time, to keep up the regularity of the services.

4. The Warden shall be Deputy ex-officio to the Convention, and shall also be entitled to a seat and vote in the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to collect or receive all moneys contributed by the Mission, and to remit or disburse them in accordance with the rules of the Board of Missions.

6. It shall be the duty of the Clerk, or if no Clerk be appointed or elected, of the Treasurer, to keep a record of events of importance to the Mission, and a list of its families and members; and in case the Missionary be non-resident, to have the custody of the Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, etc., but not to make entries therein, except by the Missionary's request, or in his absence; and to attend to any correspondence required by or for the Mission.

7. The Missionary, in consultation with the officers, shall appoint the Sexton, Organist, Choir Leader, Sunday School Superintendent, and any other helper he may find necessary; but in his absence the right of such appointment shall rest with the Officers previously named.

§ IV. 1. Every person becoming a member of the Mission, and willing to aid in its support, is expected to name a certain sum per week, which he will pay to the Board of Missions, whether it be large or small, "according as God hath blessed him."

2. At every Sunday service, or at least once when there are two on the same day, there shall be an offertory; and then the contributors shall place the amount due from them in the Alms-basin, in envelopes marked with their names or numbers. The Treasurer receiving and opening these envelopes, shall credit the givers with the amounts enclosed, and at the end of each quarter shall collect whatever arrearages may be unpaid.

4. Money contributed outside of the envelopes shall be separately recorded and reported to the Board of Missions, and excepting such amounts as have been collected as Communion Alms, or for Canonical objects, they shall be appropriated: 1. To the contingent expenses of the Mission. 2. To such other objects as the Missionary may deem expedient.

§ V. 1. Every organization of a Mission in accordance with § III., shall be reported by the Bishop to the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

2. The Convention, on receiving such report, shall declare by vote its approval of the organization; and such approval shall entitle the Mission to representation by its Warden, as provided in § III. 4.

CANON II.

Of Lay Deputies.

§ 1. A form of certificate for lay deputies in conformity with Art II., § 2, of the Constitution, shall be sent to all the parishes by the Secretary of the Diocese one month at least before the meeting of the Annual Convention.

§ 2. The certificates of the election of Lay Deputies shall be sent to the Secretary before the first day of the Annual Convention; and the Secretary shall make a roll of the names of the Lay Deputies whose Certificates are in regular form.

CANON IV.

§ 1. When any Minister of this Church is tried for any of the offences named in the Canons of the General Convention, for which a Minister may be tried and punished, it shall be on presentment made to the Bishop by three Presbyters of this Church, or by the Vestry of the Parish to which the Minister belongs, and approved by at least one Presbyter. In every presentment the charges shall be distinctly specified.

§ 2. When any Clergyman has been charged according to this Canon with any offence, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to furnish the accused with a copy of the charges and specifications alleged against him, and require him to make answer thereto before him and his Council, whom he shall convene to hear and judge of such charge or charges; and it shall be his duty to notify the accused person of the time and place of meeting, one month at least previous to the meeting. The aforesaid Council shall consist of at least four Presbyters of the Diocese. If the Bishop and his Council or a major part of them, after hearing the evidence, shall judge the accused person guilty of either or all of the charges laid against him, the Bishop shall reprove, suspend, or degrade the person so convicted, as he and a major part of his said Council shall think the offence may deserve.

§ 3. If the accused shall refuse or neglect to appear, when summoned according to this Canon, and no defence be made by his authority, they shall declare him to be "in contumacy"; and sentence of suspension from the ministry, until he shall appear or render satisfactory answer, shall pass against him for contumacy; and if, after six calendar months from the date of such sentence, he shall not have appeared, or have rendered such answer, the Bishop may with the advice and consent of the Clerical members of the Standing Committee, pronounce against him the sentence of degradation from the ministry; or else the sentence of suspension shall still remain in force till he shall appear and render satisfactory answer.

CANON V.

There shall be in every Parish, Monthly Offerings for Diocesan Objects. It shall be the duty of the Rector or Minister of each Parish to give notice of these collections, and regularly to remit the amounts contributed for Diocesan Missions to the Treasurer of the Maine Episcopal Missionary Society, and the other collections to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

The Diocesan objects are, Diocesan Missions; the Fund for the Support of the Episcopate; Christian Education; and Bible and Prayer Book Distribution.

CANON VII.

*§ 1. In reporting communicants the minister shall report the whole number of those who having been confirmed, have received, and who have not been transferred, or who have not permanently removed, to any other parish or mission or out of the Diocese.

§ 11. It shall be the duty of all ministers of the Diocese to report to the Bishop the names of such persons as may come to their knowledge, who are attached to our Communion, and who are inhabitants of towns where there is no Episcopal congregation ; and it shall be the duty of the several Rectors in this Diocese to give the Bishop early notice of the removal of any of their parishioners to such towns.

CANON—OF MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.

§ 1. If any person be joined together otherwise than as God's Word doth allow, their marriage is not lawful.

§ 11. No minister, knowingly, after due inquiry, shall solemnize the marriage of any person who has a divorced husband or wife still living, if such husband or wife has been put away for any cause arising after marriage; but this Canon shall not be held to apply to the innocent party in a divorce for the cause of adultery or to parties once divorced seeking to be united again.

§ 111. If any minister of this Church shall have reasonable cause to doubt whether a person desirous of being admitted to Holy Baptism, or to Confirmation or to the Holy Communion, has been married otherwise than the Word of God and discipline of this Church doth allow, such minister before receiving such person to these ordinances shall refer the case to the Bishop for his godly judgment thereupon:—Provided, however, that no minister shall, in any case, refuse the Sacraments to a penitent person in imminent danger of death.

§ IV. Questions touching the facts of any case arising under Section 11. of this Canon shall be referred to the Bishop of the Diocese or Missionary Jurisdiction in which the same may occur; or, if there be no Bishop of such Diocese or Missionary Jurisdiction, then to some Bishop to be designated by the Standing Committee; and the Bishop to whom such questions have been so referred shall thereupon make inquiry in such manner as he shall deem expedient; and shall deliver his judgment in the premises.

§ V. This Canon, so far as it affixes penalties, does not apply to cases occurring before it takes effect according to Canon 4, Title IV.†

The Standing Committee on Diocesan Education reported by Rev. Canon Pyne as follows :

REPORT.

The Standing Committee on Education, to whom was referred the resolutions presented by the Rev. Mr. Martin, recommend the passing of Resolutions 1 and 3, and the rejection of Resolution 2. They recommend the following substitute for Resolution 4.

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend to the clergy and congregations of the diocese to provide by collections, subscriptions, or otherwise, for the partial support of some pupil or pupils in the diocesan schools.

*Appendix II, B. †Appendix II, C.

On motion, the report was accepted and the resolutions therein contained adopted.

The Special Committee on the proposed Revision of the Book of Common Prayer reported as follows:

REPORT.

The Special Committee to whom were referred the resolutions of the General Convention on the Enrichment of the Prayer Book respectfully report to the Convention the following resolutions:

I. That while recognizing the many valuable elements in the "Book Annexed" as modified by the General Convention of 1883, this Convention is not prepared to advise the acceptance of that book without further revision.

II. That if any part of the proposed changes of the Book Annexed be adopted at the approaching General Convention, no such change ought to be incorporated into the text of the Prayer Book until the revision now in hand be completed.

III. That it is desirable to adopt at once, but not to print in the text of the Prayer Book, the new rubric in regard to the permissible omission of the Decalogue at early celebrations of the Holy Communion.

IV. That it is desirable to adopt at once, but not to print in the text of the Prayer Book, the new rubric allowing the omission of the Longer Exhortation in the same office.

V. That in the opinion of this Convention the Nicene Creed, with the original rubric in regard to its use, should be restored to its old position in the office for the Holy Communion.

For the Committee,

HENRY R. PYNE, Secretary.

On motion, the report was read clause by clause and its resolutions passed.

The tellers reported that the Rev. Mr. Little had been elected as the other clerical member of the Standing Committee.

It was moved by Rev. Mr. Rede that a committee be appointed to take into consideration the revision of the assessments of parishes. Passed.

The chairman appointed Rev. Messrs. Pyne and Ogden and Mr. Deake as a special committee on this subject.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of delegates to the General Convention.

The tellers reported that on the first ballot for election of delegates to the General Convention the Rev. Canons Washburn and Leffingwell and Messrs. Jackson, Ingalls, Bridge, and Gardiner were elected.

The Standing Committee on Unfinished Business reported as follows :

The Standing Committee on Unfinished Business respectfully report that with the exception of the report of the special committee on the proposed Revision of the Book of Common Prayer they find no unfinished business on the pages of the last Convention Journal.

The committee would respectfully remind the Convention that it is its duty to elect at this meeting, on the Bishop's nomination, one honorary Canon of the Cathedral in place of Rev. Canon Leffingwell, whose term of office now expires.

C. MORTON SILLS, Chairman.

On motion, the same appropriation as last year was made for the support of the diocesan paper, the NORTH EAST.

The Standing Committee on Finance reported through their chairman, Mr. Geo. E. B. Jackson, that they had examined the accounts presented to them and had found them correctly cast and properly vouched.

There being still two vacancies in the clerical delegation to General Convention, the tellers reported the election on the second ballot of the Rev. Canon Pyne. On the third ballot the membership of the delegation was completed by the election of the Rev. Dr. Parke.

On motion of Mr. Jackson, it was resolved that the Board of Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall be increased by one, and the Rev. Mr. Martin be the additional member.

The tellers reported the election of Rev. Messrs. Gwynne and Little and Messrs. Moody, Merrill, and Deake, as supplemental deputies to General Convention.

On motion, the Secretary of the Convention was authorized to cast the vote of the Convention for Rev. W. D. Martin, Rev. C. T. Ogden, and Mr. W. S. Choate, the remaining number of supplemental delegates.

On motion, four hundred copies of the Journal were ordered to be printed and distributed as usual, under the direction of the Secretary.

That the Secretary be instructed to print in place of the Constitution and Canons the different trusts held by the diocese, that the diocese may know who the trustees are, and on what conditions the trusts are received.

The minutes of to-day's proceedings were read and approved.

The Special Committee on Assessment reported that they had not had time to complete their report and asked leave to report fully in the Journal.*

On motion, such leave was granted.

On motion, a vote of thanks was passed to the chairman and by him briefly acknowledged.

Prayers were said by the chairman, after which the Convention adjourned sine die.

WILLIAM H. WASHBURN,

President of the Convention pro tem.

CHARLES MORTON SILLS,

Secretary of the Diocese.

Report of Special Committee on Revision of Assessments.

The Committee empowered by the Convention to revise the Table of Assessments for the Diocesan Fund for the ensuing year, and report the same in the Journal, have made the following assessments on the several Parishes and Missions. The increase in amounts over previous years is to provide for the usual expenses of the General Convention, and enable the Standing Committee to make an allowance to the Clerical Delegates to the General Convention for their traveling expenses, in accordance with action taken by that body. APPENDIX I.

A.

The Bishop's Address.

BELOVED BRETHREN:—It is very difficult for me to realize that this is the twentieth Convention of the diocese of Maine at which I have presided, and that the term of my Episcopate already exceeds that of my venerated predecessor. If larger results had been achieved it might be easier to conceive that nearly a score of years have passed since I began my official labors here; but to me the aspect of the field is so much the same as when I first viewed it, and so little seems to have been accomplished in comparison with what remains to be done, or, perhaps, with what might have been fairly expected in so considerable a period, that I would willingly persuade myself that the time has been shorter. On the other hand, the present place of my own name on the roll of the House of Bishops and the record of changes which have occurred in the personnel of the clergy and communicants of the diocese testify very plainly to the lapse of the years. Our next Convention, should I be permitted to meet with you then, will be a suitable occasion for a historical review of the work and progress of the Church in this diocese under the administration of its second Bishop. At this time I present only a brief report of my official acts for the past year.

In the month of June, subsequent to the adjournment of our last Convention, I presided at the Commencement exercises of S. Catharine's Hall, Augusta, on the 18th, and preached and confirmed one candidate in S. Paul's Church, Brunswick, on the 19th.

In August I visited and preached in the churches at Camden, Rockport, Rockland, Thomaston, Wiscasset, and Newcastle. Confirmations on this visitation, at Camden, four; at Rockport, three; at Wiscasset, one; and at Newcastle, one. I also officiated, by request, on the 23d, at Poland Springs, and on the same day, for the first time, at Mechanic Falls.

On the first day of September, in Christ Church, Eastport, I presided at a business session of our Board of Missions, and in the evening preached and confirmed six candidates. On the following day, in the same church, I ordained to the diaconate George Shuttleworth Atwood, and to the priesthood Rev. Carroll Everett Harding. The presenters were the Rev. Edwin F. Small and the Rev. Walker Gwynne, and the preacher, the Rev. Theo. E. Dowling of the diocese of Fredericton. At a missionary service in the evening, addresses were made by the Revs. Dean Smith and Canon Neales of the diocese of Fredericton, the Rev. Walker Gwynne of S. Mark's, Augusta, and myself.

Proceeding northward from Eastport, I preached in the chapel at Robbinston on the evening of Sept. 3d, when I also confirmed three candidates, presented by Rev. Prof. Steenstra. At evening prayer, on the 4th, preached in S. Anne's, Calais.

Within the two weeks next following I made a general visitation of the missions in Aroostook County. At Houlton, on Sunday, the 6th, I preached twice, confirmed nine candidates, and celebrated the Holy Communion. At Fort Fairfield preached, at evening prayer, on the 7th, and on the 8th baptized two children and confirmed a sick person at her own residence. On the same day preached in the Church of the Advent, Limestone, and baptized three children. On the 10th, in S. James' Church, Van Buren, preached and confirmed two candidates at evening prayer. Preached at Caribou on the 11th. Reaching Ashland on Saturday, the 12th, I officiated twice in Emmanuel Church on the following day, 15th Sunday after Trinity, and also at Portage Lake. On the 14th I held a service in the school-house at Masardis. At Presque Isle, on the 16th, I made a brief address at the reopening of S. John's School, and preached at evening prayer in S. John's Church.

Returning thence southward, I reached Exeter on Friday, Sept. 18th, and on Sunday, the 20th, preached, confirmed one candidate, and celebrated the Holy Communion in Holy Trinity Church. At evening prayer, on the same day, preached and confirmed three candidates in the Church of the Messiah, Dexter, the Rev. Geo. S. Hill assisting in the services and presenting the candidates in both churches.

On Wednesday, Sept. 23d, I made a brief address at the opening of the school year of S. Catharine's Hall, Augusta, and also had the pleasure of officiating at the laying of the corner-stone of the new parish church, which is now well advanced toward completion.

No official acts were performed by me within the diocese during the month of October, my ordinary ministrations in the Cathedral not being reckoned as such. But, while engaged chiefly in these home duties, I journeyed in the early part of the month to Vergennes, Vt., by request of my beloved brother, the Bishop of that diocese, to preach at the annual meeting of the diocesan branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, and later attended a session of the Church Congress in New Haven, my special function there being that of celebrant at the consecration in Trinity Church.

On All Saints' Day, Nov. 1st, being in Philadelphia, I was requested by the Bishop of Pennsylvania to hold a confirmation service in S. David's Church, Radnor, where I preached, confirmed ten persons, and celebrated the Holy Communion. On the following Sunday I preached twice in New York. On the 24th of the same month, having been previously for some time at home, I visited S. James' Church, Oldtown, and at evening prayer preached and confirmed one candidate.

From this date throughout the winter my time was largely engrossed by parochial labors. On the 8th of December I confirmed a sick person in S. Paul's parish, Portland. On the 15th and 16th presided at a session of our diocesan Board of Missions in Christ Church, Gardiner. On the 21st confirmed two persons in the Cathedral. At the evening service in the Cathedral on the feast of the Epiphany, I confirmed a young man residing at Canton, Me. On the 13th of January, in the Cathedral, I confirmed a lady from Bath, whom on the same occasion I united in marriage to the Rev. Robert N. Parke, R.D., rector of Grace Church. On the 25th of the same month I officiated at the marriage of the Rev. Chas. L. Wells, rector of Christ Church, Gardiner, with Miss Marie L. Goddard of Nashua, N. H., in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Nashua.

At the urgent request of the Bishop of Pennsylvania, who had become disabled by protracted illness, I devoted the greater part of the month of March to a visitation of parishes in the city of Philadelphia in the course of which 399 candidates were confirmed. It gave me great pleasure to perform this service for my beloved brother, and in a city where I have many personal friends and steadfast helpers both among the clergy and laity. I was most cordially received and hospitably entertained everywhere, and although by no means resting from labor, I gained refreshment from the change of work and sojourn at one of the chief strongholds of our American Church.

Beginning my diocesan spring visitation in Holy Week, I confirmed in S. Mark's Church, Augusta, April 19th, sixteen candidates, and on Good Friday, April 23d, twenty-five in S. Paul's Church, Portland; preaching and making a special address to the candidates on both occasions. In the Cathedral on Easter Even, having baptized four adults at the morning service, I confirmed twenty-seven candidates at evening prayer. In Trinity Church, Lewiston, on the Wednesday evening in Easter Week, I preached and confirmed nineteen candidates. On the first Sunday after Easter, May 2d, I preached twice, confirmed three candidates, and celebrated the Holy Communion in Christ Church, Gardiner. On the following Sunday I visited Grace Church, Bath, and S. Paul's, Brunswick. In the former preached, confirmed four candidates, and celebrated the Holy Communion, and in the latter preached at evening prayer. The concurrence of several unfortunate circumstances deprived the rector of S. Paul's of the satisfaction of presenting at this time a number of candidates who had been duly instructed for confirmation. On Sunday, May 16th, in S. John's Church, Bangor, I preached twice, confirmed ten candidates, and celebrated the Holy Communion.

Proceeding from Bangor to Mt. Desert, I had the pleasure of meeting the rector and many of the people of S. Saviour's, Bar Harbor, at a parish festival on Monday evening. No official appointment had been made for S. Saviour's at this time, but the opportunity afforded me of joining in the happy social festival, and of inspecting the enlarged and beautified church, was very gratifying to me.

A good congregation was assembled in the little church of S. Mary by the Sea, North East Harbor, on Tuesday evening, and they both joined reverently and heartily in the service, and listened with very earnest attention to the sermon. The missionary in charge had hoped to present a class for confirmation on this occasion, but the absence of one or two who had been duly prepared for that rite, and the hesitation of others who had also attended special instructions for its reception, resulted in disappointment to him and to myself. Three candidates, however, have been confirmed in this mission during the past year (Sept. 11, 1885) by the Bishop of Albany, acting at my request.

An appointment had been made for a first service at Seal Harbor, four miles distant from North East Harbor, on Wednesday evening, May 19th, and at the designated hour the cleanly and commodious school-house at that hamlet was completely filled. The presence of a few churchmen from another diocese, who had already taken up their summer residence at this pleasant resort, and of a number of brethren from North East Harbor assured hearty responses and a musical rendering of the Canticles, so that the service was made impressive to the many who now heard it for the first time. All seemed gratified, and a goodly number of the congregation lingered after the service to express to me their satisfaction with what they had seen and heard. It is not improbable that a simple chapel may soon be erected at this point, which, as it could be supplied throughout the year by the clergyman in charge of S. Mary's, would be a great boon to the resident community. Hitherto there have been no regular or stated religious ministrations of any kind at Seal Harbor, and no house of worship has been built there.

On Friday, May 21st, I visited S. Mark's Church, Waterville, and at evening prayer preached and confirmed nine candidates, being assisted in the service by the Rev. F. S. Sill of the diocese of Albany, formerly of this diocese, and the Rev. M. McLaughlin, missionary in charge. The prospects of this mission are at this time very encouraging; the missionary is enthusiastic, the people united and zealous, and the little church having been not only prettily decorated, but freed from debt, may now be formally consecrated. Should the present degree of interest be maintained and the congregation continue to increase as it has recently done, the mission would ere-long develop into a self-sustaining and prosperous parish.

On the 27th and 28th of May I visited the stations under the charge of the Rev. M. H. Wellman, Dresden and Richmond, preaching at three services. Apparently, there is no more promise of Church advancement at Dresden now than in former years, but there is a degree of interest exhibited by a number of excellent persons at Richmond which encourages the hope that we may gain a permanent footing in that important town. To that end it is doubtless desirable that the clergyman in charge should have his residence in the town rather than, as now, two miles away, and on the opposite side of a river which is sometimes quite impassable. I heartily wish, therefore, that he could be enabled to make the change.

My final visitation for the Conventional year was that of S. Stephen's Church, Portland, Sunday, May 30th, when I preached and confirmed a class of ten persons presented by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Dalton.

To this brief report, which is perhaps less circumstantial than usual, I add a few observations upon the general condition of our parishes and missions. In several of these gratifying progress has been made in material things. I have already alluded to what has been done at Augusta, at Bar Harbor, and at Waterville. The Church of the Messiah, Dexter, has, by zealous and persistent effort, nearly extinguished its pecuniary indebtedness; the debt on the new rectory at Lewiston has been cancelled; the new church building at Houlton has been inclosed and its basement room finished without incurring any debt; the church at York Harbor has been finished; a chapel has been built at Prout's Neck; the chapel of S. Mary by the Sea has been enlarged; substantial repairs have been made on the church building of S. Philip's, Wiscasset, and some ornamental work has been done in the Cathedral.

The accomplishment of these works represents in some instances great zeal and liberality on the part of our own people and, so far, they have for me a very encouraging significance. I am much less interested in simply having such things done than in having them done by ourselves, as servants of Christ, from the fulness of our love to Him, and in the exercise of personal devotion and self-denial. For only thus is the progress of the spiritual building indicated, or do we approve ourselves as faithful stewards. Appeals for aid to our brethren elsewhere in achieving that which we might achieve by our own efforts are not only unjustifiable, but self-degrading. And still more unbecoming, in the prosecution of the work of the Church of Christ, is the too common practice of resorting, needlessly, to the general public. Whatever may be gained by such means is more than counterbalanced by loss of that moral influence which is the chief power of the Church as an organization. For even the immediate end sought by such means can be attained only by appealing to inferior motives and pandering to carnal appetites. The world, as such, will not support the Church or favor Christian undertakings, save on conditions which the Church should scorn to accept, and every Christian should blush even to consider. And unless the Church maintains her own spiritual integrity, and affirms the law of holiness, as well in the methods of her work and in the lives of her members as by the word of her ministers, how can she convert the world from sin to godliness, and bring in the kingdom of God on earth? "If the salt has lost its savor, wherewith shall it be salted?" I am well aware that the local strength of some of our missions is not as yet sufficient, even if put forth to the utmost, to maintain the ordinary ministrations of worship, much less to provide further equipment. These are justly entitled, therefore, to the sympathy and help of their brethren in the same "body of Christ," who should realize that "if one member suffer all the members must suffer with it," and who, if strong themselves, should rejoice to bear the burdens of the weak. But as it is required that "every man shall bear his own burdens," according to his ability, so the members of every parish and mission should recognize their responsibility to give and to labor to the full extent of their ability for the support and prosecution of their local Church enterprises before even consenting to receive aid from others. "Every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor." It is not enough that the work be done, but we ourselves must have part in doing it if we would share in the reward. The peculiar strength of the Church of Christ is exhibited and exercised only to the extent that its members are duly performing their functions as members of the spiritual organism, the mystical "body of Christ," and are faithfully devoting themselves to the service of Christ, their Master, and the actual strength of any particular parish, as an agent for accomplishing the specific work of the Church, is measurable by the number and activity and steadfast devotion of its faithful communicants. In all of our parishes, and notably in some, there are men who have long been parishioners, members that is of the civil corporation called the parish, and yet have neither made any vows of allegiance to Christ, nor in any way confessed a sense of personal obligation to Him or of dependence upon Him. They may be men of exemplary life and character according to a worldly standard, and may give, in some measure, of their substance for the support of Christian institutions; but, nevertheless, their attitude and example with respect to the call and requirements of the gospel, their apparent indifference to distinctively Christian obligations, and unconcern for aught beyond or above the affairs of this present life, seriously obstruct the spiritual growth and influence of the parish, and, so far, make their connection with it a disadvantage. But a still greater obstacle than this is the feebleness of the sense of individual responsibility often manifested by those who have voluntarily taken upon themselves the yoke of Christian discipleship. If such do not honor Christ by their labors and offerings in His cause, if even they seem to care more for the things of this present world than for those things which are above, if self-denial for Christ's sake and obedience to His precepts and some reflection of His charity do not characterize them, in what way are they promoting the advancement of His kingdom? Our parishes suffer greatly from the lukewarmness and instability and indolence of some who ought to be strong supporters of the pastor and conspicuous in all good works. But on the other hand, thank God, I know of no one of them, nor one of our feeblest missions, in which I have not always found as worthy and earnest Christian men and women, as true to God and true to the Church, as are to be found elsewhere. These, whether rich or poor, learned or unlearned, lofty or lowly in social position, are the real strength of the Church; they keep her light burning, and for their sake the blessing of God will not be wholly withdrawn from her. In them the faithful pastor finds his joy and solace, and the loss of even one such strong, steadfast helper cannot but be deeply mourned. My own sorrow is renewed even now, when I am reminded again of the bereavement which we have sustained during the past year in the death of two of these, Frederic F. French of Bangor and Mrs. Benjamin Davis of Augusta. During the whole period of my acquaintance with him, Mr. French had been a chief officer of his parish, and an officer never absent from his post or negligent of his duties. In all that concerned the welfare of the Church, whether at home or elsewhere, he felt the keenest interest. His religious convictions were deeply and firmly rooted, and his uprightness and kindness and unfailing courtesy in all the relations of life were universally recognized. Of Mrs. Davis I will only say here that her devotion to the Church and her zeal in every good work which her hand found to do were equalled only by her patience under sore trials, and by the humility which withheld her from ascribing merit to her best deeds. "These be my jewels," said the noblest of Roman matrons, presenting her two sons when asked to exhibit her jewels; and of such as these departed ones, who so adorned their holy vocation, shall the Lord say, "They are mine," "in the day when He maketh up His jewels."

Of other special causes affecting the condition of our parishes I note only certain changes among the clergy. The Rev. Edwin F. Small has been transferred to the diocese of Northern New Jersey, the Rev. Richmond Shreve to Albany, and the Rev. Frederick Towers to Indiana. While regretting the departure to other fields of all of these brethren, that of Mr. Small was our most serious loss, for he was a native of our state, familiar with the characteristics of our people, and had labored with us during the whole term of his ministry. These resignations, and the intermittent and insufficient care given to some of our missions, have affected unfavorably the confirmation list; but I trust that the returns of the next visitation may be more satisfactory. The Rev. George S. Atwood (deacon), having declared to me in writing his renunciation of the ministry of the Church, it has been my painful duty to pronounce and record his deposition from the sacred office. In partial compensation for these losses I have had the pleasure of receiving into the diocese the Rev. Joseph Dinzey from the diocese of Quebec, appointed to Christ Church, Eastport, and the Rev. Albert W. Snyder from the diocese of Chicago, elected rector of Trinity Church, Saco, and of Christ Church, Biddeford. These brethren, well known to me as efficient workmen elsewhere, have already, by their earnest and judicious labors, endeared themselves to the people of their present charge, and a considerable number of candidates for confirmation prepared by them in their respective parishes await the Bishop's coming.

The work done in our two schools, S. Catharine's, Augusta, and S. John's, Presque Isle, during the past year, has been creditable alike to teachers and pupils, and there are no enterprises within the diocese which I would commend more strongly to every parish and every churchman than the sustentation and fuller equipment of these schools. Let it be considered that these are not private institutions, established by an individual or stock company primarily for the object of making money, but are institutions founded for the sole end of affording to the young the advantages of a sound and Christian education, under the most wholesome influences and associations, and that they are by far the most efficient agencies under our control for enabling the Church to perform some of her most important functions. The responsibility of parents with respect to their children, next to that of personally instructing them in Christian verities and the principles of Christian morality, and of instilling into their hearts, by the divine blessing, the fear and love of God, is to consign them to teachers who, themselves actuated by the love of Christ, will nurture them as lambs of Christ's flock. Such nurture can be afforded in some measure by the pastor and competent Sunday-school teacher, but how much more fully and effectively in a school where all those in charge are trained and devoted to that work, where constant and watchful care is given to the pupil in every department of culture, and from which is excluded, so far as may be from any society, every perverse and corrupting influence. Such a school is our S. Catharine's Hall, and such, according to its age and the different condition of its work, is S. John's. Concerning the intellectual advantages proffered by these schools, and the competency of their instructors, I do not hesitate to challenge a comparison with any schools for general education, of the same class, not only in our own state, but elsewhere. Considering then, furthermore, that the expense of an educational course (preliminary to that of the college or technical school) in either of these schools is materially less than that incurred in nearly all schools of the same standing, why should they not be preferred by all Churchmen, at least, of this state who send their children from home for education? Other things being equal, should not institutions of our own, of so much value to the Church, dependent for their stability and prosperity upon patronage, be regarded as having a superior if not an exclusive claim upon our own patronage? Is it a question which does not concern our responsibility whether they are sustained and their influence more widely extended or not? It is my own decided conviction that there is no duty more directly incumbent upon every clergyman and every layman of this diocese than to foster and encourage these schools. The graduates of S. Catharine's Hall will be found, with few exceptions, among the most intelligent and active churchwomen in our parishes, or wherever they may now dwell, and to gather more of them around him would be to greatly strengthen the hands of every pastor. I have recently appealed, and would here again appeal, for partial and temporary scholarships to enable us to receive at S. Catharine's some who would eagerly avail themselves of its advantages, but cannot fully meet from their own resources the necessary expenses of the school year. Full endowments of scholarships, of which we have now but one, would be of still greater value to the school, and such an endowment would be a far worthier memorial of a good man's name than any inscription on brass or marble. But those who cannot make such gifts or have not daughters of their own to educate can, at least, direct the attention of their friends to S. Catharine's, and be at some pains to furnish desired information with regard to that excellent institution. Such effort alone, if made by any considerable number of our Church people, would soon fill its rooms. The Principal of S. Catharine's is just now pleading earnestly for the immediate erection of a chapel for the school, and has already received a portion of the money required for that object. I cordially approve and indorse his appeal.

Much that I have said respecting S. Catharine's applies equally to our S. John's School for boys at Presque Isle. The location of that school, though remote from this part of the state (Portland), is in many respects a very desirable one for a boys' boarding school, and is in fact readily accessible. The buildings are new and spacious, comprising a chapel as well as school and boarding-house ; the grounds are extensive and sufficiently retired from the village ; the course of instruction affords a full preparation for college or for a business career, and the expenses of pupils are extraordinarily small. With these advantages, and with the assurances which can be confidently given to parents concerning the moral and religious training of their sons at S. John's, I cannot doubt that this new school will soon attract to itself a wide and generous patronage.

There are other diocesan matters to which I might well invite your attention at this time, but I refrain. It will be incumbent upon us at this Convention to elect delegates to the approaching General Convention. Among the interesting questions to be discussed and decided at the latter will be that of the acceptance and adoption of the Prayer Book as revised and altered in the last Convention. The indications are that the proposed changes and additions are in many important particulars unsatisfactory to the Church, and therefore that the vote will be in the negative. But for my own part I hope that the result of such action may not be to discourage all efforts for a revision of the Prayer Book, but simply to assure a higher degree of success to that undertaking. Certainly many of the suggested modifications in the substance and use of the Prayer Book would be approved by a large majority of Churchmen. Let us therefore secure the ultimate adoption of these, but let us also be content with simply making progress in the entire work until the wisdom and scholarship of those giving the most devout and studious attention to it shall have brought forth their best fruits.

This allusion to the next General Convention recalls to my mind the sad losses which the House of Bishops has sustained even in the last year. Bishop Lay of Easton, Bishop Young of Florida, and Bishop Robertson of Missouri have all been taken from us within that period. Bishop Lay died Sept. 17, 1885, at the age of 62 ; Bishop Young, Nov. 15, 1885, at the age of 64; and Bishop Robertson, May 1st, the festival of SS. Philip and James, at the age of 51. Thus none of these fathers in God had completed the full term of human life on earth, but each of them had done a work for the Church which will be long and gratefully remembered. Bishop Lay was not only a foremost and judicious leader in the great councils of the Church, but was the author of several excellent tracts on her doctrines and discipline, an eloquent and persuasive preacher, and singularly gifted with spiritual graces. Bishop Young, my own former coadjutor in Trinity parish, New York, was one of the best of our liturgical scholars and a valuable member of the Commission on Ecclesiastical Relations; and Bishop Robertson, beside having won high distinction as a diocesan administrator, had become, even among his seniors in the House of Bishops, a chief authority on the conduct of business in that House. All of these will therefore be sadly missed at the assembling of the General Convention, as their departure has been deeply deplored by the clergy and people of their several jurisdictions. But as in former days the vitality and strength of the Church have been found superior to all losses and calamities, so it shall be in the future, and neither the faithful soldier stricken down at his post of duty nor those who for a little while survive him need fear that victory is jeopardized or the onward march retarded by his personal removal from the field. Who then, fighting manfully in whatever rank under the banner of the glorified Redeemer, should not rejoice when his own summons comes to enter into that blessed rest which remaineth for the people of God?

REPORTS OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

A Report of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee respectfully report that their only official acts have been signing the canonical testimonials of Rev. Carroll Everett Harding, Deacon, for Priest's orders, and Mr. G. S. Atwood for Deacon's orders, and consenting to the consecration of the Reverend Edwin Gardner Weed as Bishop of the Diocese of Florida.

Attest :

GEORGE E. B. JACKSON, Secretary.

B Registrar's Report.

The Registrar respectfully reports that in addition to the regular Diocesan Journals and Pamphlets, he has received for the Cathedral Library a number of volumes from the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, and also a donation of books from Mr. James Bridge.

The shelves of the Library are at present quite full, and the Registrar hopes that some means may be devised by the Diocese for securing further accommodation for the publications which it places under the Registrar's care.

C. MORTON SILLS, Registrar.

C Report of the Trustees of S. Catharine's Hall.

The Trustees of S. CATHARINE'S HALL beg to report as follows:

At a meeting of the Trustees, May 25, 1886, the condition of the school was fully considered. There have been sixty pupils in attendance during the year, twenty-seven of whom were boarders. The expenses of the school for this year will be met by the income. The trustees were satisfied that the school had never been in better condition at any period of its history of eighteen years. It has as its Rector and Principal a clergyman of long experience in the work of education in New York and Baltimore, and whose character is such as to command the entire confidence and respect of all who know him. The discipline and instruction are of the very highest order, and the staff of teachers (seven) is not excelled for character and ability by that of any similar school. A resident lady teacher of music and French, of remarkable promise, has been engaged for the coming year.

As regards material matters, the house is large, airy, and heated with steam throughout. It may be safely affirmed, moreover, that there are few schools in the country to compare with S. Catharine's in advantage of situation. The healthfulness of Augusta is remarkable, the death rate being as low as twelve in the thousand, sometimes, as in 1883 and 1884, less than nine. The Hall is situated on an elevation of more than a hundred feet above the Kennebec, in full view of the river, in the midst of eight acres of beautifully wooded grounds. Fevers are unknown, and the general health of the school has always been excellent.

It is expected that 1886-7 will be one of S. Catharine's most prosperous years. In any case it will well deserve the confidence and support of those who have children to entrust to its care.

It may be added that it is hoped to have constructed during the summer a chapel for the use of the school, forming a continuation of the south wing of the present buildings. The need of such an addition, sacredly reserved for the devotions of the household, has been long felt. The well-known architect of the new parish church of S. Mark's, Mr. R. M. Upjohn, of New York, is preparing designs, and already one-half of the sum necessary for the completion of the building has been pledged.

Signed on behalf of the Board,

WALKER GWYNNE, Secretary.

REMARKS.

REPORT OF TRAVELING MISSIONARY, REV. C. T. OGDEN.

KENNEBUNK.—Regular services have been maintained on the second Sunday of every month for the past year. An organ has been purchased. A communicant has given through the offertory $20.00 as the beginning of a Church fund. One communicant has given a stole, and another a surplice, for use in the services. A sale was held in May, from which the ladies of the Mission received the net amount of $135.00 (one hundred thirty-five). Offerings $64.01.

BUCKFIELD.—The regular monthly service has been maintained, and Holy Communion administered. Two gentlemen have provided an altar for the place of worship. Three communicants have removed. Offerings, $65.00.

ANDOVER.—Four Sundays have been spent in this place, and services were held in the Congregational house of worship on two Sundays. The Methodist society was also kindly disposed, and the offer of their building for the purpose of worship is gratefully acknowledged. There are five communicants here. Offerings $27.83.

PARIS HILL.—Two services were held here. Some of the people from Buckfield attended, and the music was furnished by three young ladies from that place. There are five communicants. Received $5.00.

PROUT'S NECK.—A new chapel was erected in this place by the Bishop, in June. The Missionary held services here three times, and administered the Holy Communion. The offering was added to the building fund.

SACO.—Five Sundays were spent in supplying Saco and Biddeford, when these parishes were without a rector.

THOMASTON.—Two Sundays were given to this important work, being sent by the Bishop to hold service here.

WOODFORDS.—A weekly service was held here during Lent. The Sunday-school has been maintained.

INTERVALE, N. H.—A burial service was said here in December.

RICHMOND.—A Sunday was spent here assisting the missionary and a service at S. Paul's, Portland.

When not otherwise occupied have assisted at the Cathedral.

There has been received from S. Mark's church, Philadelphia, a cup and paten, also some linen for use by the Missionary in the celebration of the Holy Communion. He desires to acknowledge this acceptable offering to the Church's work.

S. MARK'S, AUGUSTA.

The Rev. Walker Gwynne.

It is hoped that the new church will be ready for consecration in the Autumn. The old church and lot have been sold for $2,000, possession to be given Nov. 1st, 1886. The building will be torn down, all useful portions being reserved by the parish.

EMMANUEL CHURCH, ASHLAND.

The Rev. Carroll E. Harding, Missionary.

This report includes services held at Ashland, Masardis, Portage Lake, and Garfield Plantation. All the money given at these places is included in the above totals. There are still a good many subscriptions unpaid, which will add something to the total amount for current expenses.

CHRIST CHURCH, GARDINER.The Rev. C. L. Wells.

As Chaplain of the National Home for Disabled Veteran Soldiers at Togus, I have held the following services: Sundays—Evening Prayer and Sermon at 3 P.M., 50; Holy Communion, 2; Funerals, 43; Baptism, 1. I have a Sunday-school of male teacher, 1; female teachers 5; male scholars, 18; female scholars, 20.

HOULTON.The Rev. Hudson Sawyer.

The new Rectory has been finished during the year. About two thousand dollars have been expended on the new church, and fifteen hundred more will be required to complete it.

TRINITY CHURCH, LEWISTON.The Rev. W. H. Washburn.

Since the last Diocesan Convention the Rectory has been freed from debt, and the property conveyed, in trust, to the diocese. The money has come from friends outside the parish, as we have been able to do nothing here, owing to the great depression in the manufacturing business, in which our people are chiefly engaged.

Special Funds and Trusts.

In accordance with the resolution of the Convention (Journal page 13), the following account of the special funds and trusts for the benefit of the diocese is printed:

THE BISHOP'S MISSION FUND.

A fund originating in donations to the late Bishop Burgess, for the support of the Mission work of the Church in his diocese, and transferred by him to the Trustees of Diocesan Funds. It has been received from various sources, and the interest is paid semi-annually to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions. See his report.

DRESDEN FUND.

This fund is the proceeds of the sale of a glebe lot given to the Church by Dr. Sylvester Gardiner, under the following condition:

The sum of $1,000 was given by the late Mrs. Susan Coffin Richards for the purpose of building a memorial church at Machias. The fund with its accumulations now amounts to about $5,000. A permanent trust is to be created to carry out the wishes of the donor, under which the income will be used for the benefit of badly provided churches, more particularly in Washington County, until it shall be desirable to erect the church.
